

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. EXPLANATION of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

- A.—Provision is made in this Grant for sick and disabled men, and for gratuities in aid of funeral expenses, in respect of which the expenditure is necessarily uncertain.
 B.—Casual difference between Estimate and Expenditure.
 C.—Ditto - - - ditto - - - ditto.
 D.—Provision is made in this Grant for substitutes in cases of sickness, for occasional Watchmen, and for gratuities in aid of funeral expenses, in respect of which the expenditure is necessarily uncertain.
 E.—Part of the cost of re-making Rotten Row, for which no provision was made in the Grant, was charged to this Sub-Head.
 F.—Casual difference between Estimate and Expenditure.
 G.—Ditto - - - ditto - - - ditto.
 H.—The tithe rent-charges, for which provision is made in this Sub-Head, vary in amount from time to time.
 I.—From the nature of this Grant the expenditure is necessarily uncertain.

The sum provided in the Vote for 1876-77, for the purchase of land for the Arboretum was inadequate for the purpose, to the extent of 26*l.*, and some small legal expenses became payable in connection with the conveyance, for which no provision had been made.

EXTRA RECEIPTS.—The Extra Receipts which were estimated on the average of previous years realised more than was anticipated.

A Grant has been taken for 395*l.* 8*s.* 5*d.*, the Deficit shown on the Account of the Vote "Royal Parks and Pleasure Gardens," for the year ended 31st March 1877.

VOTE 2.

ROYAL PARKS AND PLEASURE GARDENS.

REPORT OF THE COMPTROLLER AND AUDITOR GENERAL.

1. THERE is an Expenditure in excess of the Estimate, under Sub-Head E., "Works." Excess.

2. In the year 1876-77, 4,900*l.* was granted by Parliament for the Edinburgh Arboretum; this amount was, however, insufficient to the extent of 26*l.*, which, together with some legal expenses, have been paid out of the Vote for this year under a special Sub-Head, opened for the purpose. Edinburgh Arboretum.
Vote 22 B., Class I.,
1876-7.

3. There being no note on the Estimate or Account, I have to observe, that under Sub-Head A "Sub-Head A," the Ranger and Deputy Ranger of Richmond Park, and the Superintendent in the Department of the Ranger of St. James's, Green, and Hyde Parks, in addition to their salaries charged to this Sub-Head, receive Pay and Allowances out of the Army Votes. Two officers of Kew Gardens, in addition to their salaries, receive out of the Vote for the Science and Art Department, Class IV., Vote 2, certain Allowances for Examination and Preparation of Papers.

EXPLANATION of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

A.—Considerable expenditure was incurred in sanitary works at the War Office, and in the addition of a new storey to a wing of the Treasury building.

B.—Casual difference between Estimate and Expenditure.

C.—Casual difference between Estimate and Expenditure.

D.—The variation is due to the consumption of Fuel during the year having been below the average, and to a reduction in price; also to a payment having been made to the Contractor at the end of March 1877 on account of Coal supplied during the Lady-day quarter.

E.—A sum of 2,000 £. was paid on account of the cost of certain new Pumps at Orange-street, for which no provision had been made.

F.—Casual difference between Estimate and Expenditure.

G.—It became necessary during the year to incur special and unforeseen Expenditure in the repair of the Approaches to Menai Bridge.

H.—Casual difference between Estimate and Expenditure.

I.—Casual difference between Estimate and Expenditure.

K.—Casual difference between Estimate and Expenditure.

L.—The payments in respect of the new Registry at Newcastle, and of the works and repairs in District B., were not so great as had been anticipated.

M.—Owing to the illness of the Surveyor, certain work provided for in the Vote for 1876-77 was delayed, and the Expenditure consequently became a charge on this Vote.

N.—These expenses cannot be estimated with accuracy.

O.—This payment for Legal Expenses was made under an Order of the Court of Chancery in respect of the purchase of certain property in 1862. The value of the land was paid into Court at that time by the Board, but litigation has since been proceeding in regard to the disposal of the Fund. The Board had no ground for anticipating that the present charge would become payable out of this Vote.

EXTRA RECEIPTS.—Casual difference between Estimate and Receipt.—A portion of the Receipts arises from the Sale of Old Materials, the proceeds of which cannot be estimated with accuracy.

The Surplus of 5,938*l.* 14*s.* 3*d.*, shown on the Account of the Vote "Public Buildings," for the year ended 31st March 1877, has been surrendered.

CIVIL SERVICE ESTIMATES—CLASS I.—*continued.*VOTE 8.—REVENUE DEPARTMENT BUILDINGS—continued.

EXPLANATION of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

A.—The service was not transferred to the Office of Works until after the Estimates were prepared. During the first year the proceedings of the Board in regard to works were necessarily of a tentative character.

B.—Casual difference between Estimate and Expenditure.

C.— Ditto - - - ditto.

D.— Ditto - - - ditto.

E.— Ditto - - - ditto.

F.—It was found necessary to postpone a large amount of external painting.

G.—The Expenditure was over-estimated.

H.—Votes of Parliament are not taken for fractions of a pound.

I.—The consumption of Coal was less than usual, and the price was low.

J.—Owing to difficulties in the conveyance of the Sites of the new Post Offices at Blackburn, Durham, St. Helens, Stockton-on-Tees, Oxford, Cardiff, Southampton, Swansea, Reading, and other places for which provision was made, the works were either not commenced during the year, or but little progress was made with the same, The works at the Glasgow Post Office, moreover, were delayed owing to bad weather and to a strike at the stone quarry.

K.—This exceeding is attributable to the growing requirements of the Postal Service.

L.—Casual difference between Estimate and Expenditure.

M.—The consumption of coal was less than usual and the price was low.

N.—It was deemed desirable to postpone until later in the year a considerable amount of painting for which provision was made.

O.—Improvements were effected in the mailbag apparatus, in consequence of which the cost of repairs has been sensibly diminished.

P.—Votes of Parliament are not taken for fractions of a pound.

Q.—The explanation of the variation on Sub-Head J. is applicable to this Sub-Head.

R.—The Expenditure was over-estimated.

S.— Ditto - - - ditto.

T.—The price of coals was lowered, and the consumption was less than usual.

EXTRA RECEIPTS.—The Extra Receipts were under-estimated.

The Surplus of 23,770 l. 17 s. 1 d., shown on the Account of the Vote "Post Office and Inland Revenue Buildings," for the year ended 31st March 1877, has been surrendered.

EXPLANATION of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

A.—It was necessary to postpone some of the painting work for which provision had been made.

B.—No variation.

C.—The consumption of water was greater than usual, owing to an underground leakage, which continued unobserved for some time.

D.—The consumption of coal and gas is liable to considerable variation according to circumstances; it was smaller than usual in 1877-78, and the price of coal was moreover low.

E.—From the nature of this grant the Expenditure is necessarily uncertain.

EXTRA RECEIPTS.—The Extra Receipts were considerably in excess of those of previous years, in consequence of the sale of some old materials.

The Surplus of 1,353 l. 6 s. 6 d., shown on the Account of the Vote "British Museum Buildings," for the year ended 31st March 1877, has been surrendered.

EXPLANATION of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

A.—This exceeding is due to changes in the Staff.

B.—The force of Non-commissioned Officers and Sappers was below its strength, it having been found impossible to fill up the vacancies caused by the discharge of time-served men.

C.—The variation arises from the retirement and removal of several of the Assistants, and from fewer Meresmen and Labourers having been required than was anticipated.

D. and E.—Casual difference between Estimate and Expenditure.

F.—Owing to the approaching completion of the Survey of Scotland, it was found unnecessary to supply the usual quantities of Camp Equipage.

G.—Casual difference between Estimate and Expenditure.

EXTRA RECEIPTS.—The amount received from the Landed Estates Court, Ireland, was less than was anticipated.

The Surplus of 5,957*l.* 17*s.* 1*d.*, shown on the Account of the Vote, "Surveys of the United Kingdom," for the year ended the 31st March 1877, has been surrendered.

VOTE 12.

SURVEYS OF THE UNITED KINGDOM.

REPORT OF THE COMPTROLLER AND AUDITOR GENERAL.

1. THERE is an Expenditure in excess of the Estimate, under Sub-Heads A., D., Excess. and E.

2. In this Vote provision is made for the "Expense of Maps for the Landed Estates Court, Ireland," the cost of which when recovered is paid over to the Exchequer as an Extra Receipt. The balance outstanding on the 31st of March 1878 was 11,504*l.* 11*s.* 9*d.* This balance is less than the sum outstanding on the previous year, which was 12,846*l.* 0*s.* 6*d.* The balance due from the Commissioners of the Church Temporalities, Ireland, at the same date, was 53*l.* 6*s.* 9*d.*, as compared with 74*l.* 3*s.* 4*d.* on the previous Account. Expense of Maps.

3. Losses of 5*l.* and 1*l.* 12*s.* 3*d.* have accrued through the failure of Agents for the Sale of the Maps published by the Survey Department. These sums have been deducted from the amount of Extra Receipts brought to credit by directions of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury. Losses through failure of Agents.

VOTE 13.

REPORT OF THE COMPTROLLER AND AUDITOR GENERAL.

1. Dover Harbour.—Sub-Head A.—A SUPPLEMENTARY Vote of 5,000 l. was taken Sub-Head A. to repair the damages done to the Government Pier by the storm of 1st January 1877.

This amount, as stated by the Board of Trade in making their application to the Treasury was to be expended as follows: 3,000 l. in building a portion of the west wall, and the remaining 2,000 l. to be applied to the partial recovery of the stone washed away; their Lordships approved of the sum of 5,000 l. to be immediately expended on the Pier being approximately expended, as submitted by the Board of Trade, but the actual appropriation of the amount was as follows:—

Rebuilding West Wall, and Foreman's Wages - - -	3,752	10	6
Raising debris - - - - -	656	15	-
Rent of Ground during Repairs - - - - -	12	-	-

VOTE 13.—HARBOURS, &c. UNDER THE BOARD OF TRADE.

Sub-Head C.

2. Spurn Point Works.—Sub-Head C.—A Supplementary Vote for 150 l. was taken for this service in March 1878, but as there is a Surplus upon the whole Vote, it would not seem to have been required.

The reason apparently for the Supplementary Vote being asked for was that Treasury sanction was given in October 1877 for certain immediate works at Spurn Point, at a cost of 660 l., upon the assurance by the Board of Trade that every endeavour should be made to keep down the expenditure under the Head of Harbours, so as to enable the sum required at Spurn Point to be met out of the Vote without causing an excess thereon, and the Board of Trade in March 1878 estimated the saving on the Vote would be 510 l. only; consequently a Vote for 150 l. was asked for to meet the difference between 660 l. and 150 l.

Sub-Head D.

3. Harwich.—Sub-Head D.—A note on the Account explains that the saving of 319 l. 13 s. 11 d., under this Sub-Head, “Arises mainly through Expenditure provided for not coming into course of payment within the financial year.” I have, however, to remark that the original Vote for 500 l., and the Supplementary Vote for 969 l., together 1,469 l., would not have met the Expenditure, which amounted in the year to 2,773 l. 18 s. 9 d., had not the Harbour Dues been brought into the Account.

EXPLANATION of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

- A.—Unavoidable delay has arisen in entering into the contract for the erection of the new Police Court and Station in Bow-street.
 B.—Casual difference between Estimate and Expenditure.
 C.—Irregularity of applications by claimants for rent.
 D.—The amount required for payments to caretakers was slightly over-estimated.
 E.—The amount required for Furniture was slightly over-estimated.
 F.—The price of coal during the year was comparatively low, and the quantity consumed was not quite so large as heretofore.

It was not possible to complete the purchase of the whole of the property to be acquired under the Bow-street Police Court Act before the close of the financial year 1876-77, and certain purchase-moneys were therefore charged to this Vote; it also became necessary to acquire some additional property, the cost of which was also charged to this Vote.

EXTRA RECEIPTS were realised from the proceeds of the sale of certain old materials on the site of the proposed new Bow-street Police Court. These proceeds were not included in the estimated amount of Extra Receipts.

A receipt from Registrar of Petty Sessions Clerks for furniture, 450*l.*

EXPLANATION of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

- A.—Additional purchases made during the year with the approval of the Lords of the Treasury.
B.—In explanation of this Saving reference is requested to the detailed Statement appended to this Account showing the Savings and Deficiencies in the several items comprising this Sub-Head.
C.—This Excess is partly attributable to the re-arrangement of Sub-Heads after the Estimate had been submitted on the former basis, as evidenced by the credit in Sub-Head E.—Materials. It further arises from additional works having been undertaken during the year with the sanction of the Treasury, and from the fact that the works of the year were generally in an unusually forward state of progress.
D.—This is due to similar causes to those stated in the preceding.
E.—The Saving in this Sub-Head properly goes in reduction of the Excess under Sub-Head C., for the reason there given.
F.—Covered by an expenditure duly authorised for the purchase of Furniture for the Vice-Regal residences.
G.—Caused by additional rents authorised to be paid during the year, amounting to 222*l.*, and by other rents being more closely paid up.
H.—Excess in a great part caused by the expected reduction in the price of coal, &c. not having been realised.
I.—Estimate proved insufficient in consequence of certain contemplated savings not being realised, and also from supplies having been made to buildings for the first time.
J.—The Board had no sufficient data to guide them in estimating for this Sub-Head, which appears in this Vote for the first time.
K.—New Sub-Head opened for this School in compliance with recommendations of the Public Accounts Committee, 1878.

The Surplus of 18,547*l.* 0*s.* 4*d.*, shown on the Account of the Vote "Public Buildings, Ireland," for the year ended 31st March 1877, has been surrendered.

REPORT OF THE COMPTROLLER AND AUDITOR GENERAL.

1. EXPENDITURE in excess of the Estimate has been incurred upon Sub-Heads A., C., D., F., G., H., I., J. Excess.

2. Sub-Head K. This Sub-Head for Expenditure, formerly charged against Sub-Head D., "Labour," was opened in compliance with the directions contained in Treasury Minute of the 25th September 1878. New Sub-Head K.

3. Under the Sub-Head B., "New Works," it has been the practice to make Grants of public money towards the formation and improvement of fishery piers and harbours, under various Acts of Parliament, and on varying conditions. From an inquiry which has this year been made into the amounts expended on each pier, has resulted the discovery of a small payment on account of Spiddle Pier, in excess of the sum authorised by the Act of Parliament under which the Grant in question was made. Sub-Head B., "New Works."

The correspondence, which is appended, between the Commissioners of Works and the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, will explain the circumstances of the excessive Grant which has been made from the Votes of prior years.

FISHERY PIERS AND HARBOURS.—SPIDDLE PIER, COUNTY GALWAY.

Office of Public Works, Dublin,
31 December 1877.

Sir,
I AM directed to state, for the information of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, that the Board having been recently called on by the Comptroller and Auditor General to furnish a statement of expenditure on Fishery Piers and Harbours which have been built by them from time to time with a view to ascertaining whether the powers conferred by the second section of the Act 29 & 30 Vict. c. 45, which limits the Grant to any one work to 7,500 l., have in any instance been exceeded, they think it right at once to bring under their Lordships' notice that, on inquiry, they find that, by direction of the Treasury, in one instance, in compliance with the wish of the Irish Government, viz., in that of Spiddle Pier, in the county of Galway, an excess amounting to 37 l. 12 s. 2 d. beyond the statutable limit was incurred.

The pier referred to, which was commenced in June 1867, was undertaken in anticipation of the usual inquiries, and the completion of proper arrangements, with the object of giving employment to the people of the district, who were then stated to be in a condition of destitution, and which, as usually arises under such circumstances, led to the original Estimate being considerably increased. Thus the original Grant of 6,000 l., sanctioned by their Lordships on 7th June 1867, was supplemented by another Grant of 1,488 l. on 15th February 1870, and when finally completed there was still a deficit, the portion of which applicable to Grant amounted to 54 l. 11 s., but as 6 l. 18 s. 10 d. was not required, it reduced this grant to 49 l. 12 s. 2 d., of which 12 l. was within the powers of the Act, and 37 l. 12 s. 2 d. beyond it.

The Board can now only conclude that in making the closing application to discharge expenditure actually incurred, and therefore to some extent imperative or beyond their control, the fact that it would exceed the limit was overlooked, otherwise their Lordships' attention would have been directly called to the fact, with the object of obtaining their instructions to the proper course to be followed under the circumstances.

As the case stands, the powers conferred by an Act of Parliament have been exceeded, and the Board would now desire to submit for consideration that to discharge the responsibility they may be authorised to pay the excess in question out of a balance of 561 l. 7 s. 2 d. which the Board hold out of funds which came into their hands under Acts 59 Geo. 3, c. 109 (the original Act for Piers), and 1 Will. 4, c. 54, and is made up of Grant and contribution savings from works and from moneys subscribed by London Relief Committees, and from tolls collected before certain piers were handed over to the county.

The

The Board believe, bearing in mind the composition of this fund, that with their Lordships' sanction, they can apply it to any fishery purpose, and have retained it for that purpose.
If this course be approved, the 37 l. 12 s. 2 d. would be repaid to Her Majesty's Exchequer in adjustment of the erroneous issue.

The Secretary, Treasury, London, S.W.

I have, &c.

(84-78.)

Gentlemen,
Treasury Chambers, 8 January 1878.
With reference to your report of the 31st ultimo, relating to an excess of expenditure of 37 l. 12 s. 2 d. on Spiddle Pier, in the county of Galway, I am directed by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to request that my Lords may be furnished with a detailed account of the fund referred to in your report, amounting to 561 l. 7 s. 2 d., showing how much of this sum arises from the several sources mentioned in your report, and what are the legal provisions which regulate the application of the several amounts derived from those sources respectively.

The Commissioners of Public Works, Ireland.

I am, &c.
(signed) Wm. Law.

(C.)

Office of Public Works, Dublin,
14 January 1878.

Sir,
In reply to Mr. Law's letter of the 8th instant, No 34-78, as to the composition of 561 l. 7 s. 2 d., I am directed by the Commissioners of Public Works to state, for the information of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, that this sum now remains out of transactions which originated with the Act 59 Geo. 3, c. 109, in 1819, which have been conducted by three successive Boards. The moneys issued from the Consolidated Fund between that year and 1835 amounted to 68,062 l., were supplemented by other receipts amounting to 44,371 l., composed of contributions from (1), London Relief Committees, which were specially applied by way of grant; (2), contribution by counties and individuals in aid of works; (3), tolls collected; and (4), repayments by fishermen for loans advanced.

It would be impossible to point out, from accounts extending over such a time, with accuracy the composition of 561 l. 7 s. 2 d. as respects the five various classes including Grant.

If the classification were attempted, much would depend on the view the accountant employed on the duty would take as each case presented itself to him, and in the absence of any defined instructions which it would be difficult to frame, it could not be done at all.

In 1846, it was considered, and reported to the Treasury, that the whole Grant funds were exhausted, but as each case was finally wound up, and the balance carried to one account, this credit was found to remain, and was certainly derived from the sources indicated. When it is understood that the last Grants made to piers under this Act were obtained from savings derived from these sources, the difficulty, or the impossibility, it is believed, of complying with their Lordships' directions will, it is hoped, be appreciated.

The Board is able, however, clearly to state that 135 l. 19 s. 7 d., part of this amount, were derived from dues which cannot be claimed by the Consolidated Fund, or otherwise, and it is consequently available to any purpose the Board and the Treasury determine to apply it to, and out of this latter sum the Board feel warranted in submitting that the 37 l. 12 s. 2 d. be taken and applied to discharge the excess of Grant given to Spiddle Pier.

As regards the provisions which regulate the Grant proper, portion of this fund, and which if the 135 l. 19 s. 7 d. is taken from it is reduced to 425 l. 7 s. 7 d., the Board are advised that their powers as to its disposal are, first, special, and second, general, and that under the second head a wide discretion is conferred on them.

The Secretary, Treasury, London, S.W.

I have, &c.
(signed) E. Hornsby, Secretary.

(D.)

Gentlemen,
Treasury Chambers, 4 February 1878.
With reference to your Secretary's letter of the 14th ultimo, giving information as to the composition of 561 l. 7 s. 2 d., part of which you had previously proposed to apply to meet an excess of expenditure on Spiddle Pier, I am directed by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to acquaint you that they are of opinion that it would not be proper to undo a payment (whether legal or not) which was duly recorded and accounted for in a period the accounts of which are finally closed.

The proper course is, if necessary, to obtain a covering or indemnifying authority for the payment. But the amount is so small, and the inadvertent violation of the law so nominal, that it may be found sufficient merely to inform Parliament of the occurrence through the Public Accounts Committee, as will be done when the Comptroller and Auditor General has reported upon it; and the question as to the need for taking any other steps may be left for the Committee to deal with.

You state that the fund of 561 l. 7 s. 2 d. cannot be claimed by the Consolidated Fund, or otherwise, and is consequently available to any purpose your Board and the Treasury determine to apply it to.

My Lords are of opinion that it is not expedient that public or quasi public moneys should be applied for public objects, except under specific Parliamentary appropriation, and as no claim can arise in respect of this fund, they consider that the proper course will be to pay it into the Exchequer as an Extra Receipt.

The Commissioners of Public Works, Ireland.

I am, &c.
(signed) Wm. Law.

EXPLANATION of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

A.—Through changes in the Judicial Staff, a portion of the amount provided for rent was not expended, and the general repairs were less costly than was anticipated. Moreover, the salary of the Surveyor in China was provided in this Sub-Head, but, since the date of his appointment as surveyor of Embassy Buildings in Europe, it has been charged to a special Sub-Head.

B.—Casual difference between Estimate and Expenditure.

C.—Provision was made for renewing a boundary wall, but it was found possible to repair the same. Moreover, the repairs of furniture were not so costly as was anticipated.

D.—Provision was made for expenditure contingent upon the renewal of the lease of the Embassy House, but no claim has been received for the same.

E.—It was found necessary to carry out certain pressing works not contemplated when the Estimates were prepared.

F.—In the absence of the Minister, only the more urgent repairs were proceeded with; hence the saving.

G.—It was found necessary to execute certain extensive repairs, renovations, and decorations, which were not contemplated when the Estimates were prepared.

H.—The commencement of these works having been unavoidably delayed, they could not be completed within the financial year; hence the saving.

I.—The same remark applies in regard to the Kenat Works.

K.—Casual difference between Estimate and Expenditure.

L.—Ditto - - ditto - - - ditto.

M.—The Consuls are responsible for the Works, and the Accounts received show less expenditure than was anticipated, especially in regard to Smyrna.

VOTE 23.

REPORT OF THE COMPTROLLER AND AUDITOR GENERAL.

1. THERE is an Expenditure in excess of the Estimate under Sub-Heads “E., British Excess. Legation House, Lisbon,” and “G., British Embassy House, Paris.”

2. A new Sub-Head has been opened under the sanction of the Treasury, “Superintendence of Embassy, &c., Buildings in Europe.” Additional Sub-Head.

3. Sub-Head E.—The actual amount paid to Her Majesty's Minister at Lisbon, in aid of the cost of furniture and repairs, has been 292 l. 5 s. 1 d., being 67 l. 5 s. 1 d. in excess of the amount stated in the note. Sub-Head E.

4. “Sub-Head C., British Consulate and Embassy Houses, Constantinople and Therapia.” Under this Sub-Head is charged a sum of 6 l. 18 s. 1 d., being the balance of amount of loss consequent on fraud of a late Clerk of the Works at Constantinople. This sum, with the amount charged in the Account for 1876–7, makes a total loss of 728 l. 2 s. 8 d. Sub-Head C. P. P. 24, 1878.

5. The Net Surplus is, as shown by the Account, 5,561 l. 10 s. 9 d.

REPORT OF THE COMPTROLLER AND AUDITOR GENERAL.

1. EXPENDITURE in excess of the Estimate has taken place under the following Sub- Heads:—

DEPARTMENT OF THE GENTLEMAN USHER:

E.—Salaries.

DEPARTMENT OF THE LIBRARIAN:

G.—Salaries.

CONTINGENT EXPENSES OF THE HOUSE OF LORDS:

L.—Witnesses attending Committees.

M.—Shorthand Writers.

2. Sub-Head C.—There being no note of the fact in the Account, nor in the Estimate, it is to be observed that a Clerk in the Department of the Clerk of the Parliaments has received from the Civil Service Commission during the year 1877-78, in addition to his salary in the House of Lords Offices, the sum of 28 l. 18 s. for services rendered as an Assistant Examiner, which sum has been defrayed out of the Vote for "Civil Service Commission." CIVIL SERVICE ESTIMATES—CLASS II.—*continued.*VOTE 4.—HOME OFFICE—continued.

EXPLANATION of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

A.—During the year a Clerk received 400 l. a year resigned. This place was filled by a Lower Division Clerk. A saving of 80 l. was also effected owing to the resignation of a Senior Queen's Messenger.

B.—An under-estimate.

C.—The number of inquiries held during the year was very large, amongst the most expensive were the Christ's Hospital, the Bath Bridge Accident, the Scotch Herring and Deep Sea Fisheries, the Blantyre Colliery Explosion, and other similar inquiries.

D.—A fractional difference.

E.—A casual variation between Expenditure and Grant.

F.—Mr. Baker, one of the Inspectors, and Captain Patrick, an Assistant Inspector, resigned during the year, and the vacancies were filled by officers receiving less salary. Two officers were also granted sick-leave, one on half-pay, the other without pay.

G.—A casual difference.

H.—The number of Accidents reported during the year was 6,129, a slight decrease as compared with previous years.

I.—For the three previous years (on which the Estimate was based), the average costs of prosecutions was 162 l.

K.—Incidental expenses are always variable.

L.—A fee of 2 l. 2 s. was paid for a translation.

M.—The Inspectors visited every Factory and Magazine licensed by the Secretary of State, and this caused the Expenditure to be larger than usual.

N.—The large Expenditure was caused by the very great number of samples of dynamite requiring analysis. The dynamite stored in nearly all the magazines was found to be in a very impure state, and the matter was investigated.

O.—The Treasury Solicitor defrayed out of the Vote for Law Charges the costs of all prosecutions.

P.—The Expenditure was considerably lower than in former years.

Q.—A casual difference.

R.—A slight under-estimate.

S.—The sum of 795 l. 4 s. 2 d. does not represent the total Expenditure for the year 1877–78, as two heavy bills did not come in course of payment prior to 31st March 1878. The large Expenditure is accounted for by the cost of numerous inquiries into the competency of managers, under the 32nd Section of 35 & 36 Vict. c. 76, which were not anticipated when the Estimate was framed.

T.—A casual variation.

V.—The meetings of the Boards were fewer than had been anticipated.

Y.—No Examination having been held in Ireland, the only expense which was paid was the Secretary's Gratuity.

Z.—An over-estimate.

A. 1.—An over-estimate.

B. 1.—No Furniture was required during the year.

C. 1.—A slight over-estimate.

D. 1.—The Scotch Fishery Commissioners' Fees amounted to 10 l. more than the Estimate; on the other hand, the sum of 150 l. voted for Special Inquiries was not expended, the expenses of the Scotch Herring Fishery Inquiry having been changed to Sub-Head C.

E. 1.—The expenses of the English Inspectors amounted to 69 l. 14 s. 1 d., and of the Scotch Commissioner to 13 l. 10 s. 2 d. less than the Estimate, the former saving is partly accounted for owing to the employment of the two Inspectors upon the Scotch Herring Inquiry.

F. 1.—An over-estimate.

G. 1., H. 1., I. 1.—Casual variation.

K. 1.—One of the Inspectors was appointed on the 22nd August 1878, a Commissioner under the Prisons, Scotland, Act, and his salary as Inspector ceased from that date.

L. 1., M. 1.—Casual variation.

N. 1.—The Inspector's salary for 17 months, came in course of payment during the year; the rate of salary was also increased in November 1877, and a second Inspector was engaged for special service.

EXPLANATION of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

- A.—Caused by the retirement of a Senior Clerk and a Temporary Clerk in the Librarian's Department.
 B.—The salary of a Foreign Service Messenger, which did not come in course of payment in 1876-77, has fallen on this year's account.
 C.—Occasioned by the state of affairs in Turkey, which increased the number of Foreign Journeys.
 D.—The heavy expenditure anticipated under this heading has to a great extent fallen on the year 1878-79, which will exhibit a Deficit, and this Surplus will therefore have to be re-voted.
 E.—The expenditure for Stamps on Passports was less than was anticipated.

CORRESPONDENCE referred to in the foregoing REPORT.

(A.)

Exchequer and Audit Department,
5 April 1877.

Sir,
THE attention of the Comptroller and Auditor General having been called to the first payment of salary to Sir Julian Pauncefote as Assistant Under Secretary of State in the Foreign Office, in support of which the Treasury Letter of 18th July 1876, assigning an annual salary of 1,500 l. per annum to the post is the only authority furnished, I am directed to request you will lay before the Earl of Derby the difficulties which in face of the stringent language of the Order in Council of 4th June, and still more so that of 27 sect. of the Superannuation Act of 1859, arise in passing the present payment, and will subsequently be an obstacle to admitting Sir Julian Pauncefote's claim to a superannuation allowance, unless steps are taken to bring the post in question within the scope of the 4th section of the Superannuation Act, or of the terms of the Order in Council.

F. B. Alston, Esq., Foreign Office.

(signed) H. Treherne.

(B.)

Foreign Office, 9 May 1877.

Sir,
I am directed by the Earl of Derby to state to you, in reply to Mr. Treherne's letter of the 5th ultimo, that the difficulties to which reference is made in regard to the payment of the salary assigned to Sir Julian Pauncefote, and of his claim to a superannuation allowance, are still under the consideration of this office in communication with the Board of Treasury, and that Lord Derby will not fail to inform you of the measures which it may be decided to take in order to place these matters on a more satisfactory footing.

The Comptroller and Auditor General.

I am, &c.

Exchequer and Audit Department,
16 December 1878.

Sir,
WITH reference to Lord Tenterden's letter of 9th May 1877, and previous correspondence on the subject of the position as regards salary and superannuation of Sir Julian Pauncefote as Assistant Under Secretary of State, I am directed by the Comptroller and Auditor General to inquire whether the correspondence then proceeding between the Foreign Office and the Treasury has been brought to a conclusion, and in that case I am to request that you will move the Marquess of Salisbury to furnish the Comptroller and Auditor General with the decision arrived at.

F. B. Alston, Esq., Foreign Office.

I have, &c.
(signed) H. Treherne.

(D.)

Foreign Office, 24 December 1878.

Sir,
IN reply to Mr. Treherne's letter of the 16th instant, I am directed by the Marquess of Salisbury to state to you that his Lordship is still in communication with the Board of Treasury as regards Sir Julian Pauncefote's position as Assistant Under Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs.

The Comptroller and Auditor General.

I am, &c.

EXPLANATION of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

A.—This saving is mainly ascribable to the fact that the office of Parliamentary Under Secretary was unfilled for a short period, and that two of the Second Class Clerks, whose salaries had been provided from 1st April, were not appointed till a few weeks later. There was a Supplementary Estimate in this case.

B. and C.—There were small Supplementary Estimates in these cases; but, as the result showed, the additional amounts were not needed.

EXCHEQUER EXTRA RECEIPTS, 7 s. 2 d.—This small receipt was not foreseen when the Estimate was framed.

“Notes of Extra Remuneration.”

The officer who was Private Secretary to the Secretary of State till 3rd February 1878, on a salary of 300*l.* per annum, received also from Army Funds Regimental Pay, as Lieutenant in the Royal Engineers, at 7*s.* 10*d.* per diem. The officer who succeeded him, at the same rate of salary, drew also from Naval Funds pay as Second Class Clerk at the Admiralty at 385*l.* per annum, with an abatement at 5*s.* per day for the pay of a Writer employed in his absence.

One of the Second Class Clerks, whose Colonial Office salary in 1877-78 was 400*l.*, received also 46*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.* as Private Secretary to the Chief Secretary for Ireland, from the Vote for the Chief Secretary for Ireland Offices.

One of the Assistant Clerks, First Class, whose salary on 31st March 1878 was at the rate of 265*l.* per annum, received also from Indian Funds 38*l.* per annum, being the uncommuted balance of a pension granted on the abolition of the “Indian Navy.”

The extra Porter, who receives 21*s.* a week and 5*s.* for every attendance on Sundays, &c., has also a Naval Pension of 36*l.* 2*s.* per annum.

The Labourer who attends to the lift, &c., at 26*s.* a week, received also a Naval Pension of 18*l.* 5*s.* per annum.

A Grant has been taken for 36*l.* 12*s.* 6*d.*, the Deficit shown on the Account of the Vote “Colonial Office,” for the year ended 31st March 1877.

COLONIAL OFFICE.

REPORT OF THE COMPTROLLER AND AUDITOR GENERAL.

1. THE Office of Under Secretary of State has been placed under Schedule B. of the Order in Council of June 1870, by Treasury Warrant, issued under the 4th Section of the Superannuation Act of 1859, but the requirements of the Order have not been fulfilled as regards Assistant Under Secretaries.

A correspondence, dating from November 1876, has taken place between my department and the Colonial Office on the subject, and I have been informed, under date of 24th December last, that the matter is still under the consideration of the Lords of the Treasury and the Secretary of State.

At present, therefore, these appointments have not due authorisation, and it is to be observed, that unless the requirements of this Order are carried out, an obstacle would be found in the 27th Section of the Superannuation Act of 1859, to the granting of pensions to persons who have filled the office of Assistant Under Secretary of State.

EXPLANATION of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

A.—One Junior Clerkship vacant; shorthand writing less; fewer attendances of Nautical Assessors and fewer Writers employed than anticipated.

B.—Fewer Special Trains and Expenses of Nautical Assessors and Messengers' bills less than anticipated.

C.—Fewer Examinations attended by the Officers of the Privy Council than estimated for.

D.—Fewer Fees paid to Medical Inspectors than anticipated, there being fewer visits to vessels than expected.

E.—Repayment to Admiralty of a claim for moorings supplied in 1872 to quarantine vessels.

F.—No Expenditure under this Sub-Head.

G. H. I. K.—During the panic on the Outbreak of Cattle Plague in 1877, a Supplementary Vote was asked for. The Expenses under each of these Sub-Heads proved to be considerably less than was anticipated.

REPORT OF THE COMPTROLLER AND AUDITOR GENERAL.

1. EXPENDITURE in excess of the Estimate has taken place under the Sub-Head :— Excess.

QUARANTINE EXPENSES:

E.—Incidental Expenses.

This Excess is caused by a repayment in the year 1877–8 to the Admiralty of a sum of 983 l. 16 s. 9 d. for new moorings supplied in the year 1872 to Quarantine Vessels at the Motherbank. It appears that in December 1873 the Privy Council called the attention of the Admiralty to this outstanding charge, which however was not settled until December 1877.

CIVIL SERVICE ESTIMATES—CLASS II.—*continued.*VOTE 8.—BOARD OF TRADE—continued.

EXPLANATION of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

A.—The saving is mainly caused by vacancies in the Supplementary Establishment having been filled up, and that not immediately when they occurred by the appointment of Lower Division Clerks.

Note.—One of the Assistant Secretaries received 6 l. 6 s., and one of the Railway Inspectors 177 l. 16 s., from the Civil Service Commissioners for examining candidates; 100 l. was received by certain Assistant and Lower Division Clerks in the Statistical Department.

B.—Nil.

C.—The saving is caused partly by a decrease in the amount of Fees paid for settling Provisional Orders, and partly by no expenses having been incurred within the year under the Sea Fisheries Act.

D.—The saving is caused by the Expenditure not having been so great as usual.

E.—Nil.

F.—Nil.

Note.—The Solicitor's Messenger received 3 s. 6 d. for each attendance at Police Courts, and 1 s. 6 d. for serving each summons.

G. and H.—The saving is caused by the Expenditure not having been so great as was anticipated.

I.—It is not possible to estimate Law Charges more closely.

J.—The deficiency is caused by no provision having been made for the allowance of 200 l. to the clerk in charge granted by the Treasury after the Estimate was framed.

K.—Nil.

L. and M.—The variation is caused by the employment of writers instead of established clerks.

Note.—Two clerks received 7 l. 16 s. 6 d. for overtime for preparing a yacht list for Lloyd's Registry, and 11 others received 163 l. 2 s. 3 d. for preparing a return for the Admiralty.

N.—Nil.

O.—Over-estimated.

P.—The saving is owing to the death of inspectors whose duties have been undertaken by officers of Inland Revenue.

Q., R., S., T.—Nil.

U.—Over-estimated.

V.—The deficiency is caused by five quarters' salary having come into charge within the financial year.

W.—Over-estimated.

X.—The saving mainly arises from certain vacancies not having been filled up directly they occurred.

Note.—One of the surveyors received 14 l. 5 s. from the Mercantile Marine Fund for work performed for the Northern Light Commissioners. One tapeholder receives 9 s. a week for cleaning offices at Cardiff, and two boatmen receive from the Mercantile Marine Fund, for acting as messengers and cleaning offices at Queenstown and Sunderland respectively, 5 s. a week each.

Y.—The payments under this Sub-Head were less than was anticipated.

Z.—The saving arises from the surveys at certain ports having been to a great extent dispensed with.

A 1.—Over-estimated.

B 1.—Nil.

C 1.—Over-estimated.

D 1.—The deficiency is caused by certain new offices having to be fitted up and furnished.

E 1.—Nil.

F 1.—The deficiency is caused by instruments and experiments (for which no provision was made) having been charged to this Sub-Head in accordance with Treasury sanction. See Treasury Letters of 6th June, 24th December 1877, and 12th March 1878.

G 1.—The deficiency is caused mainly by extensive repairs which were found to be necessary to the launches at North Shields and Middlesboro'. See Treasury Letter of 28th March 1878.

VOTE 8.

BOARD OF TRADE.

REPORT OF THE COMPTROLLER AND AUDITOR GENERAL.

Provisional sanction of certain salaries
and fees.

1. WITH reference to paragraphs 4, 5, 6 of my Report upon this Vote for last year, I have to state that the Board of Trade having informed the Lords of the Treasury that in consequence of the withdrawal of the Merchant Shipping Bill last Session, the necessary statutory authority has not been obtained for legalising the payment of the salaries of Examiners of Masters and Mates out of the Vote, and the payment of the fees received for the examination of Engineers into the Exchequer, the sanction of the Treasury was given to the Board of Trade to act as heretofore, upon the distinct understanding that the necessary statutory powers should be sought and obtained at the commencement of the next Session.

Payments to salaried Procurators Fiscal in Scotland.

2. In paragraph 14 of last year's Report, I referred to the subject of remuneration to salaried Procurators Fiscal in Scotland, for services performed for the Board of Trade. The question of the propriety of these officers receiving remuneration for work done for the Board of Trade has not yet been settled.

Sub-Head I.

3. Under the Sub-Head I., Law Charges, I have to notice a payment of 33 l. 15 s. 1 d. for the reimbursement of the costs of proceedings in a naval court, which had been paid by the master of a vessel in accordance with the finding of the court. In reply to the question raised by my Department as to the statutory authority under which the Board of Trade had power to remit the sentence of a properly constituted court, so far as regards the costs, it has been explained that "the Board of Trade had no statutory authority to remit the costs of the court; but as the reversion of the sentence of the court necessarily carried with it the remission of the pecuniary punishment, they appeared to have no alternative but to repay the amount."

It is unnecessary to enter more fully into the case than to state, that the court inflicted a fine of 45 l. upon the master, and sentenced him to pay the costs of the inquiry; that upon a reconsideration of the case, the Board of Trade saw fit to return him his certificate (having powers for that purpose under Merchant Seamen's Act). The Board of Trade appear to consider the return of the certificate as equivalent to the reversion of the sentence of the court; yet in returning the certificate and repaying the costs, they appear to have considered the infliction of the fine of 45 l. proper under the circumstances.

The case appears to have been the subject of communication with the Lords of the Treasury, and their authority has been produced for charging the costs, 33 l. 15 s. 1 d., on the Vote for Law Charges.

The question as to whether the power given to the Board of Trade under the Act to return the certificate of a master which has been suspended by the order of a naval court, carries with it the power to reverse the sentence as to costs or fine, or both, is one of a legal nature, upon which it is not within my province to give an opinion; but as the case at present stands, it does not appear to me that the payment in question is one which should have been defrayed from the Vote without at least an explanatory note on the Account.

Excess.

4. Under the Head of "Incidents" of the Survey Staff, there is shown to be an Excess of Expenditure over the Estimate, amounting to 1,734 l. 3 s., which is explained upon the Account to be caused by the cost of instruments and experiments having been charged to this Head by Treasury direction. It is to be observed, however, that a sum of 296 l. 1 s. 2 d., the expense of advertising rules as to deck cargoes, for which also no provision was made, has been charged under this Head by Treasury directions, and partly accounts for the deficiency.

New Sub-Head.

5. A new Sub-Head, "Cost of New Steam Launch," has been raised in this Account under the authority of the Treasury.

EXPLANATION of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

	£. s. d.
A.—This Saving arises, first, by reason of Lord Beaconsfield not having received his Salary as Lord Privy Seal, amounting to - - - - -	1,688 17 10
And, secondly, by His Lordship not having appointed a Private Secretary for the quarter ending 30th June 1877, the salary being - - - - -	37 10 -
	£. 1,726 7 10

During the financial year 1877-78 the Assistant Clerk in the Privy Seal Office was paid the sum of 14 l. 17 s. 3 d., in addition to his salary as Assistant Clerk, for services rendered as an Assistant Examiner to the Civil Service Commissioners.

B.—The amount expended having been less than was anticipated when the Estimate was framed, the expenses incurred being very trifling during the period that Lord Beaconsfield held the Seal.

The Surplus of 167 l. 6 s. 9 d., shown on the Account of the Vote "Privy Seal Office," for the year ended 31st March 1877, has been surrendered.

EXPLANATION of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

A.—Owing to an arrangement with the Treasury for the appointment of Lower Division Clerks the Commissioners found themselves in a position to dispense with filling up three vacancies in the Third Class of Clerkships. Three Lower Division Clerks were not appointed.

The amount estimated for the payment of Copyists was in excess of that actually required.

B.—This Estimate is necessarily an approximate one.

C.—The same.

ENDOWED SCHOOLS DEPARTMENT.

D.—The successor to Mr. Fitch was not appointed until some months after the commencement of the current financial year.

A second Junior Clerk was not appointed.

Extra Servants were not appointed.

Copyists are employed as Supplementary Clerks in this Department, and when not engaged upon work connected therewith, are employed in the general copying work of the Office, and their salaries are paid in the general list of copyists, and accounted for under Sub-Head A.; the amount in the Estimate under Sub-Head D. of course providing the necessary funds.

The Architect's fees did not amount to the Estimate.

E.—This Estimate is necessarily an approximate one.

F.—This Sub-Head would appear to have been considerably over-estimated.

G.—This Estimate is necessarily an approximate one.

EXPLANATION of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

A.—Due to vacancies on the Establishment, and to the retirement of a Senior Clerk, whose successor received a lower rate of Salary.

One of the Senior Clerks has been employed as Examiner in Book-keeping, and received on this account during the year 1877–78, 97 l. 7 s.

B.—Casual difference between Estimate and Expenditure.

C.—In part due to an increase in the number of advertisements, in part to a more prompt settlement of advertisement accounts by which the bills of 14 months were paid in this year, and in part to an increase in the number of provincial examinations causing additional expense for hire of rooms, &c. Treasury Authority was given by Letter of 18th March 1878, for meeting the anticipated excess upon Sub-Head C. out of the savings on Sub-Heads A. and D.

D.—A considerable accession to the business done in the Copying Office for other Departments had been expected, but was not realised.

The Surplus of 61 l. 9 s. 2 d., shown on the Account of the Vote "Civil Service Commission," for the Year ended 31st March 1877, has been surrendered.

Estimated Amount of Extra Receipts payable to Exchequer	-	-	-	£.	s.	d.
Amount of Extra Receipts in the Year 1877-78 paid over to Exchequer	-	-	-	3,323	-	-
(The Amount actually received during 1877-78 was 3,460 l. 3 s.)

EXPLANATION of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

A.—The variation under this head is as follows:—A Saving of 580*l.* 16*s.* 8*d.* upon payments to the Permanent Officers of the Commission; a Saving of 78*l.* 10*s.* upon payments to Draughtsmen in the Survey Department, who are employed as occasion may require; a Saving of 16*l.* upon payments to Assistant Commissioner, these being dependent upon the occasion for his services; and a Saving of 10*s.* in payments to Weekly Servants; thus making a total Saving of 675*l.* 16*s.* 8*d.*

B.—The Expenditure for Tracings from Maps, &c., and Extracts from, and Copies of, Documents, depends entirely upon the demand of the public for such work. The Estimate exceeded the payments by a sum of 54*l.* 18*s.* 4*d.* It is to be observed that the total cost is entirely repaid by the parties for whom the Tracings, &c., and Extracts, &c., are made.

C.—There was no action or suit, but only the usual legal expenses, and there was a Saving of 104*l.* 17*s.* 2*d.*

D.—The Expenditure under this head is partly for Time-work and partly for Task-work, and was less than the Estimate by the sum of 192*l.* 9*s.* 6*d.*

E.—The sum of 45*l.* 13*s.* 9*d.* was expended in Sundries, and 22*l.* 10*s.* for Map Rollers, thus leaving a Saving of 14*l.* 16*s.* 3*d.*

EXTRA RECEIPTS.—The cause of the difference of 130*l.* 0*s.* 6*d.* between the amount of "Estimated Extra Receipts" and that actually paid over to the Exchequer was due to a slight increase in the demand of the public for Tracings and Extracts.

The Surplus of 1,321*l.* 0*s.* 9*d.*, shown on the Account of the Vote "Copyhold, Inclosure, and Tithe Commission," for the year ended 31st March 1877, has been surrendered.

CIVIL SERVICE ESTIMATES—CLASS II.—*continued.*VOTE 16.—LOCAL GOVERNMENT BOARD—continued.

EXPLANATION of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

A.—Surplus,—caused by calculating the Salaries of the Assistant Inspectors in the Estimate for 1877-78, with a proportionate increment, according to a scale which was afterwards held to be applicable only after five years' service.

B.—Surplus,—caused by a smaller expenditure than usual being required for Law Charges, and a diminution in the number of special inquiries during the year.

C.—Surplus,—caused by the illness of some of the Inspectors, and the consequent reduction in the amount estimated for Travelling and Personal Expenses.

D.—Surplus,—no Parliamentary Returns requiring to be paid for were called for during 1877-78.

E.—Deficit,—caused by under-estimate.

F.—Surplus - ditto over-estimate.

G.—Ditto - ditto - - ditto.

H.—Ditto - ditto - - ditto.

I.—Ditto - ditto - - ditto.

J.—Ditto - ditto - - ditto.

K.—Deficit,—caused by the re-arrangements of some of the Auditor's Districts after the framing of the Estimate for 1877-78.

L.—Surplus,—caused by over-estimate.

M.—Ditto caused partly by over-estimate, and by the omission of three of the District Auditors to send in their claims for incidental expenses in time for repayment before the expiration of the financial year.

N.—Deficit,—caused by the appointment after the framing of the Estimate for 1877-78 of Mr. S. H. Terry, Assistant to the Special Inspector, under Section 12 of the Rivers Pollution Act, 1876.

O.—Deficit,—caused by ditto - ditto - - ditto.

P.—Surplus,—caused by over-estimate.

Q.—Ditto caused by the employment of some of the Inspectors on Special Inquiries and Reports, thus reducing the travelling expenses.

R.—Surplus,—caused by over-estimate.

S.—Deficit,—caused by under-estimate.

T.—Surplus,—caused by over-estimate.

U.—Ditto - ditto - - ditto.

V.—Ditto - ditto - - ditto.

W.—Ditto caused by the death of one of the Sub-Inspectors, Mr. Hobson.

X.—Ditto - ditto - - ditto.

Y.—Ditto - ditto - - ditto.

Z.—Grant and Expenditure equal.

A. 1.—Surplus,—caused by over-estimate.

B. 1.—Deficit,—caused by under-estimate.

C. 1.—Surplus,—caused by over-estimate.

D. 1.—Deficit,—caused by the increase afterwards made by the Guardians, and sanctioned by the Board, in the Salaries of Poor Law Medical Officers.

E. 1.—Deficit,—Caused by under-estimate.

F. 1.—Surplus,—Caused by over-estimating the amount required for the Supplementary Estimate, the calculation being based upon the amount of the claims previously sent in, whereas the claims actually received afterwards proved to be much less in proportion.

G. 1.—Surplus,—caused by over-estimate.

EXTRA RECEIPTS.—Surplus.—These Extra Receipts consist mainly of Repayments by Local Authorities of the expenses of Local Inquiries. A few arrears had to be collected from the Local Authorities, hence the Surplus in the Extra Receipts over the sum estimated.

The Surplus of 60*l.* 8*s.* 8*d.*, shown on the Account of the Vote "Local Government Board," for the year ended 31st March 1877, has been surrendered.

NOTES.

1. Extra Remuneration received by persons employed in the Mint :

1. Mr. Edward Rigg, one of the Assistant Assayers, received the sum of 46l. 16s. during the year from the Science and Art Department, South Kensington, as Assistant Examiner in Science.

2. Joseph Groves, Fireman in the Assay Department, was engaged, from the 21st of March 1878, as an Assistant, in the morning and evening, at the Peckham District Post Office, at wages of 10s. a week.

2. Explanation of the difference, 37,390l. 6s. 4d., between the Amount of Exchequer Extra Receipts Estimated, and the Amount Realised, during the year :

The Extra Receipts of the Mint depend almost entirely on the amount of Silver Bullion purchased for Coinage, and the amount of Bronze Money Coined, during the year, both operations being wholly governed by the demand for Coin, which, owing to the contraction of trade, was less than had been anticipated.

EXPLANATION of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

A.—The amount paid to Artificers for over-time was more than usual.

C.—This Excess is chiefly caused by the expenses, 53l. 17s. 8d., of an official visit paid by the Deputy Master and the Chemist of the Mint to the Dutch, Belgian, and French Mints.

D.—Owing to important repairs effected in the previous year, it was not found necessary to renew, or extensively to repair, any important part of the machinery during the year.

E.—The Expenses of the Water Supply, and for certain appliances of the Coinage, were more than had been anticipated.

CIVIL SERVICE ESTIMATES—CLASS II.—*continued.*VOTE 18.—THE MINT, INCLUDING COINAGE—*continued.*EXPLANATION of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant—continued.

F.—In consequence of the smallness of the Gold Coinage, the quantity of alloy metal which it was found necessary to purchase during the year was less than was expected.

G.—The purchases of Silver Bullion for Coinage during the year fell greatly short of the average.

H.—The Balance due to the Bank of England for Waste on a Gold Coinage of 7,190,867 l., extending from October 1875 to 31st March 1878, was paid during the year. The amount due for waste cannot be accurately ascertained while a coinage is in progress.

I.—The amount of Silver Coined during the year was again much below the average.

K.—The amount of Worn Silver Coin withdrawn from circulation, and sent in for re-coinage, during the year, considerably exceeded the amount anticipated.

The Surplus of 118*l.* 5*s.* 6*d.*, shown on the Account of the Vote "Mint, including Coinage," for the year ended 31st March 1877, has been surrendered.

VOTE 18.

REPORT OF THE COMPTROLLER AND AUDITOR GENERAL.

Excess.

1. THERE has been an Excess of Expenditure over the Estimate under the following Sub-Heads, viz.:—

A.—Salaries, Allowances, and Wages.

C.—Incidental Office Expenses.

E.—Incidental Coinage Expenses.

H.—Loss on Coinage (Gold).

K.—Loss on Worn Silver Coin withdrawn from Circulation.

Sub-Head C.

2. The explanation given upon the Account respecting the cause of Excess under Sub-Head C., is that the Excess is chiefly caused by the expenses (53*l.* 17*s.* 8*d.*) of an official visit paid by the Deputy Master and Chemist of the Mint to the Dutch, Belgian, and French Mints.

This expenditure, which should, it would seem, more properly have been shown separately on the Account, was authorised by the Lords of the Treasury to be charged against the Sub-Head C., with an explanation upon the Account.

A payment of 13*l.*, for Coins and Medals presented to the Melbourne Library, is included under this Sub-Head by direction of the Treasury.

There is also a payment of 11*l.* 10*s.* 6*d.* for Old English Coins purchased for the Mint Museum, and a payment of 1*l.* 11*s.* 4*d.* for Coins presented to the Paris Mint, which were sanctioned by the Treasury, and are included under this Sub-Head.

The Sub-Head "Incidental Office Expenses," would not seem to have been intended to provide for charges of this description.

EXPLANATION of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

A.—Surplus, 111 l. 9 s. 6 d.—A Supplementary Estimate of 650 l. was obtained to meet unexpected expenditure under this Sub-Head, and this amount was not expended by the sum shown above.

B.—Surplus, 12 l. 15 s.—The amount paid for extra duty at the Museum did not quite reach the estimated sum.

C.—Surplus, 2 s. 7 d.

D.—Surplus, 200 l. 17 s. 4 d.—The amount of 100 l. for Contingencies was not needed, and there were small Savings on the various other items of this Sub-Head. Allowance was, however, made for a Surplus of 200 l. on this Sub-Head in framing the Supplementary Estimate for Sub-Head E.; and a sum of 650 l. only was asked for, instead of 750 l., to meet the expected deficiency on that Sub-Head.

E.—Deficiency, 45 l. 12 s. 1 d.—This deficiency is an apparent one only, as it was more than covered by the Saving under Sub-Head D., as explained above (Sub-Head D.).

F.—Surplus, 5 s.—This expenditure was sanctioned subsequent to the passing of the Estimates, and included in the Supplementary Estimate.

EXPLANATION of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

A.—The savings in Salaries (982 l. 2 s. 5 d.) were principally caused by the death of an Assistant Keeper and the superannuation of another, and by promotions at lower salaries, as stated in the "Explanation" for the year ending 31st March 1877, the greater part of the saving occurring in 1878, after the Estimates had been transmitted to the Treasury. A portion of the savings was, however, caused by the death of a Senior Clerk, and a consequent promotion at lower rate, and by occasional vacancies in two Junior Clerkships during the year.

The savings in Wages (182 l. 9 s. 2 d.) were caused by the superannuation of two workmen, the death of one workman, and the resignation of two workmen, and the promotions at lower salaries, and temporary vacancies.

B.—The Extra Expenditure is caused by the removal of Records presented by the Queen, belonging to the Duchy of Lancaster, and brought from Warrington to the Public Record Office, London.

C.—The saving is caused by smaller Payments to Editors of Calendars of State Papers.

The Surplus of 1,836 l. 12 s. 4 d., shown on the Account of the Vote "Public Record Office," for the year ended 31st March 1877, has been surrendered.

EXPLANATION of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

A.—The Excess has arisen from the appointment of an additional Lower Division Clerk, and from a larger sum than was estimated having been required for temporary salaries.

B.—The Saving is due to trifling variations between Estimate and Expenditure in cab-hire, washing, minor charges, and expenses by Commissioners in aid in the West India Islands.

C.—No larger amount than 64 l. 15 s. was required for Engineering Expenses.

D.—The business in the Solicitor's branch was conducted with a smaller number of clerks than had been expected.

E.—The Supplementary Vote of 1,350 l., having been obtained from Parliament towards defraying law expenses incurred in the case of the Wigan Church Loan, the difference between that sum and the sum of 2,488 l. 11 s. 2 d. proved sufficient to discharge the cost of the other proceedings at Law, Counsels' Fees, &c.

EXPLANATION of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

A.—This Excess has arisen in consequence of payments having been made for the preparation of Parliamentary Returns, and for Returns relating to Police Superannuation, not provided for in the Estimate; and also from more task-work having been performed than was anticipated in preparing for the use of the public the General Index of Births, Deaths, and Marriages, in England and Wales.

B.—Casual difference between Estimate and Expenditure.

C.—The expenditure under this head fell short of the average yearly amount upon which the Estimate was framed.

D.—This Saving has been effected by adopting a better system to lessen the numerous applications from Registration Officers, throughout England and Wales, for books and forms, whereby the expense for carriage of parcels has been considerably reduced.

EXTRA RECEIPTS.—As these Receipts depend upon the number of applications made by the public for Searches and Certified Copies of the Registers of Births, Deaths, and Marriages, the exact amount to be realised cannot be foreseen.

EXPLANATION of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

A.—A gratuity of 300 l. was granted during the year to the Assistant Controller, whose salary was raised at the same time by 100 l. a year. On the other hand, a decreased expenditure followed upon the appointment of the present Controller, and upon a vacancy in the Junior Establishment, which was not filled.

D.—The decrease on this item is mainly owing to a new arrangement made with regard to the packing of paper for India, under which the cost of carriage to the packers is removed from the Votes of the Stationery Office.

E.—When the Estimates for the year were prepared, a saving of 9,500 l., as stated in the explanatory letter attached to the Estimates, was anticipated in consequence of new arrangements which had recently been made in regard to the printing of Specifications of Patents. The actual saving effected proved to be much less than the Estimate.

F.—Some slight economy on this Sub-Head has resulted from the continued fall in the price of many papers in common use, but the large saving shown is to a great extent apparent only. It resulted chiefly from the operation of new contracts for printing and binding, which came into effect during the year 1877-8, under which contractors provide the paper required in the execution of their contracts, and charge for it in quarterly bills. Under the old system, the paper was issued, as required, from the Stationery Office Stores, and the supplies necessary for keeping up the stock were paid for from time to time as they were obtained. One effect of the new contracts has, therefore, been to substitute, to a considerable extent, a system of credit for paper accounts for cash payments, and to lighten proportionately the charges falling on the Stationery Office Vote in the year in which the new system came into operation.

G.—This decrease is owing to the abolition of the stamps formerly necessary on second skins or "followers," and to the reduction in size of other skins used by the Inland Revenue.

H.—This increase is owing to the receipt of larger demands from the Education Department than had been anticipated.

I.—This increase is due to exceptional demands for Small Stores for use of Prisons, for Law Books for Courts of Law, and for a large number of "Hertslet's Treaties."

J.—The expenditure under this Sub-Head is quite conjectural, and depends upon the requirements of the two Houses of Parliament, which are beyond control.

K.—In this case, also, it is impossible to form an exact estimate. The expenditure depends upon the number and size of the books issued, and on the demand for them.

M.—This expenditure depends upon the size of the Gazettes, which vary according to the quantity of advertisements, notices, &c., received from the public for insertion, and paid for by them.

O.—This increase was chiefly caused by a special demand for a complete set of Hansard's Debates.

The Surplus of 1,244 l. 2 s. 8 d., shown on the Account of the Vote "Stationery and Printing," for the year ended 31st March 1877, has been surrendered.

Estimated Amount of Extra Receipts payable to Exchequer - - - - -			700 - -
Amount of Extra Receipts realised in the Year 1877-78, and paid over to Exchequer - - - - -			452 14 1

EXPLANATION of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

A.—The Saving under this Sub-Head arose from vacancies in the Office of the Queen's Remembrancer.

B.—The Saving under this Sub-Head arose from the death of one of the Heralds connected with the Office of the Lord Lyon. During the period of this Account Mr. Burnett, the Lyon King-of-Arms, received 227 l. 10 s. from the Vote for Publication of Calendars, &c., Class III., No. 20, Sub-Head A., in addition to his salary of 500 l., provided for in this Vote.

C. and F.—These Savings are of the nature of casual variations between probable Estimates and actual Expenditure.

D. and E.—These fractional Savings arise from the Estimates having been in even pounds. Dr. Burton, the Historiographer, received during the Year from the Vote Class III., No. 20, Sub-Head A., 525 l., including outlay for assistance, for editing an abridgment of the Register of the Privy Council of Scotland, in addition to the Salary of 184 l. provided in this Vote; and 700 l., as Manager, &c. for Prisons, Scotland, under Class III., Vote 21, Sub-Head A.

EXTRA RECEIPTS.—The difference between the amount estimated and the amount received under this Head applies mainly to the Office of the Lord Lyon, and arises from there having been fewer Grants of Arms in 1877-78 than in 1876-77.

The Surplus of 357 l. 6 s. 6 d., shown on the Account of the Vote "Exchequer and other Offices in Scotland," for the year ended 31st March 1877, has been surrendered.

FISHERY BOARD, SCOTLAND.

REPORT OF THE COMPTROLLER AND AUDITOR GENERAL.

1. EXPENDITURE in excess of the Estimate has taken place under the following Sub-Heads:—

A.—Salaries and Allowances.

B.—Travelling.

2. Sub-Head A.—There being no note in the Account, nor in the Estimate, it is to be observed that the First Clerk has been paid during the year 1877-78, in addition to his salary as First Clerk, the sum of 8*l.* 8*s.*, as Special Local Secretary at Science and Art examinations, and that this sum has been defrayed out of the Vote for "Science and Art." It is further to be observed that one of the First Class Fishery Officers has been paid during the year 1877-78, in addition to his salary as Fishery Officer, the sum of 14*l.* 2*s.* as Inspector at Anstruther Harbour.

EXPLANATION of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

There is a Surplus on Sub-Heads A., B., C., D., and E., of the Vote, in consequence of the amounts estimated for under these Sub-Heads not having been exhausted.

F.—The approval of Her Majesty's Treasury to the Excess under this Sub-Head being met out of Savings which have been effected on other Sub-Heads of the Vote, is dated 30th October 1877, a copy of which was transmitted to the Audit Office on 7th November 1877.

The Surplus of 1,408 l. 13 s. 1 d., shown on the Account of the Vote "Board of Supervision, &c. Scotland," for the year ended 31st March 1877, has been surrendered.

1877-8.

The receipts in my department for the year 1877-78, were estimated as follows :—

Fees of office - - - - - £. 450
Fees of the Order of St. Patrick - - - 350

£. 750

The primary cause of difference between the estimated amount and the amount realised, is the non-creation during the year of a Knight of St. Patrick, and the consequent non-receipt of any return from the Order.

The difference between the estimated amount of office fees, and the actual amount realised; a difference of 62*l.* 10*s.* arises from there being, to that extent, less official business during the year.

The stamps produced 180*l.*, being 80*l.* more than estimated, from the circumstance of there being more stamped documents issued in proportion to the business done.

CIVIL SERVICE ESTIMATES—CLASS II.—*continued.*VOTE 35.—CHIEF SECRETARY FOR IRELAND OFFICES—continued.

EXPLANATION of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

A.—Vacancies.—£.105 was paid under Treasury authority of the 30th April 1877, for the drafting of a Bill for Amendment of Law relating to the Registration of Assurances in Ireland, for which item no provision was made in the Estimate. Major Marcus P. F. Caulfield, second class clerk in the Admiralty Department, received the sum of 249 l. 18 s. 4 d.; and his successor, Mr. W. A. Baillie-Hamilton, second class clerk in the Colonial Office, received 46 l. 18 s. 4 d. each, as Private Secretary to the Chief Secretary for Ireland.

B., C. and E., F., G., H. and J., K., M., N.—These charges fluctuate from year to year, and cannot be exactly estimated.

D.—Partly by an under-estimate of 1 l. in salaries of staff, and partly by an increase of office cleaner's salary, 17 s. 10 d.

I.—Partly by the clerk having been paid at the rate of 160 l., instead of 80 l. as estimated for, and partly by payment to the writer for overtime.

L.—All the officers estimated for were not employed.

O.—This officer receives 1,000 l. as Registrar General, from Vote, "Register Office, General, Ireland," Class II., Vote 41.

EXTRA RECEIPTS.—Explanation of the cause of variation between the sum estimated, and that actually received :

Office of Lunatic Asylums, 15 May 1878.

THE Inspectors beg to state that the reason why the amount received for licences on private asylums for the year 1877-78, was in excess by the sum of 10 l. over the estimated return, was owing to the numbers for which licences were taken out, having been more than they anticipated.

2. The Accounting Officer has not appended any explanation of the variation between the estimated and actual amount of Extra Receipts; but, in reply to a letter from my Department, he has informed me that "the difference between the Estimate (700 l.) of Cash Extra Receipts, and the result (739 l. 4 s. 6 d.), omitted to be explained in the Appropriation Account of this Office to 31st March 1878, can only be explained by the fact that these Receipts vary with the demands of the public for Certified Copies; and that these demands vary with the fluctuating amount of business transacted in the Courts of Justice. In framing the Estimate for 1877-78, regard was had to the average receipts of previous years."

In addition to his Official Salary of 1,000*l.*, the Registrar General received 50*l.* during the Financial Year ended 31st March 1878 from the Vote for "Chief Secretary for Ireland, Offices," as Inspector under the Cruelty to Animals Act, 1876.

EXPLANATION of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

A.—The under expenditure was owing to the resignation of one Transcriber on 2nd May 1877; the abolition of the office of Chief Clerk, and of one First Class Clerkship on the 31st August 1877; also to savings effected on the amounts voted for Taskworkers and Writers.

B.—The Saving was caused in consequence of the Inspector of Registration having been engaged in the office during a portion of the Financial Year.

C., D., E., and F.—Over-estimated.

G.—No amount was inserted in the Estimate for this service. The Treasury sanctioned the expenditure being met out of Savings on the other Sub-Heads.

EXTRA RECEIPTS.—The amount received was 16*l.* 12*s.* in excess of the amount estimated. The Estimate was based on the sums received between 1st April and 31st October 1876. It is not possible to estimate accurately the amount of these receipts.

The Surplus of 73*l.* 14*s.* 11*d.*, shown on the Account of the Vote "General Register Office, Ireland," for the year ended 31st March 1877, has been surrendered.

EXPLANATION of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

A.—The following sums have been paid out of the Vote for Law Charges, and out of the Crown's Nominee Account, to the Law Officers for contentious business, their salaries being paid for non-contentious business only, viz.:—

	£. s. d.
The Attorney General and Clerk - - - - -	3,440 19 10
The Solicitor General and Clerk - - - - -	3,278 17 3
Dr. Deane and Clerk - - - - -	73 5 -

B.—The expenses and costs in the prosecution of the Detectives, Regina v. Meiklejohn and others, fell below the Supplementary Estimate which was taken, principally, for that case.

C.—The Legal Work of the Admiralty having been transferred to the Department of the Solicitor of the Treasury after the Estimate for 1877-78 had been submitted to their Lordships, no provision was made in such Estimate for the Admiralty Legal Expenses, which were, however, charged under the directions of the Treasury against the Vote for Law Charges, England. The Admiralty Conveyancing Costs, &c., which were unprovided for, have thus caused an Excess on this Sub-Head.

E.—A heavy Bill of Costs, amounting to 1,915 l. 13 s. 7 d. in the case of Lynall Thomas v. the Queen, commenced and conducted by the Solicitor to the War Office before the transfer of the War Office legal business to the Solicitor of the Treasury, fell in for payment during the year, otherwise there would have been a considerable saving.

F.—The fees to Counsel and expenses out of pocket only are charged against the Vote. The expenditure has been under the control of the Solicitor of the Treasury, as Queen's Proctor, since July 1876. The Estimate was framed on the assumption that the whole costs would be charged against the Vote (according to the practice of the late Queen's Proctor), and that the professional charges, being profits, would be paid into the Exchequer as extra receipts; this system was, however, not approved of by the Treasury, and the Estimate for 1878-79 has been, consequently, reduced to 2,500 l.

G.—The payments for maintenance of Seamen Witnesses at the Outports have been heavy. The cases in which such payments have to be made are not under the control of the Solicitor of the Treasury, who has no means of estimating their probable amount.

H.—The Excess of 260 l. 3 s. 8 d. is caused partly by the transfer to the Account of 1877-78 (in accordance with the rule laid down in Treasury Circular of September 1876 (14,180) of a sum of 233 l. 19 s. 10 d. paid in June 1878 for Writer's Wages for the quarter ended 30 March 1878, and partly by the transfer from Sub-Head B. of a Gratuity of 25 l., paid to a member of the Staff.

I.—The greater part of the Incidental Expenses are charged against the cost of Criminal Prosecutions, under Sub-Head B. The Estimate was taken at 250 l., to meet the probable requirements of the Departments transferred to the Treasury Solicitor; it has been reduced for 1878-79.

J., K.—The work for which the Estimate is taken under these Sub-Heads is not done by, or under the control of, the Solicitor's Department; the payments are made solely under Treasury directions.

TOTAL RECEIPTS paid into Exchequer	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	7,002	6	9

The Receipts were swollen by the recovery of costs in certain Divorce Cases conducted by the late Queen's Proctor, amounting to 275 l. 17 s. 9 d. which, as the account for the year to which they were incident had been closed, were paid into the Exchequer as Extra Receipts, and not credited to the Vote, as ordinarily would have been the case.

The above explanation applies, also, to a sum of 923 l. 10 s. 9 d., received in respect of old Admiralty cases.

The total receipts for costs, otherwise, would have been below the Estimate.

The sum received for Patent Fees was above the average, whilst that received for Fines was below the usual amount.

The Surplus of 925 l. 9 s. 9 d., shown on the Account of the Vote "Law Charges, England," for the year ended 31st March 1877, has been surrendered.

EXPLANATION of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

A.—The expenditure for Writers proved smaller than had been anticipated.

B., E., and I.—These expenses cannot be estimated with precision.

C.—This deficiency arose partly from an increase of Salaries resulting from a re-arrangement of the Northern and North Eastern Circuits, on the death of the late Clerk of the Crown, Lancaster, and partly from the fact that certain payments which had been provided from the Estimate for 1876-77 came in course of payment in 1877-78.

D.—The Excess of expenditure beyond Estimate was mainly caused by the operation of the Winter Assizes Act.

F.—Under-estimated.

G.—This expenditure depends upon the number of days on which the Assistant Judges are actually employed, and cannot, therefore, be exactly estimated.

K. and L.—Approximate Estimates.

N.—The amount of the compensations payable from this Sub-Head varies with the fees received by the Clerks of the Peace. Moreover the number of the recipients is in course of diminution by death.

O.—The expenses borne by this Sub-head represent the cost of handing over to the proper authority, the fugitive criminals captured under treaties of extradition; as such, they vary with the number of the criminals, and cannot, therefore, be exactly estimated.

EXTRA RECEIPTS.—The amount brought to account is thus made up:—

	£.	s.	d.
Fees received on South Eastern Circuit - - - - -	-	-	5 -
Repayment of Overpayment in 1876-77 - - - - -	-	-	15 6

A Grant has been taken for 419 l. 11 s. 10 d., the Deficit shown on the Account of the Vote "Criminal Prosecutions, Sheriffs' Expenses, &c.," for the year ended 31st March 1877.

EXPLANATION of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

A.—The Saving under this Sub-Head has arisen from the offices of Tipstaff to the Master of the Rolls, and one of the Examiners having been vacant during the year, and from changes on vacancies in some of the offices.

B.—The Saving under this Sub-Head has arisen from the expenses of writing in the Enrolment Office, and the Record and Writ Clerks offices having been less than at the time of making the Estimate they were thought likely to be.

C.—The Saving under this Sub-Head has arisen chiefly from the Travelling Expenses of the Masters in Lunacy, and the Official Referees having been less than the Estimate.

D.—The Excess over the Grant on this Sub-Head has been caused by the increase of police expenses occasioned by the employment of a police constable to attend the Court of the new Vice Chancellor.

E.—The Saving under this Sub-Head consists of deductions from the Sums voted in respect of Fees formerly payable to the Hanaper.

Note.—I have been informed by the Clerk in charge of Accounts of the Home Office Vote, that Dr. Crichton Browne, one of the Visitors of Lunatics, has received from the Home Secretary 52 l. 10 s. for a special inquiry; and that that sum has been charged to Sub-Head C. of that Vote.

I have also been informed that the Chief Clerk in the Crown Office, House of Lords, receives from the Vote for Miscellaneous Expenses, Class VII., Vote 2, some extra remuneration, consisting of a commission on fees paid on all appointments conferred, and patents of creation granted. The remuneration varies with the number and nature of such appointments, and amounted in the year 1877–8 to 6 l. 0 s. 11 d.

S. P.

EXTRA RECEIPTS.—The Receipts in respect of “Fees of Taxation,” and Lunacy per-centage exceeded those of the previous year by 2,600 l. and 2,450 l. respectively. There was also an increase of 245 l. in Chancery brokerage.

The Surplus of 3,217 l. 3 s. 6 d., shown on the Account of the Vote “Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice, &c.,” for the year ended 31st March 1877, has been surrendered.

CIVIL SERVICE ESTIMATES—CLASS III.—*continued.*VOTE 4.—QUEEN'S BENCH, COMMON PLEAS, AND EXCHEQUER DIVISIONS
OF THE HIGH COURT OF JUSTICE—continued.

EXPLANATION of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

A.—This Excess was principally occasioned by the appointment of additional Marshals, consequent on the holding of the Autumn Assize.

B.—The demand for temporary clerical assistance in the various Divisions of the High Court proved larger than had been anticipated.

C., E., G., H., K., L., N., P., and R.—These expenses vary with the requirements of the Courts and Offices, and cannot be precisely estimated.

D.—With the view of facilitating the hearing of cases, the Judges on several occasions during the year held concurrent sittings at Westminster and Guildhall, instead of holding the Courts in each place on alternate days. This arrangement necessitated an increase of expenditure in the Associates' Office.

F.—The surplus on this Sub-Head was due partly to vacancies and partly to an over-estimate.

I. and M.—Under-estimated.

O.—This deficiency was partly due to an increase in the salary of the Registrar, and partly to an augmentation of the charge for occasional copying.

Q.—The copying was over-estimated.

S., T., U., V.—These expenses depend upon the number of petitions presented and brought to trial, and cannot accordingly be foreseen. No expenditure was incurred during the year.

V. 1.—This Sub-Head contains the remuneration of the three Commissioners, who, with three Judges, presided at the Autumn Assize 1877. These expenses were not contemplated when the Estimate was framed.

W.—These travelling expenses were augmented beyond the Estimate by the duration of the Winter Assize, and by the holding of the Autumn Assize 1877.

X.—This surplus arose from the fact that one quarter's salary and expenses did not come in course of payment during the financial year.

EXTRA RECEIPTS.—The Middlesex Registry Fees proved larger than had been expected. The Total of Fees of all kinds realised in the year is thus composed:—

	£.	s.	d.
Fees, Middlesex Registry - - - - -	6,085	9	-
Fees, District Registries* - - - - -	5,907	15	5

- A.—Vacancies have occurred, and the time that has elapsed before they have been filled up, together with the difference between the maximum and minimum of the class, greatly affect this Sub-Head.
- B.—Some difficulties were consequent upon the change from engrossing to roundhand of the Registering the Copies of Wills, and we were prevented from getting a larger amount of work done.
- D.—This is an over-Estimate. Provision had been made for charges for the carriage of forms and stationery, which should have been estimated under Sub-Head G.
- E.—A vacancy has occurred, and an allowance fallen in, and the delay in filling up appointments will account for the difference in this Sub-Head.

EXPLANATION of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

A.—Salaries :

The difference under this Sub-Head between the amount of the Estimate and the sum actually expended arises chiefly from the payments made to Her Majesty's Collectors and to Shipkeepers for arresting and detaining Vessels by Warrants issued from the Principal and District Registries, which it is not possible to estimate with any great degree of accuracy, as they depend upon the number of Vessels arrested, and the length of time during which they may be detained under arrest, thus:—

	£. s. d.
It was estimated that 1,000 l. would be paid to Collectors and Shipkeepers at the Outports for acting upon Warrants issued from the Principal Registry, whereas the amount actually paid to them was only 876 l. 13 s. 10 d. , leaving a saving of - - - - -	123 6 2
It was estimated that 200 l. would be paid to Shipkeepers for detaining Vessels under arrest in the Port of London, whereas the amount actually paid to them was only 131 l. 6 s. , leaving a saving of - - - - -	68 14 -
It was estimated that 300 l. would be paid to Collectors and Shipkeepers acting upon Warrants issued from District Registries, whereas only 107 l. 1 s. was spent for this purpose, leaving a saving of - - - - -	192 19 -
This Sub-Head also comprises the amount of Fees paid to Merchant Referees for assisting the Registrar in "References." These Fees cannot be accurately estimated, as they depend to a great extent upon the number of "References" and the amounts in dispute. It was estimated that 750 l. would be required for this purpose, whereas 706 l. 13 s. was the amount actually expended, making a saving of - - - - -	43 7 -
A saving was effected, under the head of "Temporary Clerical Assistance," of - - - - -	95 - 10
And Salaries being estimated in round numbers, caused a variation between Estimate and Expenditure of - - - - -	13 11 8
Thus there was a Gross Saving on Salaries of - - - - -	536 18 8
On the other hand, 11 l. was paid to a Writer whom it was found necessary to employ during the illness of one of the Clerks in the Marshal's Office, and 11 l. 11 s. * was paid to a Temporary Messenger employed to fill the place of the Permanent Messenger in the Marshal's Office, who was also absent for a time through illness. This expenditure, which was not anticipated when the Estimate was framed, will have to be deducted from the Gross Saving - - - - -	22 11 -
Making the Net Saving on Salaries - - - £.	514 7 8

* Expenditure authorised by Treasury Letters—12,690, of 4th August 1877; 13,029, of 11th August 1877.

B.—Incidental Expenses.—Approximate Estimate.

EXTRA RECEIPTS.—Under-estimated nearly 100*l.*

There has been a progressive increase of late years on the amount of the Fees received in Cash ; thus—

	£.	s.	d.
In 1875-6 they amounted to	-	-	-
In 1876-7	-	-	-
And in 1877	-	-	-
	800	10	-
	1,187	1	5
	1,479	9	1

This progressive increase is principally due to an increase in the arrest and possession Fees for the arrest and detention of Vessels sold by Order of the Court, augmented by Fees received from Her Majesty's Collectors at the Outports for arresting and detaining Vessels by Warrants issued from District Registries.

The Surplus of 295 l. 19 s. 1 d., shown on the Account of the Vote "Admiralty Registry of the High Court of Justice," for the year ended 31st March 1877, has been surrendered.

EXPLANATION of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

A.—The services of a Temporary Messenger, for which provision had been made, were not required; the expenditure for Copying fell short of the Estimate, and the Allowances to Keepers of Local Courts, &c. proved less costly than had been anticipated.

B., C., D., E., F.—The expenditure under these Sub-Heads depends upon the number and gravity of the inquiries into Shipping Disasters. A precise forecast is, therefore, impossible.

EXTRA RECEIPTS.—No amount was actually brought to account in the course of the Year 1877-78 for Fees in Ecclesiastical and Maritime Appeals, but a sum representing the fees for that period was paid in in the course of 1878-79. No Courts for Survey were held in the year.

EXPLANATION of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

- A.—This Saving arose from the deaths and resignations that occurred among the Officers of the Courts during the year.
- B.—This Increase was owing to the additional business transacted at the Courts being beyond what was anticipated.
- C.—The full issue of Clothing was not supplied in the case of the Gaolers, owing to Police Serjeants being appointed to act in that capacity at five of the Courts during the year 1877-78.
- D.—No legal expenses were incurred during 1877-78.
- E.—This Increase was owing to the additional business transacted at the Courts being beyond what was anticipated.

The Police Court Fines realised over 1,000 l. more than the Estimate. This is accounted for owing to there having been several convictions under the Licensing Act during the year 1877-78. There have also been some heavy fines under the Betting Act, including two of 100 l. each, in January 1878, at Clerkenwell Police Court. At Worship Street, in October 1877, a Gas Company was fined, and paid 400 l. These large fines (amounting to 600 l.) with those paid under the Licensing Act, all being exceptional and special cases, will account for the receipts during 1877-78 being above the estimated average.

In continuation of the remarks appended to last year's Appropriation Account respecting the defalcations of William Walton, the Gaoler at the Southwark Police Court, it is necessary to observe that of the amount therein stated to have been embezzled by him, and which was payable to complainants and others for costs, orders, &c.: viz., 26 l. 18 s. 7 d., the sum of 21 l. 19 s. 7 d. has been already paid to the parties entitled thereto out of the growing produce of the Fines for 1877-78, leaving a further sum of 4 l. 19 s. still due to complainants.

The Surplus of 128 l. - s. 10 d., shown on the Account of the Vote "Police Courts, London and Sheerness," for the year ended 31st March 1877, has been surrendered.

EXPLANATION of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

A.—The salaries of the four Inspectors were raised 100 l. each, from 1st January 1877, after the Estimate had been prepared on the old scale of salaries; and 50 l. personal allowance to the Scotch Inspector was transferred from Sub-head B. to A.

B.—£. 50 of the Saving arises from the transfer of an allowance paid to the Scotch Inspector to Sub-head "Salaries." The balance is a casual variation between Expenditure and Grant.

D., E.—In numerous cases where increases in pay or numbers of the police forces had not been included by the local authorities in the Estimates furnished to this Department, the Secretary of State declined to sanction the increases until the commencement of the year 1877-8, which principally caused the very large Saving effected.

The Surplus of 796 l. 10 s. 2 d., shown on the Account of the Vote "Police, Counties and Boroughs, Great Britain," for the year ended 31st March 1877, has been surrendered.

VOTE 13.—CONVICT ESTABLISHMENTS IN ENGLAND AND THE COLONIES—continued.

. EXPLANATION of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

A.—This Excess is consequent on the formation of the Prison Commission Board. Sir E. F. Du Cane received from this Vote only at the rate of 1,100 l. per annum, from 12th of July, instead of 1,600 l. Mr. Morrish, the newly-appointed Director, in place of Captain Stofford, received only at the rate of 700 l. per annum instead of 900 l. from about the same date, and there was also a Saving from the change in the position of Clerks.

B, C, G., H., I., J., L, M., N., O., S., T., U., V., W., X.—Simply variations incidental to Estimate.

D.—In the course of the year Brixton Prison was considerably reduced, and, in the case of other Establishments, the expenditure was less than was anticipated.

E.—Some of the expenditure for this year was paid to the previous year. (See Appropriation Account for 1876-77.)

F.—This Excess arose from the high price of flour; not expected when the Estimates were passed.

K.—This is a Sub-Head for which it is difficult to provide; the number of Convicts released being necessarily very uncertain.

P.—Over-estimate. This, it will be obvious, is a Sub-Head for which it is difficult to provide.

Q.—All the works projected not completed.

R.—Some of the repairs intended not carried out.

A 1 and B 1.—These two Sub-Heads should be regarded as one, as in the course of the year many changes take place. Thus viewed, the Excess is only 874 l. 18 s. 10 d.

C 1.—The sum taken was insufficient to pay two-thirds of the Expenditure incurred by the Colonial Government, the proportion which the Imperial Government has hitherto paid. From 1st April 1878 this Service has been put on a different footing.

The Surplus of 745 l. 9 s., shown on the Account of the Vote "Convict Establishments in England and the Colonies," for the year ended 31st March 1877, has been surrendered.

Sub-Head D.—“Pay and Allowances of Prison Officers.”

Sub-Head D.

2. Under this Sub-Head is included a payment in respect of an increase of salary to a Temporary Clerk in Fremantle Prison, Western Australia, amounting to 11 l. 18 s. 4 d., for which Treasury authority has not been produced.

The Accounting Officer, being under the impression that he has received the requisite authority, has been requested to furnish a copy of the same, or otherwise to make application to the Treasury for sanction.

Pending the production of the authority, I am unable to report the sum of 11 l. 18 s. 4 d. as properly chargeable against the Vote.

Deducting the above sum, the Expenditure in respect of “Pay and Allowances” will be 178,023 l., instead of 178,034 l. 18 s. 4 d., and the Surplus 3,527 l., instead of 3,515 l. 1 s. 8 d.

Sub-Head W.—“Freight and Carriage of Provisions and Stores.”

Sub-Head W.

3. In the absence of a voucher, or other proof of payment, I have been unable to admit under this Sub-Head the sum of 1 l. 13 s. as properly charged against the Vote.

The amount of the Expenditure under this Sub-Head will therefore be 815 l. 3 s. 6 d., instead of 816 l. 16 s. 6 d., and the Surplus 384 l. 16 s. 6 d., instead of 383 l. 3 s. 6 d.

Amended Net Deficit.

4. The total Expenditure against the Grant will, by the deductions above referred to, be 445,162 l. 12 s. 4 d., instead of 445,176 l. 3 s. 8 d., and the Net Deficit to be voted, 77 l. 12 s. 4 d., instead of 91 l. 3 s. 8 d., as shown by the Appropriation Account, which should therefore stand as follows:—

	£.	s.	d.
Grant - - - - -	445,085	-	-
Expenditure - - - - -	445,162	12	4
Net Deficit - - -	£. 77	12	4

Extra Receipts.

5. Under this Head is included an amount of 32 l. 3 s., received from the Crown Agent for the Colonies in respect of the sale of the Colonial yacht “Victoria,” formerly used in the service of the Convict Establishment at Bermuda.

No account of the sale having been furnished, and as the Convict Establishment at Bermuda was broken up in 1863, I asked for such information as would enable me to judge both of the correctness of the amount brought to credit, and of the sufficiency of any reasons that might have existed for the delay in the sale of the yacht, and bringing the proceeds to credit.

I annex a copy of the correspondence on the subject.

Sir,

WITH reference to the answer to query 74, on your account of the Vote for Convict Establishments, England and Colonies, for the year 1877-8, in respect of the sum of 32 l. 3 s. paid by the Crown Agents on account of the sale of the Colonial yacht “Victoria,”—I am directed by the Comptroller and Auditor General to request that you will obtain and transmit to him such particulars as will enable him to judge of the correctness of this item of receipt.

Sir E. F. Du Cane, B.E., K.C.B.

Sir,
WITH reference to your letter of the 1st ultimo, relative to the sale of the yacht "Victoria," in Bermuda, I am desired to send, for information of the Comptroller and Auditor General, the enclosed explanation from the Crown Agents for the Colonies.

No further information can possibly be given on the subject.

The Secretary, Exchequer and Audit Department.

I am, &c.

(B. 1.)

Gentlemen,
I AM directed by the Secretary of State for the Colonies to instruct you to pay the sum of 32*l.* 3*s.* from the funds of Bermuda to the credit of the Paymaster General at the Bank of England. This amount arises from the sale at Bermuda of the Colonial yacht "Victoria," formerly used in the Convict Service, and you will be good enough to obtain a receivable order from the Directors of Convict Prisons to enable you to make the payment in question.

The Crown Agents for the Colonies.

I am, &c.

Exchequer and Audit Department,

Sir,
I AM directed by the Comptroller and Auditor General to transmit to you herewith, for the information of the Secretary of State for the Colonies, the copy of a query and letter addressed to the Accounting Officer of the Vote for Convict Establishments, England and the Colonies, together with his replies thereto, on the subject of the sale at Bermuda of the yacht "Victoria"; I am to observe that as the Convict Establishment at Bermuda appears to have been broken up in 1863, the necessity for the use of the yacht for Convict Service after that period would likewise appear to have ceased, and with reference to the statement by the Convict Establishments that no further information could possibly be given by them, I am to request that you will move the Secretary of State for the Colonies to cause the Comptroller and Auditor General to be informed of the facts connected with this sale, in order that he may be enabled to judge of the correctness of the amount, 32*l.* 3*s.*, brought to account as an Exchequer Extra Receipt, in the account for the year 1877-8.

Having in view the very near approach of the time for the Comptroller and Auditor General reporting to Parliament, I am to request that the information in question may be transmitted with as little delay as possible.

The Hon. R. H. Meade.

I have, &c.

Downing-street, 16 December 1878.

Sir,
I AM directed by the Secretary of State for the Colonies to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, No. 1763, of the 9th instant, forwarding the copy of a query and letter addressed to the Accounting Officer of the Vote for the Convict Establishments, England, and Colonies, together with his replies thereto, on the subject of the sale at Bermuda of the yacht "Victoria." In reply, I am to transmit to you an extract from Despatch, dated the 4th December 1877, from the Governor of Bermuda, which gives all the information on the subject in the possession of this Department.

With reference to the last paragraph of the extract, I am to state that Sir Michael Hicks Beach will, if you deem it necessary, request the Governor of Bermuda to supply him with further information respecting the ballast referred to in his Despatch.

The Comptroller and Auditor General.

I am, &c.

(D. 1.)

Extract from a Despatch from Sir R. M. Laffan to the Earl of Carnarvon, dated Bermuda, 4th December 1877. No. 91.

I HAVE the honour to bring to your Lordship's notice the following circumstances connected with a sailing boat called the "Victoria," which had for many years been used by the Governors of this colony to convey them about among the various islands to enable them to visit any particular place to which their attention might at the time be directed.

It appears that the "Victoria" had been a sailing boat provided by the Imperial Government for the service of the convict establishment which formerly existed here, and that on the breaking up of that establishment in 1863, the Secretary of State for the Colonies, in a Despatch, dated 28th July 1863, authorised the then Governor of Bermuda, Sir Harry Ord, to retain the boat for his own use till the question of the Governor's establishment should have been submitted to the Legislature for their consideration.

sideration. I cannot trace any further official record on this subject. The boat has remained here since 1863, and has been used by each successive Governor to carry him from place to place. The colony provided two boatmen, and occasionally allowed some trifling sums for maintenance, but the boat itself was allowed to fall gradually into disrepair, and shortly after my arrival here I was informed that she was in a very dangerous condition, her timbers being so rotten and her planking so much decayed that there was great risk of her sinking at her moorings.

I caused the boat to be taken over to Her Majesty's Dockyard, where Captain Leveson Somerset, R.N., was kind enough to allow the Master-shipwright to examine and report upon her. I enclose a copy of the report, and of Captain Somerset's memorandum thereon, from which it appears that at least 140 l. would be required to effect the necessary repairs to the hull; that a further considerable sum would now be required for fitments, and that in addition to this, Captain Somerset felt no doubt of the fact that the keel was unsound, and would, therefore, have to be renewed, though he had not caused it to be examined, as under the circumstances he thought it would involve a needless expense.

I referred the subject, with Captain Somerset's reports, to the consideration of the Executive Council, and the Members, though, considering that as the boat belonged to the Imperial Government, its condition, and the question how best to deal with it, did not properly come under their cognisance, were unanimously of opinion that it would be inexpedient and unwise to attempt to repair so worn-out a structure, as the money required for such an extensive renewal would be better spent in procuring a new boat.

As the "Victoria," therefore, was utterly useless, and entailed a considerable daily expense to prevent her from sinking, I followed the opinion of the Council, and caused her ballast, which was still useful, to be landed and stored, and the hull to be sold by auction by the Colonial Surveyor, who was instructed to pay the proceeds of the sale, less expenses thereon, into the Colonial Treasury. The boat realised the sum of 32 l. 3 s., clear of expenses, and that sum is now lodged in the Colonial Treasury to the credit and at the disposal of the Imperial Government.

Amount of Extra Receipts realised in the Year 1877-78, and paid over to Exchequer - - - - -			23,443 - 9

EXPLANATION of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

A.—This deficit of 279 l. 6 s. 7 d. is almost entirely owing to the excess of expenditure over Estimate in the matter of "Commission to Agents" for collecting parental contributions. This amount cannot be estimated with exactitude, being of a variable character. It is to be kept in mind, however, that if more is paid as commission more is collected, and this additional expense is far more than made up in the Extra Receipts payable to the Exchequer.

B.—This surplus is somewhat exceptional, and the amount paid depends on circumstances. As the surplus amounted to 58 l. 7 s. 7 d., the sum of 300 l. was taken for 1878-79 in lieu of 350 l.

C.—The sum of 360 l. net was asked for in Estimate; the gross sum of 490 l. 8 s. 11 d. was expended, less 143 l. 15 s. 10 d. costs recovered, leaving a net expenditure of 346 l. 13 s. 1 d., and surplus of 13 l. 6 s. 11 d. The amount annually expended is variable.

D.—The items composing this charge are very variable, and have been kept within the usual limits.

E.—The number of children in Reformatory Schools was subject to a very general augmentation during the year 1877-78, not so much from any real increase in Reformatory School cases, strictly regarded, but from the use made of these schools for Industrial School cases (cases of lesser criminality), under the pressure of School Boards; hence the necessity for a Supplemental Estimate in this item.

F.—The demand for Industrial School accommodation throughout the country during this financial year has been very much on the increase. This increased demand has been due to the operation of School Boards principally, and it rendered a Supplemental Vote necessary.

G.—The Reformatory Schools in Scotland did not feel the influence adverted to in Note E. The numbers have remained stationary.

H.—As in England, so in Scotland, the demand for Industrial School accommodation has been on the increase, and accordingly it has been difficult to keep the expenditure in Scotland within reasonable bounds.

EXTRA RECEIPTS.—The amount collected exceeds the Estimate by 3,443 l. 0 s. 9 d. This is principally owing to the improved organisation of the system of collection, and the more general application of the grant of a commission of 10 per cent. upon the amount collected. For the next financial year a larger sum is taken in the Estimate.

The Surplus of 150 l. 18 s., shown on the Account of the Vote "Reformatory and Industrial Schools, Great Britain," for the year ended 31st March 1877, has been surrendered.

EXPLANATION of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

A., B., C., D., E., F., H., I., J., K., M., O.—The surplus on these Sub-Heads is due partly to the number of patients having been less during the year than the number estimated for, and partly to a diminution of expenditure in the administration of the Asylum generally. The Estimate for the year 1878-79 was reduced.

L.—The number of patients transferred to other asylums was greater than estimated for. The sanction of the Treasury was given to this excess by Letter dated 6th February 1878 (No. 2215).

L.—Escort and Conveyance of Patients.

2. In addition to the amounts paid to the two Male Attendants referred to in a note appended to the Appropriation Account, Her Majesty's Office of Works has paid Additional payments. gratuities, amounting to 13 l. 2 s. 3 d., in respect of work performed by the inmates of the Asylum during the year 1876.

This sum was paid pursuant to Treasury Letter, dated 23rd February 1874, by which, "for the encouragement of industrial habits" the inmates are allowed "a certain interest in the proceeds of their labour." Such earnings are placed by the Superintendent to the credit of the labourers.

The actual value of the labour, as assessed by the Surveyors of the Office of Works, was 228 l. 19 s. 6 d. Of this sum, Class I., Vote 3, Sub-Head K., has been relieved, with the exception of the payments of the above specified gratuities.

EXPLANATION of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

A.—Several offices connected with the Court of Session were vacant during the period of this Account, and the Saving on this Sub-Head arose from these vacancies.

B. C. D. E. F. H. I. L.—These variations are all of the nature of differences between probable Estimates and actual Expenditure.

G.—One of the Macers of the Court of Justiciary died during the period of this Account, and the salary assigned to his Successor was 200 £, in lieu of the Salary of 375 £. In September 1877 the first Clerk in the office of the Justiciary Clerk received 15 £. 15 s. under Sub-Head I. of this Vote, for attendance as Extra Circuit Clerk of Justiciary.

K.—Payment of Salary to a Clerk appointed by the Accountant in Bankruptcy was postponed until after the close of the financial year, owing to delay in producing a certificate of qualification from the Civil Service Commissioners; hence the Saving on this Sub-Head.

M.—The excess of payment under this Sub-Head was occasioned by cost of new uniforms for the Trumpeters of Her Majesty's Household, charged to this Sub-Head, as authorised by the Treasury. The Trumpeters receive new uniforms at intervals of five years, and the Estimate for 1877-78 did not make sufficient provision for the charge applicable to that year.

N. O.—These Savings arose from the Allowances for the year having been greater than the amount actually paid.

P.—After computing the Fees drawn by the Deputy Keeper of the Great Seal for 1877-78, the sum provided for compensation was saved to the extent of 26 £. 11 s. 10 d.

Q.—No charge occurred within the year under this Sub-Head.

EXTRA RECEIPTS.—The only explanation that occurs under this Head is, that the amount of the Fees of the Department embraced in the Vote proved to be somewhat greater than the amount anticipated.

The Surplus of 5,127 £. 1 s. 7 d., shown on the Account of the Vote " Courts of Law and Justice, Scotland," for the year ended 31st March 1877, has been surrendered.

EXPLANATION of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

A.—The Saving on this Sub-Head is occasioned by the death of the Keeper of Unextracted Processes, and the consequent vacancy in that office, and by the death of Dr. John Stuart, who was engaged in the Publication of Calendars, &c., which temporarily interrupted the progress of that work.

B., D., F., I., L., O.—The Savings under these Sub-Heads are all of the nature of casual differences between probable Estimates and actual Expenditure.

C.—The Excess of Expenditure under this Sub-Head arises from the employment of interim official searchers, as authorised by the Treasury, for the purpose of working up an accumulation of arrears.

G.—The Saving under this Sub-Head arises mainly from the discharge of several Clerks employed in the service mentioned.

H.—This Saving arises from a vacancy in the office of the Director of Chancery.

K.—The Excess of Expenditure under this Sub-Head is occasioned by a continued increase in the business of the Office of the General Register of Sasines. The Excess is partly applicable to the salaries of nine additional Clerks, as authorised by Treasury Letter of 26th January 1878, No. 764, but mainly to payments to Engrossing Clerks, who are remunerated at fixed rates for Writings.

N.—The payments for Writing Clerks in the Office of the Register of Deeds, &c., were less for 1877-78, than the amount anticipated when the Estimate was prepared; and, owing to the promotion of the head Clerk, consequent upon the death of Dr. Stuart, the principal Keeper, the salary of his successor commenced at the minimum rate.

EXTRA RECEIPTS.—The amount received in Cash corresponds very nearly with the amount estimated. The difference between the amount estimated and the amount collected in Fee Stamps, is owing to the increased amount of business in the Searching Department of the Lord Clerk Register, and in the General Register of Sasines.

A Grant has been taken for 671*l.* 13*s.* 5*d.*, the Deficit shown on the Account of the Vote "Register House Departments, Edinburgh," for the year ended 31st March 1877.

EXPLANATION of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

A.—Chiefly caused by vacancies. The Senior First Class Clerk in the Court of Common Pleas, and the Senior First Class Clerk in the Court of Exchequer, receive, in addition to their Salaries of 350 l. each, compensation allowances of 3 l. 6 s. and 17 l. per annum respectively, the former as late Clerk of the Court of Common Pleas, and the latter as late Clerk in the Rules Office of the Court of Exchequer. These allowances are paid out of Vote 1, Class VI., "Superannuation and Retired Allowances." The Junior Second Class Clerk of the Court of Common Pleas, besides the Salary attached to that office, also receives from the Vote for Common Law Courts, Ireland, a Salary for duties performed in connection with the "Registration of Acknowledgements by Married Women," at the rate of 100 l. per annum.

B., F., K.—These charges fluctuate from year to year, and cannot be very exactly estimated.

E.—The estimate for the item "Writing Clerk," 45 l., having been exceeded by 6 l. 8 s. 7 d., and also the fraction of a £. not included in the Vote, it is to be observed that the expenditure for the "Writing Clerk" depends upon the quantity of business which may be brought into the office, and cannot therefore be estimated with exactness.

H.—Payments under Treasury authority of 12th January 1878, to Registrars of Judges by whom the last Winter Assizes in 1877 were held, and which were not estimated for.

I.—Fraction of a £.

L., M., N.—These expenses depending upon proceedings connected with Petitions and brought to trial cannot be approximately estimated.

EXTRA RECEIPTS:—The variation between the Estimate and the Amount realized is caused by a sum of 3 £, received in December 1877 from Her Majesty's Stationery Department, for extra Directories supplied for the use of the Exchequer Division in Ireland in 1876-77, being passed to the credit of "Extra Receipts" for this year, it being too late to credit the Vote for 1876-77 with the amount.

The Surplus of 628 £. 17 s. 3 d., shown on the Account of the Vote "Common Law Courts, Ireland," for the year ended 31st March 1877, has been surrendered.

VOTE 31.

DUBLIN METROPOLITAN POLICE.

REPORT OF THE COMPTROLLER AND AUDITOR GENERAL.

1. THE Expenditure has exceeded the Estimate under the following Sub-Heads, Excess.
viz:—

C.—Clothing and Equipments.

E.—Forage.

F.—Law Expenses.

H.—Pensions.

2. On a comparison of the numbers of the various classes of the force from Superintendents to supernumeraries estimated for, viz., 1,178, with the number actually paid on 23rd August 1877, and 28th February 1878, it has been found that 1,147 were paid on the former, and 1,146 on the latter date; showing the number of men to be less than estimated by 31 on 23rd August, and 32 on 28th February. Variation from estimated numbers.

3. There is, as shown by the Account, a Net Surplus on the Grant, amounting to Net Surplus. 2,567 l. 18 s. 11 d., which will have to be surrendered to the Exchequer.

CIVIL SERVICE ESTIMATES—CLASS III.—*continued.*VOTE 32.—CONSTABULARY OF IRELAND—continued.

EXPLANATION of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

- A.—Changes in staff and new appointments at minimum of scale.
 B.—Variable nature of the service.
 C.—Vacancies not filled, and changes in the relative numbers in receipt of the several rates of pay during year of account, as compared with those at time of estimating. The provision for vacancies has been discontinued in subsequent Estimates.
 D. } —The sums provided to meet extra expenses on account of elections, disturbances, &c., have not been required,
 E. } and the duties performed have been carried out with strict economy.
 F.—The supplies estimated for were not all required.
 G.—The supplies of accoutrements required proved greater than was anticipated when the Estimate was prepared.
 H.—Full amount estimated not expended.
 I.—The number of horses (both public and officers') maintained during the year, was less than the number authorised.
 K.—Decrease in the number of barracks, amount provided for progressive increase not all required, and rents unpaid.
 L.—The supplies estimated for were not all required.
 M.—Decrease in the number of barracks and of allowances drawn during the year of account.
 N. }
 O. } —Variable nature of the services.
 P. }
 Q.—The surplus arising from cessation of pensions by deaths, and from pensions undrawn within the year of account, has exceeded the payments made on account of pensions granted since Estimate was prepared; the sum provided to meet such payments has, consequently, not been required, and the item has been omitted from subsequent Estimates.

PURCHASE OF BARRACKS.—The sum expended is the purchase-money of Baldoyle Constabulary Barrack, County Dublin, which the Lords of the Treasury, by letter dated 9th August 1877, directed to be charged to the Constabulary Vote under a new Sub-head.

EXCHEQUER EXTRA RECEIPTS.—The sums which became chargeable in counties for Extra Force, &c., also the receipts arising from sale of Old Stores, were greater than was anticipated when Estimate was prepared (both these sources of receipt are variable), also the amount repaid by counties in year 1877-78 in respect of previous years, was considerably in excess of the sum which remained due from counties at 31st March 1878.

The Surplus of 31,261 l. 1 s. 8 d., shown on the Account of the Vote "Constabulary of Ireland," for the year ended 31st March 1877, has been surrendered.

EXPLANATION of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

A., B.—The Surplus upon each of these Sub-Heads was caused by the abolition of the office of Director of Prisons on 8th November 1877.

C.—The Annual Expenditure being variable could not be estimated precisely.

D.—The Surplus upon this Sub-Head was caused by the abolition of the office of Registrar of Habitual Criminals, on 8th November 1877.

E.—The Excess of Expenditure was caused by extra expenses involved in the preparation of Returns. Sanction was obtained from the Treasury for defraying the Excess out of the Surplus on other Sub-Heads.

F., G., H.—The Surplus upon each of these Sub-Heads was caused by vacancies in the Staff of Prison Officers.

I., J. K., L., M., N., O., P.—The Annual Expenditure under these Sub-Heads is variable, and cannot be estimated closely.

Q.—The Excess under this Sub-Head was caused by the number of convicts in Refuges having been greater than had been estimated. Sanction was obtained from the Treasury for defraying the Excess out of the Surplus on other Sub-Heads.

R.—The number of children maintained was less than had been anticipated.

S.—The Excess under this Sub-Head was caused by it having been found necessary to provide some special fittings which had not been anticipated. The sanction of the Treasury was obtained for defraying the Excess out of the Surplus on other Sub-Heads.

T.—The Expenditure under this Sub-Head is variable, and could not be closely estimated.

U., V., W.—The Expenditure under these Sub-Heads was not provided for in the Estimate, but it was defrayed from this Vote in accordance with Treasury instructions.

Manufacturing Department } No sum was granted under these Sub-Heads. See Note at foot of p. 226.

Note referring to extra remuneration of varying amount received by officers of Government Prisons, in the year 1877-78, in addition to the ordinary salaries of their offices :—

Mountjoy Male Convict Prison.

One second class warder received 12 l. 6 s. 8 d. for photographing convicts, out of the Vote for Government Prisons.

Mountjoy Female Convict Prison.

A schoolmistress received 5 l. for photographing convicts, out of the Vote for Government Prisons.

Spike Island Convict Prison.

The Protestant Chaplain received 136 l. 9 s. from Army and Navy Votes, for services as Chaplain to military and naval departments in Cork Harbour.

The Roman Catholic Chaplain received 50 l. from Army Votes, as Chaplain to the military at Spike Island.

The medical officer received 234 l. 1 s. 4 d. from the Army and Constabulary Votes for attendance on the Military and Constabulary at Spike Island, &c. ; he states that out of this sum he paid 40 l. for medicines and medical assistance.

The Governor's clerk received 7 l. for photographing convicts, out of the Vote for Government Prisons.

The assistant schoolmaster received 52 l. 7 s. 2 d. from the Vote for National Education, and 6 l. 3 s. 7 d. Result Fees from Cork Poor Law Union funds as assistant teacher in Queenstown Male National School.

VOTE 33.—GOVERNMENT PRISONS AND DEPARTMENT OF THE REGISTRAR OF HABITUAL CRIMINALS, IRELAND—continued.

EXTRA RECEIPTS.—The annual amount of sales of manufactures and farm produce is variable, and cannot be estimated closely. In the latter part of the financial year 1877–78, it was found necessary to provide a stock of materials to be made into clothing, the cost of these materials was charged against the Manufacturing Department, but the Manufacturing Department was not credited with the value of the clothing until after the close of the year, the Excess of Receipts under that Sub-Head, therefore, appears less than had been anticipated when the Estimate was framed.

The Surplus of 1,405 l. 1 s. 2 d., shown on the Account of the Vote “Government Prisons and Department of the Registrar of Habitual Criminals, Ireland,” for the year ended 31st March 1877, has been surrendered.

EXPLANATION of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

A.—Payments to these officers were charged, under Treasury authority of 19th December 1877, to the Vote "Government Prisons and Department of the Registrar of Habitual Criminals, Ireland," from the 9th November 1877, inclusive, being the date of the establishment of "The General Prisons Board," under "The General Prisons (Ireland) Act, 1877."

B. and C.—These charges fluctuate from year to year, and cannot be exactly estimated. The excesses sanctioned by Treasury authority of the 15th February 1878.

C (2).—This Sub-Head is raised under Treasury authority of 24th January 1878, in accordance with the remarks of the Comptroller and Auditor General in his Report on the Appropriation Account of the Grant for "County Prisons and Reformatories, Ireland," for the year 1875-76.

D.—Partly by Inspector's salary having been increased by 100 l. per annum, viz., 39 l. 8 s., partly by agency on collections having exceeded the estimated amount by 93 l. 6 s. 9 d., and partly by payment of 6 l. 2 s. 1 d. to the writer for over-time, and a fraction of 1 s. 2 d.

E., F., G., and H.—Approximate Estimates. The excess under Sub-Head H. was paid under Treasury authority of the 15th February 1878.

EXPLANATION of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

B.—This Expenditure varies from year to year. The Salaries of Process Servers are paid, at the rate of 10*l.* each, by the Collectors of Excise under the provisions of the 17th section of the Act 14 & 15 Vict. c. 57, and the Accounts for same are furnished by the Commissioners of Inland Revenue.

C.—The salaries of the Judges of Civil Bill Courts having been charged to the Consolidated Fund from the 14th August 1877, the date of the "County Officers and Courts (Ireland) Act, 1877," 40 & 41 Vict. c. 56.

The Judge of the Civil Bill Court for the County of Kilkenny, in addition to his salary received out of Sub-Head E., Vote for "Law Charges and Criminal Prosecutions (Ireland)," the sum of 89*l.* 5*s.* for his services in presiding over an inquiry into the case of Mr. Croker, late Sub-Inspector of the Royal Irish Constabulary.

The Judges of Civil Bill Courts who acted as Counsel for the Crown were paid Fees out of the last-mentioned Vote, viz.: the Judge for the County of Kilkenny received 215*l.* 5*s.*; for Londonderry, 127*l.* 1*s.*; for Sligo, 29*l.* 8*s.*; for Tyrone, 77*l.* 14*s.*; for Westmeath, 200*l.* 11*s.*; and for Wexford, 118*l.* 13*s.*

D. E. and G.—Vacancies.

F.—The Expenses cannot be exactly estimated, as they depend upon circumstances which cannot be foreseen.

A Grant has been taken for 1,469*l.* 6*s.* 4*d.*, the Deficit shown on the Account of the Vote "Miscellaneous Legal Charges, Ireland," for the year ended 31st March 1877.

Dublin Castle, 8 October 1878.

EXPLANATION of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

A.—This Saving was caused by the death of one of the senior clerks, and by the resignation of another, whose successors received the lower rate of salary allowed upon appointment.

Note.—Three of the officers of the staff in London received from the Science and Art Department 155*l.* 19*s.*, 65*l.* 16*s.*, and 64*l.* 16*s.*, respectively; four others received from the Civil Service Commissioners 120*l.* 10*s.*, 90*l.* 17*s.*, 50*l.* 15*s.*, and 44*l.* 6*s.*, respectively; and one received 26*l.* 5*s.* for holding a special enquiry at Brighton with reference to a proposed amalgamation of Brighton and Preston school districts.

B.—This Excess was caused by heavy charges for the carriage of various forms despatched to local authorities throughout the country, under the provisions of the Education Act, 1876.

C. More evening schools were examined than had been estimated for. 1*l.* 1*s.* is allowed to Inspectors and their assistants for each night occupied in examining scholars in evening schools.

Note.—Twenty-seven of Her Majesty's Inspectors of Schools received from the Science and Art Department 75*l.* 12*s.*; and 21 Inspectors' Assistants 58*l.* 16*s.*, in sums varying from 2*l.* 2*s.* to 5*l.* 5*s.*; one Inspector received 162*l.* 1*s.* from the Civil Service Commissioners.

D.—This Saving is due to an over-estimate of the average cost incurred by Her Majesty's Inspectors and their assistants in travelling, and to their duties having required them to be absent from home a less number of nights than had been calculated upon. An Inspector receives a guinea, and an assistant 7*s.* 6*d.* for each night spent away from home.

E.—This Saving was caused (1) by the deaths of six pensioners; (2) by the postponement of several of the pensions awarded in consequence of the continued employment of the pensioners as teachers of schools (a pension may not be drawn until the pensioner has resigned his situation as teacher in an Elementary School); (3) by the award of only 100*l.* for "gratuities" out of 340*l.* allowed for that purpose. It is impossible to foretell to what extent, subject to the limit fixed by the Code, gratuities may be awarded during the year.

F.—The Estimate, as originally presented to Parliament, provided for grants for 2,176,509 children at 14*s.* 8½*d.* per head, but by the action of the school attendance committees appointed under the Education Act of 1876, the average number of children in attendance increased so rapidly that in the latter part of the financial year it became necessary to present a Supplementary Estimate for 60,000*l.* In the Supplementary Estimate the average attendance was taken at 2,248,000, and the rate of grant at 14*s.* 10*d.* The results for the year show that grants were paid to schools having a total average attendance of 2,250,087, and that the rate earned by the scholars corresponded with the Estimate, viz., 14*s.* 10*d.* per child.

Provision was made for 54,302 scholars in evening schools at 8*s.* 5*d.* each, but grants were paid to schools having a total average attendance of 56,627 scholars who earned 8*s.* 6½*d.* a head.

G.—The claims from School Boards for an additional grant under Section 97 of the Act of 1870 were more, and for larger sums, than had been anticipated.

H.—The promoters of a large number of schools in aid of which grants had been awarded failed to complete the schools, and claim the grants, within the time allowed by Article 16 of the Code.

I.—It was thought that the first fees payable under Section 18 of the Act of 1876 would come in course of payment in the latter part of 1877-78, but the earliest payment was made in April of that year, and will be accounted for in 1878-79.

K.—This Excess is due to an under-estimate of the expenditure incurred by the Managers of Training Colleges in 1877, the amount of the grant for 1877-78 being mainly dependent upon the expenditure by the colleges in 1877. The difficulty in preparing this Estimate is increased by the expenditure for two years (in the present instance 1876 and 1877) having to be estimated for, and by a double element of uncertainty being thus introduced into the calculation.

L.—Over-estimated. Fewer notices of the school supply of school districts were published than had been anticipated, and the services of Inspectors of Returns were not required to the extent provided for in the Estimates.

EXCHEQUER EXTRA RECEIPTS.—The cost of inspecting schools in the Isle of Man, which is recovered from the Insular Revenue, was greater than had been anticipated.

The Surplus of 21,568*l.* 14*s.* 7*d.*, shown upon the Account of the Vote "Public Education, England and Wales," for the year ended 31st March 1877, has been surrendered.

VOTE 1.

PUBLIC EDUCATION, ENGLAND AND WALES.

REPORT OF THE COMPTROLLER AND AUDITOR GENERAL.

Detailed Audit.

1. THIS is the first Account of the Vote for Public Education which has been submitted to an Audit in detail as regards the provisions of the Code, in lieu of accepting the certificate of the Officers of the Education Department that they had been duly observed.

The accounts, however, for nine months only have undergone this more detailed examination, in consequence of the arrangements for a local audit at the Education Office not having been earlier completed.

Conditions of Grants.

2. By the 97th section of the Elementary Education Act of 1870 for England and Wales, and by the 67th section of the Education (Scotland) Act of 1872, it is provided that the conditions to be fulfilled by an elementary school in order to obtain an annual Parliamentary Grant, shall be those contained in the Minutes of the Education Department, and that no such Minute, not in force at the time of the passing of those Acts shall be deemed to be in force, until it has lain for not less than a month on the table of both Houses of Parliament. It would thus appear that the action of the Education Department should be governed by a strict adherence to the Minutes which have been submitted to Parliament, and that any modification of them, which experience shows to be desirable, should be brought before Parliament in the shape of an additional Minute. It is apparent, nevertheless, that by the interpretation placed on some of the Minutes, and by the omission to enforce all the requirements of others, the Department exercises a considerable discretionary authority.

It thus being doubtful whether the proceedings of the Department are entirely consistent with the spirit of the Act of 1870, I have thought it my duty to report every instance brought before me in which the Minutes of the Department appear to have been strained in meaning, or not carried out completely.

Definition of Elementary School.

3. Article 4 of the Code of 1877 defines an Elementary School in the terms of Section 3 of the Act of 1870, as a school or department of a school at which the ordinary payments in respect of the instruction from each scholar do not exceed 9*d.* a week.

The ordinary practice of the Department is to require that the average fee paid in a school shall not exceed 9*d.*; but a case having been pointed out in which the average fee exceeded 9*d.*, the Department justified the Grant on the grounds that the average fee is a rough rule only to follow, and that the fee paid for the subjects in respect of which the Grant was paid under the Code was 9*d.*

State of school premises.

4. Article 17 (c) lays down precise conditions to be fulfilled by the state of the school premises, and defines the area and cubical space they should contain in proportion to the number of children.

On the last-mentioned requirements of the Article, a letter was addressed to the Department, and in reply it was stated that it was necessary to use some discretion with regard to this regulation. Having received this opinion from the Department, I have not thought it necessary to call attention to the numerous cases in which school premises have been reported to be defective in various respects, or unsuited for the purpose.

The correspondence is annexed.

A. B.

Computation of first grant.

5. Article 17 (e) states that the first grant to a school is to be computed from the date on which the appointment of a certificated teacher is notified to, and recognized by the Department, or the acting teacher passes the examination for certificate.

A payment being observed in excess of the amount which this rule would allow, the Department has explained that some discretion has always been exercised in regard to this rule, which could not be rigidly enforced without occasional cases of hardship.

School accounts.

6. Article 17 (g) requiring school accounts to be correctly kept and audited before grants can be made, has been disregarded in more than one instance, but the Department has not afforded explanation why it is not invariably enforced.

Closing of a school on account of epidemic.

7. Article 19, with the foot note thereto, appears to require that medical authority should be furnished for the closing of a school on account of local epidemic. The production of a medical certificate under this regulation in support of the grant made, is not considered necessary by the Department, provided it has been able to satisfy itself that a school was closed in consequence of local epidemic.

8. Articles

8. Articles 19 B. 1, and 19 B. 2, sanction higher rates of payment for children in an infant school, or infant class or department of a school, than those payable for scholars in an ordinary school, and prescribe the ages of the children entitling managers to receive a grant at the higher rates. Limits of age.

Several cases have been noticed in which the prescribed limits of age have been exceeded, and the Department has explained that, during the press upon localities to provide suitable accommodation for children of all ages driven into school, it is impossible to maintain these distinctions of age rigidly, and some discretion must be exercised.

9. Article 19 C. 6, reduces the payment from 4*s.* to 2*s.* per child, unless 10 per cent. of the scholars examined under Article 19 B. 2 (a) be presented in Standard IV. and upwards. Reductions of payments.

It is observed that the higher rate is very frequently, although not invariably paid when the above condition is not fulfilled, provided one child in every completed 10, is presented in Standard IV. and upwards. Thus in a case where 28 children were examined under 19 B. 2 (a), the higher grant of 4*s.* was paid, although only two children were presented in Standard IV. and upwards.

It is evident that in such cases either a higher per-centage than that demanded by Article 19 C. 6, must be exacted, or a lower per-centage accepted; but as the proportion laid down in the Code of 1877 under this Article is to be raised annually to 30 per cent. in 1881, it appears doubtful whether the Department should not maintain invariably the interpretation it has placed on the Article in some cases, and require that the full per-centage of scholars named in it should be presented in the higher Standards, before the higher rate of payment can be allowed.

10. Article 21 (c) provides that no payment is to be made for specific subjects (Schedule IV.), unless 75 per cent. of the passes attainable in the standard examination have been obtained. Payments for specific subjects.

It appears from a case brought before me, and referred to the Education Department, that this regulation is not always enforced.

11. Article 21 (f) requires that, after the 31st of March 1877, every girl presented under Article 21 should take domestic economy as a subject of examination. In reply to an inquiry why this condition had not been insisted on in making certain grants for 1877-78, the Department explained that Article 21 (f) was at first erroneously interpreted by the Department as applying to the year 1878, and that as the grants for 1878 had in each case been paid without the payments for 1877, under Article 21 (f), having been challenged, it was considered that it would be inflicting a hardship on the managers of schools to call upon them to refund at so late a date. Domestic economy a compulsory subject.

It appeared to me that the decision of the Department not to enforce the repayment of sums which, under the code were admitted to be overpaid, partook of the nature of the abandonment of public claims, and that it should, therefore, be brought before the Lords of the Treasury, and receive their Lordships' sanction. The views of the Lords of the Treasury on this subject appear in the letter annexed to this Report.

12. Article 32 (c) declares that the amount which may be claimed by managers is reduced by a fixed rate of deduction if a staff of pupil-teachers is not provided in a certain specified proportion to the number of scholars. Several cases have been brought before me in which the Department has not reduced the grant notwithstanding the required staff of pupil teachers was not provided, and in other cases, although the Department did at first reduce the grant, the deductions made have been ultimately remitted. C.
Staff of pupil teachers.

The Department has explained that some discretion has always been exercised in enforcing deductions under the article, and it is observed that discretionary authority is given to the Department in the revised terms of this article in the Code of 1878, which states that the amount claimed by managers may be reduced.

It appears, however, a point which deserves careful consideration, whether the fact that the views of the Department with regard to a penal clause have received subsequent Parliamentary sanction, can be held to justify it in not enforcing penalties which, at the time of remission, were declared to be obligatory in the Minutes submitted to Parliament.

13. Under the provisions of the Acts of Parliament relating to Public Education, the supplementary rules of the Education Department would appear to have the same force, and to require the same Parliamentary sanction as the articles of the Code, but instances having been brought to the notice of the Department, in which the important supplementary rules numbered 8 and 9, defining the proficiency which a school must attain before a grant is to be paid, were not observed, I received the annexed explanation from the Department, stating, among other considerations, that the supplementary rules, so far as they are penal, have never been enforced as stringently as the articles of the Code. I have considered this statement as covering the whole of the supplementary rules, and I have thought it needless to bring to the notice of the Department cases in which other supplementary rules were not acted upon. Imperfect method of accounting.

14. The more detailed examination of the accounts of the Education Votes has brought to my knowledge an imperfection in the method of the Department's accounting which should, I consider, be corrected in future, although I have no wish to interfere with the existing arrangements between the Department and school managers, by which their cash transactions are adjusted.

Overpayments detected by the Department in the subsequent examination into all the circumstances under which grants have been made to schools, are not, as a rule, credited to the Vote, or treated as Exchequer receipts if discovered after the account of the Vote has been closed, but are deducted from the grants chargeable to the Vote for the ensuing year.

It thus follows that the amount charged to the Vote for the year 1877-78 includes amounts which the Department admits to be overpayments, whilst it is reduced by overpayments made in previous years, which have been deducted from the sum properly chargeable as grants to schools in 1877-78.

The grounds on which the Department has followed this plan of account are explained in the statement annexed.

E.

Sub-Head H.

15. Sub-Head H.—Building and Furnishing of School Premises.—According to the Minutes of the Department the site for a school building both in England and Scotland must be in extent not less than 1,200 square yards, but as grants were noticed as having been made where the site did not fulfil this condition, the Department has stated that it has been necessary to exercise some discretion in enforcing it. The explanation received from the Department is annexed.

F.

Sub-Head C.

16. Under Sub-Head C., Salaries for Inspection, it has been omitted to be noticed on the Account that one of the Inspectors was paid the sum of 50*l.* in the year 1877-78 out of the Vote for the University of London (Class IV., Vote 7), for services in connection with the university examinations, and it would appear from the account of the Science and Art Department that 27 Inspectors received 73*l.* 10*s.*, and 24 Inspectors' Assistants received 87*l.* 13*s.* 3*d.* out of the Vote for that Department, whereas it is stated on the account for the Education Department that 27 of Her Majesty's Inspectors of Schools received 75*l.* 12*s.*, and 21 Inspectors' Assistants 58*l.* 16*s.* It would seem that the principal omission in the payments by the Science and Art Department has been the remuneration of 25*l.* 14*s.* 3*d.*, paid to an Inspector's Assistant for services as a special local secretary.

CORRESPONDENCE referred to in the foregoing REPORT.

(1193.)

Sir,

Exchequer and Audit Department, 15 August 1877.

THE Comptroller and Auditor General's attention has been called, in the course of the examination of the grants that have been paid within the period from the 26th June to the 6th August 1877, to grants made to certain schools (see enclosed Schedule) where it would appear that the average attendance has not been in accordance with the condition laid down under Article 17 (c.) of the Code, viz., that the school premises "contain in the principal schoolroom and class rooms at least 80 cubical feet of internal space, and eight "square feet of area for each child in average attendance."

Under these circumstances I am directed to request that you will move their Lordships of the Committee of Council on Education to furnish the Comptroller and Auditor General with any explanation which their Lordships may wish to offer as to an apparent violation of one of the chief preliminary conditions under which grants are made to schools.

Sir F. R. Sandford, C.B.

I am, &c.

Sir,

I HAVE the honour to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, No. 1193, of the 15th instant.

The Article in question is one with regard to which, in administering the Parliamentary Grant, it has always been necessary to use some discretion, more especially since recent legislation has suddenly driven so many children into school before the school supply of the country could possibly be completed.

While my Lords endeavour to work this Article (1) so as not to keep children out of existing public elementary schools which they are forced to attend till new accommodation can be provided for them; and (2), so as to insist upon the immediate provision of sufficient suitable accommodation, they trust that it will gradually become possible to enforce the conditions of the Article more strictly, but from the nature of the circumstances on which the fulfilment of these conditions depends, some discretion will always have to be exercised, and my Lords are quite prepared to defend their past action in the matter on the ground of administrative necessity.

The Comptroller and Auditor General,
Somerset House, W.C.

Treasury, S.W., 4 January 1879.

Sir,
WITH reference to Mr. Treherne's letters of the 29th November last and 23rd ultimo, relative to your correspondence with the Education Department respecting certain over-payments to managers of schools in Great Britain, which have been included in the expenditure charged against the Grants for Education for the year 1877-78, I am directed by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to state that it was clearly the purpose of the Treasury Minute of the 13th May 1871 to require that no action should be taken by a Department, without previous reference to the Treasury, which would have the effect of remitting any debt of public money (or money value), and it is equally clear that this purpose is not effected if an overpayment is made out of public money, and is allowed to remain unrecovered.

Sir F. Sandford's contention in this matter is based on a misunderstanding of the terms of the circular issued under the directions contained in the said minute.

The allowance of the sums inadvertently overpaid should have been submitted for the sanction of my Lords.

A copy of this letter has been forwarded to the Education Department.

The Comptroller and Auditor General.

I am, &c.

QUERY, No. 11.

Description of the Voucher.	Query or Observation.
Roxborough Mixed School, Yorkshire. Pfo. 6,984. Titley C. E. School, Hereford, Pfo. 12,601. Oakhanger Moss C. E. School, Chester, Pfo. 16,227. Houghton C. E. School, Dorset, Pfo. 11,803. Luton New Town, Bedford, Pfo. 5242.	It is observed that children in these schools, in the first class, have not all been presented above Standard II., yet many of the children are above 10 years of age. It is requested, therefore, that it may be explained why, in accordance with Supplementary Rule 9, a deduction of one-tenth has not been made from the grants to these schools.

ANSWER of the ACCOUNTING OFFICER.

The Supplementary Rules, so far as they are penal, have never been enforced as stringently as the Articles of the Code. They lay down certain regulations which it should be the object of managers to carry out, with a view to the efficient organisation of the schools. But in new schools, or schools visited for the first time, and even in schools of some standing, into which a large number of children, hitherto uncared for, have during the last few years been driven by the new power of compulsion, causing greater labour and responsibility to both managers and teachers, it has been necessary to exercise some discretion in enforcing the literal fulfilment of the Supplementary Rules (8 and 9) in respect of the standard of proficiency to be required from children above seven years of age, and in the classification of the scholars.

The first class of a school, especially if it is a small one with a limited staff, is often composed of children of several standards. This may be faulty organisation, but as the letter of the 9th Supplementary Rule would have been observed by calling the children examined in Standard III. and upwards "Class I.," and the rest "Class II.," it is thought better to work gradually towards improving the organisation of such schools (where the numbers admit) by the advice of the Inspectors, and by warnings from the Office, rather than by fines.

QUERY, No. 106.

The Accounting Officer's attention is called to the following grants that have been charged against the Vote, less deductions, on account of over-payments on previous years' grants. It is observed that the grants in full should have been charged against the Vote, and the over-payments on account of previous years' grants should have been carried to Exchequer Extra Receipts. The cases quoted below are only a few of very many others, viz. :

Jan. Liverpool—St. John the Baptist, Toxteth Park, 337 l. 16 s. ; deduction 16 s.
 Jan. Bradford—St. Jude's, Yorkshire, 217 l. 10 s. 6 d. ; deduction 3 s. 7 d.
 Jan. Rochdale—St. Patrick's, Lancashire, 190 l. 10 s. 2 d. ; deduction 7 s. 2 d.
 Feb. Henry-street, Hampstead-road, Middlesex, 596 l. 6 s. ; deduction 30 s.
 Feb. Ince-street, Williams, Lancashire, 167 l. 9 s. 3 d. ; deduction 3 s.
 Feb. Wressell, Parochial School, York, 41 l. 13 s. ; deduction 3 s.
 Mar. Doctors Commons, Carter-lane Mission, Middlesex, 107 l. 18 s. 9 d. ; deduction 3 s.

ANSWER of the ACCOUNTING OFFICER.

The practice here referred to has been followed ever since the introduction of the Revised Code, and is believed to be the proper course to adopt.

The grant allowed to the school and chargeable to the Vote is the sum actually paid each year in aid of its maintenance, and it would be introducing unnecessary complications into the accounts of the Department if the rule suggested in the query were put in practice. The Votes administered by this Department differ from other Votes in being "Grants-in-Aid," and as such the grant must be taken as the sum actually granted or paid, and not any greater sum from which deductions may have been made to obtain the amount payable.

QUERY, No. 17.

Description of the Voucher.	Query or Observation.
November. Building Grant 260 l. , Wakefield, St. John's Infant Nat. School. Pfo. 5384. Contents of site, 1,000 square yards.	It is requested that it may be explained why grants were made to these schools, as, under the Code of 1870, Article 29 (a), "the site must be in extent not less than 1,200 square yards."
October. Building Grant, 81 l. 18 s. 9 d. Easterton, Wiltshire, Pfo. 5410. Contents of site, 354 square yards.

ANSWER of the ACCOUNTING OFFICER.

This rule has been acted on for the last 30 years, and has been observed whenever it was possible to insist upon it, but it has from the very first been found necessary to exercise some discretion in enforcing it ; e.g., in town districts, or in making grants for the enlargement or improvement of schools on sites of less than 1,200 square yards already conveyed in trust.

EXPLANATION of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

- A. 1.—This excess was caused by the reorganisation of the staff.
- B. 1.—This excess was due to an increase in the number of the schools, and improved results at the examinations.
- B. 2.—Casual excess.
- B. 3.—This saving was partly due to early appointments of students as masters in Schools of Art, and partly owing to piece-work not being ready for students to undertake.
- B. 4.—This excess was due to greater success in the instruction than in the previous year.

- B. 5.—Casual saving.
- B. 6.—This excess was due to more claims than were expected from Training Colleges for School-masters.
- B. 7.—Casual excess.
- B. 8.—Same observation.
- B. 9.—This saving was caused by a vacancy on the staff.
- B. 10.—Casual saving due to imposition of new rules, which reduced the expenditure more than was foreseen.
- B. 11.—Casual saving.
- B. 12.—Casual excess, due to more scholars having passed the necessary examinations, &c.
- B. 13.—This excess was due to increased demands for advanced examples, and special fittings for Art Instruction.
- B. 14.—This saving arose from the difficulty of estimating this service, the expenditure depending on the success of local efforts to raise money, which frequently takes more time than committees expect, and this defers payments.
- C. 1.—This excess was caused by the reorganisation of the staff.
- C. 2.—This saving was caused by an account not having been paid as was expected, the delivery of the goods not having been completed in time.
- C. 3.—No observation.
- C. 4.—This excess was caused by a larger number of Electrotypes being required for the Circulating Collection than was anticipated.
- C. 5.—This saving was caused by fewer specimens having been received on hire than were expected.
- C. 6.—Casual saving.
- C. 7.—Same observation.
- C. 8.—Same observation.
- C. 9.—Casual excess.
- C. 10.—Same observation.
- C. 11.—This excess was due to the large increase in the number of Drawings from Local Schools, and also to the return of the remainder of the Loans from the Exhibition of Scientific Apparatus.
- D. 1.—This saving was caused by the absence of the Director on the business of the Universal Exhibition at Paris, and from a vacancy on the staff.
- D. 2.—Casual saving.
- D. 3.—This excess was caused by an increase in the pay of the Police after the Estimates were framed.
- D. 4.—Casual saving.
- D. 5.—Same observation.
- D. 6.—This saving was caused by the new buildings not being sufficiently advanced to allow of any work being undertaken on the furnaces, gas-mains, &c., and from the reduced price of coal.
- E. 1.—This saving was caused by the pay of two Special Assistants being charged to the Sub-Head F. 1, Salaries, Bethnal Green, and by the number of Writers employed being less than was anticipated.
- E. 2.—This excess was caused by its having been necessary to keep a larger staff of Attendants and Packers employed than was anticipated.
- E. 3.—Casual saving due to the amount estimated not having been all required.
- E. 4.—This saving was occasioned by a transfer of items to the Stationery Office Vote.
- F. 1.—This saving was mainly caused by the small amount of repairs necessary for the heating apparatus, fire-mains, &c.
- F. 2.—Casual saving.
- F. 3.—The expenditure for chemicals, &c. for the Food Collection was not so great as estimated for.
- F. 4.—Same observation as to Sub-Head D. 3.
- F. 5.—This saving was caused by so many new cases not having been required, as it was found possible to lend a number of cases from South Kensington.
- F. 6.—This saving was caused mainly by the small amount of repairs necessary to the heating apparatus, &c., and from the reduced price of coal.
- F. 7.—No observation.
- G.—This excess was caused by the Treasury having objected to the Personal Grants recommended by the Royal Society in 1876-77 being paid otherwise than quarterly. The recommendation for 1877-78 amounted to 4,000 l. Of this sum, 2,300 l. was for non-personal grants, which, together with the amount of the personal grants recommended in the previous year, resulted in an excess of 210 l.
- H. 1.—Casual saving.
- H. 2.—Casual saving.
- H. 3.—Same observation.
- H. 4.—Casual excess.
- H. 5.—Casual saving.
- H. 6.—This saving was caused by the reduced price of coal, and the mildness of the winter.
- H. 7.—Casual excess.
- H. 8.—Casual saving. The amount of the expenditure under this head cannot be accurately estimated.
- I. 1.—This saving was caused by vacancies in the staff.
- I. 2.—This saving was occasioned by skilled labour not being required to the extent anticipated.
- I. 3.—This saving was due to parts of the building having been closed for alterations.

EXTRA RECEIPTS.—The difference between the amount of Extra Receipts realised and the amount estimated was occasioned by (1), an alteration in the date of paying over to the Exchequer the balance of the fees received at the National Art Training School, i. e., substituting September for March; and (2), by the falling off in the receipts for admissions to the Museums at South Kensington and Bethnal Green having been greater than was expected.

The Surplus of 2,052*l.* 7*s.* 5*d.*, shown upon the Account of the Vote "Science and Art Department," for the year ended 31st March 1877, has been surrendered.

P. 2 - - Purchase of Specimens, Books, Apparatus, &c.

GEOLOGICAL SURVEY OF THE UNITED KINGDOM :

S. 2 - - Travelling—England.

1. Under this Sub-Head is included the sum of 3*l.* 0*s.* 5*d.*, paid as the annual increment of an officer from 29th October 1877, whereas I have no evidence of his appointment as a permanent Inspector previous to 1st May 1877. Up to that date, as appears from the account furnished, and the correspondence annexed, the officer in question had been employed as an occasional Inspector, and paid in accordance with the scale authorised. Under the circumstances, and in the absence of any specific authority, the sum would not seem to be properly chargeable against the Vote.

Annual increment.

A.

2. B. 9. Numerous payments are included in the Account for Fees paid to Professors for the instruction of Royal Exhibitioners (paid out of H. 4), Local Exhibitioners, and Teachers in Training, which payments are stated to be in reimbursement of the Professor's Laboratory Expenses. This expenditure does not appear to have been sanctioned by the Treasury. The Accounting Officer has stated that it is believed that a Committee of Inquiry will shortly be appointed by the Treasury to investigate the subject.

Professor's fees.

3. D. 6. Heating, Lighting, and Precautions Against Fire.—Under this Sub-Head is included a charge of 100*l.* for the insurance of certain buildings, the property of Her Majesty's Commissioners of the Exhibition of 1851; no special provision is made for any such charge under this or any other Sub-Head of the Vote, nor does any other payment for the insurance of the Science and Art Buildings appear in the Account. As, however, the Maintenance and Repair of the Science and Art Buildings form a separate Vote (Class I., Vote 11), administered by the Office of Works, it would seem more advantageous were all charges of this nature to appear under one Vote, and be under the control of one Department. The correspondence which has arisen on this subject is annexed.

Insurance of buildings.

B, C, D., and E.

4. E. 3. Travelling.—Under this Sub-Head are included various sums paid for travelling whilst removing, and for collecting objects for exhibition at the Bethnal Green Museum. As a special Sub-Head is set apart for the maintenance of and expenditure in connection with the Bethnal Green Museum, I am of opinion that all charges of the nature referred to should be so appropriated as to exhibit the entire cost of each head of service. The sum transferrable in the present Account from Sub-Head E. to Sub-Head F. 3, is 36*l.* 15*s.* 6*d.*

Travelling expenses, Bethnal Green Museum.

5. Sub-Head F. 3.—Bethnal Green Museum, Incidentals.—In the view of this Department it is desirable that in cases where specific heads of service appear in the Votes,

Incidentals, Bethnal Green Museum.

O. 12.

I 1 2

all payments that can be classified in accordance with such Sub-Heads should appear as charges against them, rather than against the Sub-Head taken for Incidental Expenses. Against this Sub-Head the Accounting Officer has charged certain sums expended for spirits, chemicals, &c., for which apparently provision is intended to be made under Sub-Head F. 5.

Excess on Scientific Research.

F. G. H. I.

6. Sub-Head G.—Scientific Research.—A payment of 175*l.* to Mr. H. Woodward is included under this Sub-Head, under the authority of the Treasury, dated 27th November 1878, conditional apparently on this Sub-Head not being exceeded. It appears, however, that the original Estimate of 4,000*l.* had already been exceeded at the date of this sanction, and the excess of 210*l.* was directed to be made good out of savings on the other Sub-Heads by Treasury Letter of 23rd August 1878.

As, however, the Accountant states the Treasury was aware of the circumstances under which the Grant to Mr. Woodward was made, I am not prepared to object to the charge. The correspondence which has taken place on the subject is annexed.

New Sub-Head.

J.

7. School of Art, Dublin.—This is a Sub-Head inserted by the Accounting Officer upon the authority of the Treasury, as contained in the letter of 11th August 1877, a copy of which is annexed. The total cost of this Sub-Head has been 475*l.* 9*s.* 4*d.*, which has been met out of savings on other Sub-Heads.

Expenditure for the Loan Exhibition of Scientific Apparatus.

8. Loan Exhibition of Scientific Apparatus.—In addition to the expenditure on account of this Sub-Head shown in my Reports on the expenditure of the Grants for 1875–6 and 1876–7, the Accountant states sums amounting to 1,302*l.* 3*s.* 11*d.* have been incurred on the same Account during the year ended 31st March 1878. I have, however, caused the vouchers furnished to me to be examined with the view of testing the correctness, and I am of opinion that the total charges within the present year's account arising out of, or connected with the Scientific Apparatus Loan Exhibition, including the cost of lectures, should be 1,608*l.* 12*s.* 7*d.*

Defalcations of former accountant.

K.

9. No sums have been brought to account during the year 1877–78, in connection with the defalcations of the former Accountant, but the action proposed to be taken in the matter is to be found in the Treasury Letter of 3rd May 1878, annexed.

Extra remuneration.

10. In addition to the sums paid to salaried officers of other Departments out of the Science and Art Vote, or to officers of the Science and Art Department out of other Votes, appended to the present Account, and to the Parliamentary Estimates in pursuance of the Treasury instructions, I have to call attention to the following list, which suggests how imperfectly the Treasury regulations are carried out or understood.

CORRESPONDENCE referred to in the foregoing Report.

(A.)

(No. 1500.)

Exchequer and Audit Department,
11 December 1878.

Sir,
I AM directed by the Comptroller and Auditor General to transmit to you, for the information of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, copies of a correspondence which has taken place with the Accounting Officer of the Science and Art Department, relative to the date from which the annual increment of the salary of an inspector of local schools has been computed. Captain Abney, the inspector in question, was formerly employed as an occasional inspector, and paid the usual personal and other allowances under the prescribed regulations. In the Salary List for May 1877, Captain Abney's name appears for the first time as in the receipt of regular salary, and inasmuch as Mr. Law's letter of 22nd April 1878, addressed to Lord George Hamilton, held that Captain Abney was relieved, by their Lordships' Minute of 24th August 1860, from the formality of a certificate from the Civil Service Commissioners, the Comptroller and Auditor General has no other evidence on which to rely for his appointment than that of the date of his first appearance in the monthly or quarterly pay sheet.

Under the circumstances, he is unable to admit the principle sought to be laid down by the Accounting Officer, and the ante-dating of Captain Abney's permanent connection with the Department without further authority from their Lordships.

To the Secretary to the Treasury.

I have, &c.

QUERY No. 256.

Description of the Voucher.	Query or Observation.
B. 9.—Inspection and Examination, Captain W. De W. Abney, 105 l. ; arrears for 29 October 3 l. - s. 5 d.	As the first payment of salary to Captain Abney appears to have been from 1st May 1877, it is requested that the payment of his annual increment from 29th October of the same year may be explained.

ANSWER OF ACCOUNTING OFFICER.

Captain Abney was appointed an Inspector of Local Schools on the 29th October 1876, and his annual increment was calculated from that date.

QUERY No. 267.

Description of the Voucher.	Query or Observation.
Reply to Query No. 256.	There is no evidence from the accounts furnished that Captain Abney was in receipt of "salary" previous to 1st May 1877; up to that date his services had apparently been similar to those of other engineer officers acting as occasional inspectors.

ANSWER OF ACCOUNTING OFFICER.

Although Captain Abney received no salary from this Department till the 29th October, being in the receipt of salary from the War Office, he was virtually employed as Inspector of Local Schools from the date of his appointment, and therefore the increment was allowed from that date.

(B.)

(No. 1179.)

Exchequer and Audit Department,
21 August 1878.

Sir,

THE attention of the Comptroller and Auditor General having been called to a payment out of the Vote for Science and Art for the insurance of certain buildings at South Kensington, the property of Her Majesty's Commissioners of the Exhibition of 1851, he directed inquiries to be made of the Accounting Officer as to the circumstances under which this liability was incurred. I am now directed to transmit to you herewith, for the information of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, copies of the correspondence arising out of this matter, and as the charge is one of a nature which has not hitherto come under his notice, the Comptroller and Auditor General is of opinion that it should have been brought to the knowledge of their Lordships, with the view of obtaining their sanction before being finally admitted as properly chargeable against the Vote (Class IV., Vote 2).

I am at the same time to point out to you that the vouchers herewith transmitted (which it is requested may be returned) are the only evidence of the payment of the money, no proof having been afforded to the Comptroller and Auditor General that the policy of insurance is still maintained, or that the value for which these buildings are insured represents the whole or only that part supposed to be in the occupation of the Science and Art.

The Secretary to the Treasury.

I have, &c.

QUERY No. 68.

Description of the Voucher.	Query or Observation.
D. 6.—South Kensington Museum; Heating, Lighting, &c.; August; Voucher 3625; two years' insurance, West Galleries, 100 l .	It is requested that the terms of the agreement with the Commissioners of the Exhibition of 1851 may be transmitted for Inspection, and the nature of this charge explained.

ANSWER OF ACCOUNTING OFFICER.

The Western Galleries were lent by the Commissioners for the Exhibition of 1851 upon the same terms as the central portion of the building, it being understood that the building was to be insured against accidents by fire in such amount as their surveyor might deem necessary.

This arrangement was made verbally.

The voucher is herewith returned.

QUERY No. 174.

Description of the Voucher.	Query or Observation.
Reply to Query No. 68.	Previous to arriving at any final decision with reference to the subject of this query, the Comptroller and Auditor General desires to have submitted for his inspection the policy of insurance effected by the Commissioners of the Exhibition of 1851 on the buildings in question, together with a copy of the report of their surveyor.

ANSWER OF ACCOUNTING OFFICER.

The policy of insurance is herewith transmitted for inspection as requested.

Her Majesty's Commissioners state that they are not in possession of any report from their surveyor.

It is requested that the policy may be returned when done with.

Sir,

Treasury Chambers, 9 December 1878.

I AM directed by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to transmit to you, with reference to your letter of the 21st of August last, the enclosed copies of a correspondence which has taken place between the Science and Art Department and this Board, relating to a payment made by that Department to the commissioners for the Exhibition of 1851, for the Insurance of the Western Galleries of the Exhibition Buildings at South Kensington.

I am also to return the original enclosures to your letter.

Sir,

WITH reference to Sir W. H. Clerke's letter (No. 13,913) of the 28th August last, transmitting a copy of a letter dated the 21st of the same month, addressed to the Treasury by the Comptroller and Auditor General, enclosing copies of his queries and of the replies of the Science and Art Department, on the subject of a payment made by the Department to Her Majesty's Commissioners for the Exhibition of 1851, for the Insurance of the Western Galleries of the Exhibition Buildings at South Kensington, I am directed by the Lords of the Committee of Council on Education to acquaint you, for the information of the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, that the conditions upon which the Buildings referred to are lent to the Science and Art Department, by Her Majesty's Commissioners, are simply that the insurance be paid and the rooms kept in order.

The amount paid to the Commissioners is for the insurance at the Western Galleries only, as is clearly stated in the Account, and also in the Policy of Insurance, both of which documents were duly submitted to the Comptroller and Auditor General.

The enclosures which were received with Sir W. H. Clerke's letter, now under reply, are returned herewith as requested.

The Secretary, Her Majesty's Treasury.

My Lord,

Treasury Chambers, 19 November 1878.

WITH reference to Mr. MacLeod's letter of the 1st instant, relating to certain payments made for the Insurance of the Western Galleries of the Exhibition Buildings at South Kensington, I am directed by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to request, that you will move the Lords of the Committee of Council on Education, to cause my Lords to be informed why an arrangement was made, for acquiring the use of these Galleries from the Commissioners of the Exhibition in 1851, without the previous sanction of this Board.

I am to point out, that any arrangement of this kind for acquiring additional accommodation for the use of a Public Department, ought only to be made through the Office of Works.

I am also to request, that my Lords may be informed, whether the Science and Art Department is still in the occupation of these Galleries, and if so, for what further period it will require the use of them.

IN reply to Mr. Law's letter of the 19th instant, inquiring why an arrangement was made by this Department for acquiring the use of the Western Galleries of the Exhibition Building at South Kensington, without the previous sanction of the Treasury, I am directed by the Lords of the Committee of Council on Education to state, for the information of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, that the first arrangement for the temporary use of these Galleries was made at a meeting on the 23rd March 1876, at South Kensington, at which the Lord President and Vice President, Mr. W. H. Smith, then Secretary to the Treasury, and the Secretary of the Office of Works, were present. The arrangement for the continued occupation of the Galleries was made in accordance with the suggestion contained in the Treasury letter, No. 20,310, of the 21st December 1876.

My Lord,
In reply to Sir Francis Sandford's letter of the 19th instant, I am directed by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to state, for the information of the Lords of the Committee of Council on Education, that my Lords themselves are disposed to think that the purposes for which the Exhibition of Scientific Instruments and Apparatus was opened have now been sufficiently fulfilled, and that further expenditure upon it merely as an Exhibition would scarcely be justified, either by the interest taken in it by the public, or by the educational influence which it might exercise.

On these points, however, the Lords of the Committee are no doubt in a better position to form an opinion than is this Board, but should they not see reason to differ from my Lords, their Lordships would suggest that some temporary arrangement might be made with the Commissioners of 1851, in order to prevent the dispersion of such articles as have been, or may be, presented to the Nation, and that the Exhibition itself might be forthwith closed.

In this way time would be gained for the further consideration of the offer made by the Commissioners to erect a Science Museum, without incurring the expense of keeping open the Exhibition of Scientific Instruments.

Sir,
I AM directed by the Comptroller and Auditor General to acknowledge the receipt of your reply to Query No. 270 on the Account of the Grant for Science and Art, 1877-78, enclosing a copy of the Treasury Letter of 27th November 1878, relative to a payment of 175 £ to Mr. H. Woodward from the Grant in aid of Scientific Research.

I am to point out to you that the payment to Mr. Woodward is made conditional upon the total amount provided under the Sub-head not being exceeded. Upon reference, however, to the Estimates as laid before and voted by Parliament, and the Appropriation Account rendered by you, the Comptroller and Auditor General finds that against a Grant of 4,000 £, expenditure to the amount of 4,210 £ has been incurred, although Treasury authority was obtained by Sir W. H. Clerke's letter of 23rd August last for the extra expenditure.

The Comptroller and Auditor General cannot however regard the condition under which Mr. Woodward was to be paid as having been complied with, and he is of opinion that further evidence that the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury were cognisant that the extra expenditure under Sub-head C., sanctioned by them in August last, was in a measure due to the payments to Mr. Woodward, should be produced.

Woodward, from the Grant in Aid of Scientific Research, Sub-Head G. of the Vote for the Science and Art Department, for the continuation of his work on Fossil Crustacea, on the understanding that the total amount provided under that Sub-Head will not be thereby exceeded.

With regard to Mr. MacLeod's proposal to make a similar payment to Mr. Woodward during the current financial year, I am to state that subject to the same condition, my Lords are pleased to authorise the proposed payment, provided the Science and Art Department obtain an official assurance from the Trustees of the British Museum that the work to be so remunerated has been performed by Mr. Woodward wholly out of his office hours at the Museum

Sir,
In reply to Mr. Treherne's Letter (No. 1861) of the 10th instant, acknowledging the receipt of the reply to Query No. 270, on the Account of the Grant for Science and Art, 1877-78, and a copy of a Treasury Letter, dated 27th November 1878, relative to a payment of 175 l. to Mr. H. Woodward from the Grant for Scientific Research, and stating that the payment to Mr. Woodward was sanctioned conditionally upon the total amount provided under the Sub-head not being exceeded, and that the Comptroller and Auditor General cannot regard the condition as having been complied with, as the expenditure, as given in the Appropriation Account, shews an excess of 210 l. over the amount voted for that Service.

I am directed to inform you that the payment of 175 l. to Mr. Woodward was not the cause of the excess, but that the excess was caused by the Treasury directing in 1876-77 that the personal payments should be made quarterly. By this decision the Royal Society practically lost 1,804 l. 18 s. 6 d., which sum was repaid to the Exchequer with the general Savings upon the Vote for that year. These circumstances were fully explained to the Treasury when application was made for sanction to the excess of 210 l.

EXTRACT from Science and Art Letter to the Treasury, 1st August, 1878.

THE Excess on Sub-head G. of 210 l. was caused by the action of the Treasury in 1876-77 in deciding that the personal Grants to the scientific gentlemen recommended by the Royal Society could not be paid in advance, and therefore a sum of 1,829 l. 18 s. 6 d. out of the 4,000 l. voted for this Service, was lost to the Society. The recommendations for the year 1877-78 amounted to 4,000 l. exactly. Of this sum 2,400 l. was for non-personal grants which, added to the personal grants recommended in 1876-77, and paid during 1877-78, brought the expenditure up to 4,210 l.

Treasury Chambers, 11 August 1877.

My Lord,

I AM directed by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to acknowledge the receipt of Mr. MacLeod's letter of the 7th instant, forwarding a copy of a Minute framed by the Lords of the Committee of Council on Education, with a view to give effect to paragraph 9 of your Lordship's letter to the Royal Dublin Society of the 8th February 1876, wherein it was promised that "the Art School would be made a special metropolitan school, the Royal Dublin Society being relieved of their management of and contributions to it."

I am to state that my Lords approve of that Minute, the salaries and fees under which will be as follows:—

	Fixed Salary.	Fees.
Head Master, giving his whole time	200 l. , rising by 10 l. a year to 250 l.	30 per cent.
Principal Mistress, 22 hours weekly	100 l. - - - - -	5 per cent. ; to be increased if required to give more time to school.
Second Master - - - - -	50 l. , rising by 10 l. a year to 100 l.	20 per cent.
Assistant Mistress, three evenings a week.	- - - - -	5 per cent. ; to be increased if required to give more time.
Four Art Pupils, teachers or students.	157 l. - - - - -	—

One clerk attendant at 1 l. 10 s. per week ; thirty lectures at 3 l. 3 s. each, 94 l. 10 s.

My Lords agree that such payments as may become due under the Minute in question before the Estimates for the next year are taken, may be made out of savings on the Votes for the Science and Art Department.

£. 800.

The above distribution of fees to remain in force until they amount to 800 l. ; when they exceed that sum the excess to be paid into the Treasury, or the scale revised to provide for additional teachers.

My Lords will take the necessary steps to communicate with the Office of Works in Ireland on the subject of the accommodation in the School of Art, and the execution of such works of alteration, cleaning, &c., as may be immediately necessary for opening the School for the next session, commencing 1st October next.

Sir,
I AM directed by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to request you to inform the Committee of Council on Education, with reference to your letter of 17th January last, that they are of opinion that steps may now be taken to realise the sums still outstanding to the credit of A. L. Simkins, formerly accountant to the Science and Art Department; and I am to convey to you their Lordships authority for so doing.

Treasury Chambers, 2 May 1878.

Their Lordships of the Committee are aware that my Lords have been unwilling to take any steps which might be misinterpreted as implying condonation of Simkins's frauds, and with that view they have advisedly left his account unadjusted, so far as the realisation of existing assets are concerned.

It appears to them, however, that a date must be fixed for adjustment, and that sufficient time has now been allowed to elapse in order to mark their intentions in the matter; but they would wish it to be understood that the permission which they now give in no sense implies condonation, and that they will without fail institute proceedings against Simkins, should means of capturing him ever occur.

EXPLANATION of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

A.—Savings were effected on this Sub-Head, first, by the sum granted for the “Remuneration of persons not on the Museum Establishment” not having been all expended, and, second, by the circumstances that vacancies on the Museum Establishment, occurring from time to time, are not immediately filled up, and that the persons appointed to such vacancies receive the minimum instead of the maximum or intermediate rate of the scale of pay. In the year 1877, no new appointments were made by the Principal Trustees to the rank of Assistant pending the settlement of the re-organisation of the Establishment by the Trustees and the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty’s Treasury. The savings effected were largely absorbed by improved salaries granted by the Treasury Letter of the 10th December 1877, from the 21st March preceding, to certain of the officers and the assistants (See Parliamentary Paper, No. 334, Session 1878, pages 22, 23). A total sum of 136 l. 5 s. (on account of a total estimated expenditure of 750 l.) was paid to certain of the assistants in the Department of Manuscripts, beyond their official salaries, for preparing in their non-official time, slips for an Index to the Charters and Rolls. This expenditure was sanctioned by Treasury Letter of the 26th March 1877.

* On its way to the Exchequer, and paid over on 4th April. The order for transfer was given on 28th March.

EXPLANATION of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

- A.—The bulk of this Deficiency (33 l. 6 s. 8 d.) is due to the extension of the system of monthly payments to the salary of the Clerk of Convocation, bringing within this year two months' salary not provided by the Estimate. Of the remainder, a part (12 l. 1 s.) is due to Extra Wages, and a part (4 l. 16 s.) to Extra Assistance in the Office. Against the Total Deficiency of 50 l. 3 s. 8 d. is to be set 1 l. 14 s. 4 d., added at Treasury to make even pounds; difference, 48 l. 9 s. 4 d.
- B.—Of the additions to the Salaries of Examiners introduced into the Estimate, some were actually first paid on the second, and others on the third, quarter-day of the year, giving a Saving of 142 l. 10 s., to which must be added 6 l. 5 s. due to a deceased Examiner, but not claimed. Against the Total Saving of 148 l. 15 s. must be set a Deficiency of 20 l. 11 s. under Contingent Examiners, and two Gratuities of 20 l. each to the Examiners in Experimental Philosophy (authorised by Treasury Letter, printed as Minute 40 of Minutes of Senate for 27th March 1878); Total Deficiency, 60 l. 11 s.; and 148 l. 15 s., less 60 l. 11 s. = 88 l. 4 s.
- C.—With the exception of about 8 l., due to a deceased Scholar, but not claimed, this Saving is due to the non-award of various Exhibitions, &c., in default of candidates of sufficient merit to deserve them.
- D.—No Law Expenses have been incurred during the year.

Amount of Extra Receipts realised in the Year 1877-78, and paid over to Exchequer - 4 10 -

EXPLANATION of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

A.—This Surplus is owing partly to the absence, for a time, of the artist from his official duties, without salary, and partly to the fact that the wages of the servant were paid at a lower rate than had been estimated for.
B., C., and D.—Owing to unavoidable delay in arranging the details of the plan upon which the Results of the “Challenger” Expedition should be published, the progress made during the year in the preparation of the Report was not so great as had been anticipated. In consequence, the payment for professional assistance and for artistic work fell considerably short of the Estimate.
E.—This Deficiency was principally due to the fact, that certain claims which properly belonged to past years were only settled in the year 1877-78.

EXTRA RECEIPTS.—A sum of 4 l. 10 s. was brought to account during the year, being the amount realised by the sale of tobacco, when the Expedition returned.

The Surplus of 37 l. 5 s. 4 d., shown on the Account of the Vote “Deep Sea Exploring Expedition,” for the year ended 31st March 1877, has been surrendered.

LETTER referred to in the foregoing REPORT.

(18,898—78).

Sir,

Treasury Chambers, 31 December 1878.

WITH reference to your further letter of the 21st ultimo, relating to your accounts for a period of eight months, ended the 31st December 1877, I am directed by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to acquaint you that, on further consideration, My Lords have been pleased to give you credit for the following sums, for which you have been unable to produce proper vouchers, viz., 29*l.* 10*s.*, for expenses of yourself and F. Pearcey, in connection with the transfer of the collection from the "Challenger" at Chatham to Edinburgh, which formed the subject of your letter to the Admiralty, dated the 14th of December 1876; and 3*l.* 16*s.* 9*d.* for sundry small payments, which was disallowed by the letter from this Board, dated the 19th ultimo (18,542).

I am desired at the same time to state, that, although My Lords have decided to allow the expenditure in question, because they have no reason to doubt that such expenditure has been actually and properly incurred, they think it right to observe, that they will not be prepared to waive the ordinary rules of public accountancy so far as to adopt a similar course on any future occasion, should you fail to produce proper vouchers for any expenditure for which you may claim credit.

In accordance with this decision, I am desired to return to you herewith the cheque for 2*l.* 19*s.* 6*d.*, which was inclosed in your letter of the 16th instant.

Sir C. Wyville Thomson,
The University, Edinburgh.

I am, &c.

Deduct Deficit - - - - -			2,911 15 4
Net Surplus to be surrendered - - - £.			- 1 -

EXPLANATION of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

- A.—Casual difference between Grant and Expenditure.
- B.—This deficiency is principally caused by the transfer of the greater part of the secretariat and engineering staff and assistants to Paris, where they came into receipt of subsistence allowances. The settlement of the (greatly increased) space allotted to the British Section involved additional superintendence, and thereby tended to swell the expenditure under this Sub-Head beyond what had been anticipated.
- E.—The expenditure under this Sub-Head necessarily increased in direct proportion to the extension of space allotted to the British Section. The total includes some special items, viz., 1,000*l.* to the contractor for extra sheds in the grounds, and a payment of 440*l.* on account of the boat-shed.
- F.—The bulk of the expenditure under this Sub-Head, consisting of the transfer of collections to Paris, did not come in course of payment during the financial year.

G., H. and L.—The expenditure under these Sub-Heads will not be brought to account until the completion of certain contracts in the current financial year.

K.—This Sub-Head was under-estimated. The deficiency is due, not to any large sums which admit of description separately, but to an increase in general expenditure, the result of the extension of the area of the British Section.

The Surplus of 1 l. 7 s. 1 d., shown on the Account of the Vote "Paris International Exhibition," for the year ended 31st March 1877, has been surrendered.

Amount of Extra Receipts realised in the Year 1877-78, and paid over to Exchequer - 12 13 4

EXPLANATION of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

A.—This Saving is due to the resignation of an Inspector's assistant, whose successor received the lower rate of salary allowed upon appointment, and to vacancies in the staff which were not filled up until towards the close of the year.

Note.—Five of Her Majesty's Inspectors of Schools received from the Science and Art Department 11 l. 11 s., and two assistants 5 l. 5 s., in sums varying from 2 l. 2 s. to 3 l. 3 s.

B.—This Saving was caused by an over-estimate of the probable number of guineas to be paid to Inspectors for each night spent away from home on official business, and of the average cost of travelling.

C.—The average number of children in attendance at the schools to which grants were paid increased at a more rapid rate than had been anticipated, and the grant earned by each child (16 s. 2 d.) exceeded the amount (15 s. 8 d.) at which it had been calculated.

D.—This Sub-Head of the Vote is one which, from the nature of the claims to be met by it, cannot possibly be very accurately estimated for. In the present instance the Excess was caused (1) by the claims of several school boards having been received and paid at an earlier date than usual, and the charges for two years brought to account in 1877-78, viz., in April 1877 and in March 1878; (2), by an under-estimate of the probable amount of the claims received.

E.—This Saving was caused by the death of two pensioners, and by no “gratuities” having been paid.

F.—As the Department is dependent upon the promoters of schools as to the time at which the grants awarded may be claimed, it is almost impossible to form an accurate estimate of the sum which may be required to meet such claims in any given year. When the Estimates under notice were prepared the awards outstanding were 236,000 £., of which only * 176,231 £. had been claimed by the end of 1877–78.

G.—This Excess is due to an increase in the salaries of the teachers in training colleges beyond the sum calculated upon, and to certain charges incurred by the managers under the terms of Article 102 of the Scotch Code, for which no provision was made in the Estimates, having been included in the expenditure upon which the grant was based.

* 51,464 £. from December to March 1877; 124,767 £. from April 1877 to March 1878.

EXCHEQUER EXTRA RECEIPTS.—Nil.

The Surplus of 1,490 £. 12 s. 9 d., shown on the Account of the Vote “Public Education, Scotland,” for the year ended 31st March 1877, has been surrendered.

VOTE 10.

REPORT OF THE COMPTROLLER AND AUDITOR GENERAL.

Certain remarks on Vote 1 applicable to this Vote.

1. THE observations contained in the paragraphs numbered 1, 2, 4, 9, 11, 12, 13, 14, and 15, of my Report on the Vote for Public Education, England and Wales, apply also to the Account of the Vote for Public Education, Scotland.

Sub-Head C.

2. Under Sub-Head C., Annual Grants for Day and Evening Schools, it was observed that teachers were employed as clerks or treasurers to school boards, but that information was not afforded as to the “special grounds” for their holding these appointments, which, according to Article 15*b* of the Scotch Code, would alone justify the Department in recognising teachers in these capacities. The Department, however, in the case brought before it, replied, “that it did not feel called upon to answer the question” as to these special grounds.

Infringement of Article 70 of Code.

3. Article 70 (f) requiring agreements to be entered into with pupil teachers in the form prescribed in the second schedule to the Code, appears to have been frequently overlooked, but the Department has now suggested an arrangement which may be expected to ensure attention to the provisions of the Article in future.

Sub-Head F.

A. B.

4. Sub-Head F.—Building and Furnishing of School Premises.—A correspondence is annexed which has taken place on the subject of Article 16 (8) c (2), and the omission to insert in leases the provisions which that Article requires. It will be observed that the Article in question presents some legal difficulties, and that the Department considers the securities afforded by it are immaterial, in consequence of the operation of the Act of 1872.

CORRESPONDENCE referred to in the foregoing Report.

(A.)

(1679.)

Sir,

Exchequer and Audit Department,
28 November 1878.

It has been noticed in the examination of the Account of the expenditure of the Vote for Public Education, Scotland, 1877-78, that the provisions of Article 16 (8) c. (2) have not been complied with, with respect to leases of sites on which board schools have been built, towards the erection of which the Education Department has made building grants.

The Article referred to is as follows :—"Any power granted or reserved to lease or sell the site, or to terminate the lease and resume possession, shall be so conceived and expressed that it shall not be lawful to exercise the same without the written consent of the Secretary of State for the Home Department, and the possession of the site shall not be resumed without first repaying any grant which may have been paid in respect of the premises."

The Comptroller and Auditor General desires me to observe that, while refraining from the expression of any opinion as to whether the omission to insert in the leases the provisions required by Article 16 (8) c. (2) would in any way imperil the building grants, should school boards pervert the schools to other uses than those stipulated in the leases, he would be glad to be favoured with an explanation of the reasons which may have influenced the Education Department in deeming it undesirable to adhere to the conditions of Article 16 (8) c. (2) of the Code of Regulations.

Sir F. R. Sandford, C.B.

I have, &c.
(signed) H. Treherne.

(B)

(29,046-78.)

Sir,

Scotch Education Department,
27 December 1878.

I HAVE the honour to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 28th ultimo (No. 1679).

The Article in question was shown, in the case of a site granted by the proprietor of an entailed estate, to be irreconcilable with the provisions of the 3 & 4 Vict. c. 48, inasmuch as though the superior might bind himself, he could not bind his successors not to avail themselves of the power of procuring a forfeiture in the Sheriff's Court under that Act. This affected a large proportion of school sites in Scotland.

In other cases, and generally, it is held that the 36th Section of the Education (Scotland) Act of 1872 (35 & 36 Vict. c. 62), has transferred from the Home Secretary to this Department (since the expiry of the Board of Education) the duty of dealing with such matters; while it has also vested in the Department the power of compelling school boards to maintain a sufficient supply of efficient schools for their respective districts; e.g., if a school were forfeited through the laches of a school board (and since 1872 building grants, which will shortly cease, have been made only to school boards), the board can be compelled by the Courts to erect another school in its place, or may be driven to remove the causes of impending forfeiture by this Department withholding annual grants under the Code.

Their Lordships having these statutory powers of keeping up the school supply of each district, and deeming it immaterial whether that supply is furnished by School A., erected with a building grant, or School B., which they have the power of requiring to be provided without such aid, have thought it unnecessary to adhere to the conditions of Article 16 (8) c. (2) of the Code; more especially as while its legal effect is very doubtful, the endeavour to insist upon it was causing serious delay in completing the school supply of several districts.

The Comptroller and Auditor General,
Exchequer and Audit Department, Somerset House, W.C.I have, &c.
(signed) F. R. Sandford.

EXPLANATION of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

A., C., D.—These Savings arose on Salaries of Offices during short vacancies. The Professor of Medical Jurisprudence in the University of Edinburgh received 25*l.* as Visiting Physician at the General Prison, Perth, for part of the year 1877–78, from the Vote for Prisons, Scotland, Class III., No. 21, Sub-head A.

B.—This Excess was occasioned by a payment in 1877–78 applicable to 1876–77.

E.—As respects the allowance for the service of the Time Gun in Edinburgh Castle, the charges within the year were less than the authorised amount.

F.—This Excess was occasioned by the payments during 1877–78 having exceeded the allowance for the Botanic Garden to the extent of 4*s.* 5*d.* The corresponding payments for 1875–76 and 1876–77 were 3*l.* 1*s.* 8*d.* less than the voted allowance.

The Surplus of 190*l.* 14*s.* 10*d.*, shown on the Account of the Vote “Universities, &c., in Scotland,” for the year ended 31st March 1877, has been surrendered.

CIVIL SERVICE ESTIMATES—CLASS IV.—*continued.*VOTE 14.—PUBLIC EDUCATION, IRELAND—continued.

EXPLANATION of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

Schedule A. 1.—Administration, Salary, and Wages - - - - £. 362. 5. 7. Saving.

The Saving under this head was occasioned by the abolition of one of the First Class Clerkships from 1st February 1877, when the arrangements for reorganising the higher offices of the Establishment came into effect, one of the Clerks was depressed, and one died, leaving a vacancy that could not be filled up for an interval.

„ A. 2.—Travelling Expenses - - - - £. 48. 7. 8. Saving.

The contingent nature of the Sub-Head accounts for the Saving.

„ A. 3.—Legal Expenses - - - - £. 63. 1. 9. Excess.

Sanction for a contemplated Excess of 60*l.* was requested by letter from this Office, dated 13th February 1878, and was given by Treasury Letter, No. 2756, dated 16th February 1878. The Excess arose in connection with the sales of some of the Commissioners' farms.

„ A. 5.—Rent - - - - £. 0. 12. 6. Casual Saving.

„ A. 6.—Incidental Expenses - - - - £. 51. 8. 8. Saving.

The contingent nature of the Sub-Head accounts for this Saving; there was a slight Excess in previous year, the estimated amounts being the same for both years.

„ B. 1.—Salaries - - - - £. 1,645. 3. 5. Saving.

There were several cases of retirement in the Inspection Corps during the year, followed by temporary vacancies. The newly appointed Inspectors received the minimum salary according to scale, instead of the higher salaries of their predecessors, who resigned.

„ B. 2.—Travelling and Personal Allowance - - - - £. 598. 7. 0. Excess.

This Excess is owing to the increase in the work of inspection, to the necessity, in some cases, of removing Inspectors, temporarily, to other districts (on personal allowance), to carry on the work for the Inspectors of the districts, who had been taken ill, and to the appointment (Treasury Letter, 1951, dated 30th April 1877) of Inspectors' Assistants. Special sanction for this Excess was given by Treasury Letter, No. 2756, dated 16th February 1878.

„ C. 1.—Salaries - - - - £. 311. 10. 1. Excess.

The appointment of a Lecturer on Physical Science, a French Master, and four Assistants to the Professors, sanctioned by Treasury Letter, No. 1951, dated 30th April 1877, accounts for this Excess.

„ C. 2.—Male Training Establishment - - - - £. 67. 1. 3. Excess.

The Assistants to the Professors, whose appointment was sanctioned as above stated, received board and lodging, in addition to their salaries, under Treasury sanction. The cost of two of them is accounted for under this Sub-Head.

„ C. 3.—Female Training Establishment - - - - £. 160. 5. 7. Saving.
Over-estimated.

„ C. 4.—Books, Apparatus, &c. - - - - £. 90. 19. 3. Saving.
Over-estimated as regards the amount to be charged against this Sub-Head in 1877-78.

„ D. 1.—Central Model School Department - - - - £. 189. 17. 2. Saving.

Vacancies in the Staff not immediately filled up; amount for books, &c., over-estimated in regard to the charge against the Sub-Head in 1877-78.

„ D. 2.—West Dublin Model School - - - - £. 111. 16. 3. Saving.

The amounts earned in Results Fees were less than what was expected. There were vacancies in the Staff not immediately filled up, and the amounts for books and needlework materials were over-estimated, as regards the charges against this Sub-Head in 1877-78.

„ D. 3.—Glasnevin Model School - - - - £. 3. 1. 10. Casual Saving.

Schedule D. 5.—District Model School - - - - - £. 1,336. 10. 10. Saving.

Vacancies took place in the Staff that were not immediately filled up. There was a decrease in the amounts paid to special Teachers of Music and Drawing, owing to the operation of the Results Scheme, and the amounts for books, apparatus, &c., were over-estimated as regards the charges under this Sub-Head in 1877-78.

„ D. 6.—Minor Model Schools - - - - - £. 261. 11. 7. Saving.

Similar explanation to that given under Sub-Head D. 5.

„ D. 7.—Retiring Gratuities - - - - - £. 429. 6. 10. Saving.

A Retiring Gratuity had been recommended which, in the ordinary course, would be paid in 1877-78, but which it was found expedient to withhold, pending decisive evidence as to the permanent unfitness of the teacher to resume duty. This circumstance accounts for the Saving.

„ E. 1.—Principal and Assistant Teachers - - - - - £. 3,342. 8. 4. Saving.

In 242 Schools the Managers failed to fulfil the conditions relative to local aid that entitle to payment of a second moiety of the Annual Results Fees. In several cases also the Commissioners ordered the reduction of amounts of Results Fees earned by the Teachers, in consequence of defects in the School Accounts, or in School Organisation, &c. &c.

„ E. 2.—Workmistresses - - - - - £. 469. 5. 11. Saving.

The number of Workmistresses has been decreasing.

„ E. 3.—Good Service Salaries - - - - - £. 105. 7. 5. Excess.

The payments of this class of Annual Grant were made earlier in 1877-78 than in previous years, and hence, in some cases, two years' salaries were paid within the one financial year.

„ E. 4.—Monitors - - - - - £. 9,127. 15. 9. Saving.

The difficulty experienced in securing the services of suitable candidates willing to accept the office of monitor had not been fully surmounted in 1877-78. The difficulty is, however, gradually diminishing.

„ E. 5.—Training Monitors - - - - - £. 221. 5. 11. Saving.

The number of monitors examined was less than what had been anticipated.

„ E. 6.—Examination Travelling - - - - - £. 248. 19. 11. Saving.

The same cause operated in occasioning this Saving as that referred to under last two Sub-Heads.

„ E. 7.—Organising Teachers - - - - - £. 40. 9. 10. Saving.

This Saving was effected in the travelling and personal allowances of organisers; one of the staff was stationary during most part of the year.

„ E. 8.—Retiring Gratuities - - - - - £. 61. 10. 5. Saving.

This Saving is casual. The expenditure under this head is contingent on the number of old or infirm teachers, whom the Inspectors recommend to be removed from their schools on Retiring Gratuity. The number of cases varies considerably from year to year.

„ E. 9.—Navigation Teachers - - - - - Nil.

„ E. 10.—Incidental Expenses - - - - - £. 41. 19. 4. Saving.

The contingent nature of the Sub-Head accounts for the Saving.

„ F. 1.—General Superintendence - - - - - £ 34. 2. 9. Excess.

There was a very large amount of travelling during the year which raised the expenditure. The Agricultural Superintendent also received an increment of 10*l.*, granted by Treasury Letter, No. 1951-77, dated 30th April 1877.

„ F. 2.—Albert Training Establishment - - - - - }

„ F. 3.—Albert Model Farm - - - - - }

„ F. 4.—Agricultural Schools - - - - - }

£. 845. 11. 7. Saving.

This Saving was partly owing to the circumstance that some of the receipts of 1876-77 were not brought to account until the beginning of 1877-78, and partly owing to the satisfactory operations of the Albert Model Farm, the receipts of which were considerably increased.

„ H.—Teachers' Residences	- - - -	£. 500. 0. 0.	Saving.

The continued slowness of Managers to avail themselves of the advantages offered by the Teachers' Residences Act, 33 & 39 Vict. c. 82, occasioned this Total Saving. No claims for repayment of moieties of rent-charge on residences having been received during the year.

Poundage	- - - -	£. 2,691. 8. 1.	Excess.
----------	---------	-----------------	---------

There was no provision in the Estimates for the cost of money orders for payment of teachers' salaries, as the Treasury had been in expectation of a new and less expensive method of payment to supersede the use of Post Office money orders in making such payments; as, however, the time of the Treasury Officers of Accounts, who had the matter in hands, was too much occupied to admit of the introduction of the new method until the current financial year 1878–79, special sanction was given to the continued use of the Post Office money orders, per Treasury Letter, 3950—77, dated 9th March 1877.

N.B.—The several Excesses on the Estimate 1877–78, were sanctioned by Treasury Authority, No. 13,119—78, dated 12th August 1878.

EXTRA RECEIPTS.—The Excess in the amount of Exchequer Extra Receipts, realised and paid into Her Majesty's Exchequer, over the estimated amount, was owing to the increased demand for National School Books during the year, occasioned by the increase in the attendance of pupils, and the stimulus of the Results Scheme.

PUBLIC EDUCATION, IRELAND.

REPORT OF THE COMPTROLLER AND AUDITOR GENERAL.

- Defalcation of a Teacher. 1. IN the second paragraph of my Report on the Account of this Vote for 1876-7, a defalcation to the amount of 52*l.* 2*s.* was referred to, and the measures taken to recover the amount from the defaulter's sureties described.
- In the present Account 24*l.* 1*s.* 11*d.* has been recovered from one of the sureties, who, with the sanction of the Lords of Her Majesty's Treasury, has been relieved from further liability.
- Poundage. 2. No Estimate was taken in the year 1877-8 for "Poundage," although a sum amounting to 2,691*l.* 8*s.* 1*d.* has been expended on this account. Under the direction of the Treasury, a scheme has been devised by which the customary payments through the local post offices will be continued as heretofore, whilst, at the same time, the use of the ordinary money orders, with the payment of the authorised poundage on money so remitted, is to cease.
- This scheme appears to have been completed at a later period than was anticipated, and it could not be carried into operation until April 1878.
- Charges for Rents. 3. There are charges on this Vote for rents of offices, school buildings, and model farms. Rents for buildings for public purposes in Ireland are in most cases provided for out of the Vote for Public Buildings, Ireland, Class I.
- Excess. 4. Expenditure in excess of the Estimate has been incurred under Sub-Heads A. 3, B. 2, C. 1, C. 2, E. 3, F. 1, and G. 1.

VOTE 16.

NATIONAL GALLERY OF IRELAND.

REPORT OF THE COMPTROLLER AND AUDITOR GENERAL.

1. THERE has been an Excess of Expenditure over the Grant under Sub-Head A. Excess.

2. Sub-Head B.—The annexed correspondence has taken place with reference to a system adopted by the Accounting Officer, with the apparent approval of the Treasury, of spreading the sums incurred for purchases over more than one year's Vote, without the cognisance of Parliament. Payments for purchases spread over more than one year.

I am unable to concur in the views held on this point by the Treasury, or to admit the applicability of the cases adduced in their support.

In the analogous cases of the Science and Art Department, the British Museum, the National Gallery, and the National Portrait Gallery, it has always been customary when funds are specially required to purchase works of art beyond the limits of the year's provision to present Supplementary Estimates, in which the whole amount requisite is shown. Similarly in the case of works carried on with voted monies, although the actual sums required are alone voted in each year, Parliament is informed of the entire cost of the work before any Vote on account is taken, and subsequently the amount estimated and the amount expended are shown in each year's Estimate.

If the system adopted by the National Gallery, Ireland, be recognised as applicable to the expenditure of public money generally, it seems to me that the consequence may be most serious by withdrawing from Parliamentary control the expenses of any particular service, and pledging Parliament in advance to provide funds to meet engagements incurred without its knowledge and sanction.

I may add that the National Gallery in 1870-71 required a Supplementary Vote for the purchase of the Peel Collection, and Parliament was accordingly informed of the whole cost of the collection, and 75,000 l. was granted, in addition to the ordinary Estimate, for the requirements of that year, which had, as usual, been fixed at 10,000 l., the annual amount then expended on the purchase of pictures; and for seven and a half years no vote for the purchase of pictures has been inserted in annual Estimates.

Sir,

I AM directed by the Comptroller and Auditor General to forward to you, for the information of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, copies of a correspondence which has taken place with the Accounting Officer of the National Gallery, Ireland, relative to a practice of dealing with the annual grants made to that institution.

The Comptroller and Auditor General is aware that this is a matter which will have to be brought before Parliament in his annual Report, and he would have especially called attention to it in that presented at the commencement of the present Session had he been in possession of the information which the facts now for the first time stated disclose. He, however, is unwilling to allow so great an interval to elapse and another financial year to open without bringing to the cognisance of their Lordships a practice which appears to him to result in an obvious evasion of the words and spirit of the Appropriation and Exchequer and Audit Departments Acts.

To the Secretary to the Treasury.

I have, &c.

Sir,

WITH reference to your reply to Query, No. 4, on the account of the Grant for the National Gallery, Ireland, 1877-78, it appears from the certificates furnished that with regard to one or more pictures purchased during the financial year 1876-77, the sums paid on account of such pictures were charged against the Grant for that year. I am directed by the Comptroller and Auditor General to point out to you that it is contrary to the Exchequer and Audit Departments Act, and to the regulations governing Appropriation Accounts, for an Accounting Officer to take credit as final charges mere imprests or advances, and further that the Committee of Public Accounts have, in their Report of 16th May 1877, at page 14, Article 91, expressed a decided opinion that in cases like the present the Accounting Officer should show the total cost of any purchases made within the year, even though by so doing he should exceed the amount or increase the deficit on his Vote for that year. I am therefore to request that you will state, for the information of the Comptroller and Auditor General, by whose authority you anticipate your Vote for the purchase of pictures, and spread the payments over the Votes of two separate years, and also that you will furnish him with a statement showing the acquisitions of the years 1876-77 and 1877-78, and the amounts paid and charged for each picture in each year.

Sir,

YOUR letter of the 8th ultimo, which I replied to informally on the 15th, and on the subject of which I had the honour of an interview with you on the 18th, has been under the consideration of the Board, and in answering it, I am directed to say that the arrangements for the purchase of pictures by which payments have been spread over one or more years, have been made with the vendors solely on the authority of the Board of Governors, and they are of opinion that any regulations, the enforcement of which would tend to fetter the liberty they have hitherto exercised in entering into such arrangements would in its working seriously impair the efficiency of this Department, and they trust some means may be found for continuing to them the exercise of the same liberty at their discretion.

The following are the particulars requested:

At the end of the year there was a balance of 495 l. due to Messrs. Christie, Manson, and Woods on account of the Van de Velde, and also 32 l. 9 s. for a small picture by Maas, and two portraits previously purchased.

The following were the acquisitions for 1877-78—

	£.	s.	d.
1. The Temple of Poestum, by David Roberts, R.A. - - - -	210	-	-
2. Napoleon and Pope Pius VII., by Sir David Wilkie, R.A. - - -	2,000	-	-
3. A Landscape by Stotell Roberts - - - - -	15	15	-

The D. Roberts was purchased from Mr. Graves on an agreement to pay for it in two instalments of 100 guineas each.

The D Wilkie upon an agreement with Messrs. Agnew, the payments to be spread over three years, at the convenience of the Board.

There will remain due at the end of the year 105 l. to Mr. Graves, and 1,700 l. to the Messrs. Agnew.

Sir,

Treasury Chambers, 18 May 1878.

IN reply to your letter of the 2nd ultimo, respecting the administration of the Vote for the Purchase of Pictures in the National Gallery, Ireland, Class IV., Vote 16, Sub-Head D., 1877-78, I am directed by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to inquire whether your attention has been directed to the same point in the administration of the Votes for the Department of Science and Art, C. 3; British Museum, D.; National Gallery, London, F.; National Portrait Gallery, D.

The question is one which appears to my Lords to be by no means free from difficulty, if these peculiar Votes are to be administered so as always to answer the object of them, without ever being open to the objections which you have taken.

The Comptroller and Auditor General.

Sir,

Exchequer and Audit Department,
6 June 1878.

I AM directed by the Comptroller and Auditor General to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 18th instant, inquiring whether his attention has been drawn to the question of extending the cost of purchase over more than one year in other Departments besides that of the National Gallery, Ireland, and, in reply, I am to state, for the information of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, that it has always been the practice of this Office to adhere strictly to the terms of the Exchequer and Audit Departments Act, which forbids any advance on account being admitted as a final charge against the Vote.

As regards the special cases suggested in your letter, I am to refer you to the Appropriation Accounts of the Grants for those Departments, from which it will be apparent that in those cases where no application has been made to Parliament for a Supplementary Grant to meet charges unforeseen when the Estimates were originally prepared, the excess on the special Sub-Head has always been shown in the Appropriation Account, and where there were Savings on other Sub-Heads the assent of their Lordships to the Excess being defrayed from such Savings has always been insisted upon. In this case, therefore, as well as when there has been a deficiency on the whole Vote, Parliament has been kept informed of the actual amount expended during the year, and that no engagements have been incurred by the executive in anticipation of any Parliamentary Grant.

The Comptroller and Auditor General is unable to assent to the arguments put forward by the Accounting Officer of the National Gallery, Ireland, nor can he approve of any deviation from the clear intentions of the Act of Parliament in the case of any one Department.

The Secretary to the Treasury.

I have, &c.

Sir,

Treasury Chambers, 8 July 1878.

WITH reference to your letter of the 6th ultimo, and previous correspondence relating to the practice of the National Gallery, Ireland, to extend the cost of purchases over more than one year, I am directed by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to observe that Parliament grants money for charges which come in course of payment during the year for which it is granted. If an article is bought and delivered upon the stipulation that payment shall be made in instalments, it appears to be rather difficult to maintain that the execution of such an agreement is an evasion of the provisions of the Appropriation and Exchequer and Audit Departments Acts.

O.12.

O O 4

CIVIL SERVICE ESTIMATES—CLASS IV.—*continued.*VOTE 16.—NATIONAL GALLERY OF IRELAND—continued.

The article having been delivered, there can be no doubt that the payments are actually due, and are final payments; and the condition of purchase being that payment shall be made on specified dates, it is clear that the payments made in accordance therewith must be charged against the Grants of the year in which those dates fall.

D. 1.

I am directed at the same time to enclose, for your information, a copy of a letter which my Lords have caused to be addressed to the Board of Governors of the National Gallery, Ireland.

The Comptroller and Auditor General.

I am, &c.
(signed) William Law.

(D. 1.)

(9551—78.)

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Treasury Chambers, 8 July 1878.

WITH reference to Mr. Doyle's letter of the 22nd of March last, addressed to the Comptroller and Auditor General, relating to the practice of your Department of extending the cost of purchases over more than one year, I am directed by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to transmit to you, for your information, copies of a letter which was addressed to this Board by the Comptroller and Auditor General on the 2nd of April last, and of a letter addressed to him by this Board this day.

A. D.

I am directed to inform you, however, that while my Lords recognise the possibility of cases occurring in which it may be desirable for you to acquire valuable works of art, the cost of which cannot be defrayed out of the sum available for that purpose in the financial year in which such works are offered for sale, they are of opinion that you should never incur any liability (when it can possibly be avoided) in excess of the sum voted by Parliament for the year, without first obtaining the sanction of this Board, and that, should it be an impossibility to take the previous pleasure of my Lords, the matter should be reported immediately afterwards.

The Governors of the National Gallery, Ireland.

I am, &c.
(signed) William Law.

(E.)

National Gallery of Ireland,
21 December 1878.

Sir,

I FIND some difficulty in replying to your letter of the 13th instant, calling my attention to the omission in my Appropriation Account of any explanation of the difference between the estimated amount of our Exchequer Extra Receipts and the sum actually realised within the year 1877-78. Those receipts being from their nature such as to admit of only an approximate guess at their probable amount, it seems to me that the difference between the sum of 50*l.*, inserted in the Estimate, and that of 53*l.* 12*s.* 7*d.*, if the receipts of the months of March 1877 are included; or of 51*l.* 16*s.* 3*d.*, if those of March 1878, the actual month of the financial year estimated for are taken, is so small, that it may have been occasioned by accidental circumstances impossible to trace.

Under these circumstances I hope I may be excused from attempting what I feel that I could not do with any pretence of accuracy.

The Comptroller and Auditor General.

I have, &c.
(signed) Henry Doyle.

REPORT OF THE COMPTROLLER AND AUDITOR GENERAL.

Excess.

1. THERE has been an excess of Expenditure under Sub-Head C.

Unauthorised payments.

2. Sub-Head C.—Under this Sub-Head are included two sums of 27*l.* 6*s.* for Examiners' Fees, and 3*l.* 3*s.* for Travelling Expenses, paid to President Moffatt for performing the duties of Dr. Johnstone Stoney while he was ill. As these allowances are extra to the authorised payments, the Accounting Officer has been requested to obtain the Treasury sanction, which he has stated he has applied for, but which has not yet been forwarded to this Department.

Extra Receipts.

The Accounting Officer has omitted to note on the Appropriation Account an explanation of the cause of the variation between the estimated and realised amount of Extra Receipts; but, in reply to a communication from this Department, he has stated that "the difference between the amount of Extra Receipts collected in 1878 and the estimated amount arose from the circumstance that the Estimate was based on the amount actually realised in the preceding year, and that the item, consisting of Fees paid on Degrees and Convocation Fees, is liable to much fluctuation, because it depends on the interest felt in the business which is brought before Convocation, and on the faculties in which candidates present themselves for Degrees."

CORRESPONDENCE referred to in the foregoing REPORT.

(D.)

(5502.)

Dublin Castle, 25 March 1878.

I AM directed by the Lord Lieutenant to acquaint you, for the information of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, that the amount of fees paid to the Professors of the Queen's College, Cork, has been this day received, amounting to 1,834 l. 10 s. This sum, together with 5,099 l. 19 s. already charged to Sub-Head E., Remuneration granted to Professors, &c., Queen's Colleges, Ireland, amounts to 6,934 l. 9 s., being 252 l. 9 s. in excess of the Vote 6,682 l. There is, however, a saving of 141 l. 1 s. 11 d. on Sub-Head D.

His Grace requests that you will move their Lordships to cause him to be informed, at their earliest convenience, whether the whole amount of the Cork Queen's College Account, viz, 1,834 l. 10 s., may be paid into Her Majesty's Exchequer as Extra Receipts, and charged to Sub-Head E., leaving a deficit of 111 l. 7 s. 1 d. in the total Vote, or 1,723 l. 2 s. 11 d. only, being the total of the balance of the Sub-Head E., and saving on the Sub-Head D. above-mentioned.

I am, &c.

(signed) T. H. Burke.

The Secretary, Treasury.

(E.)

(5246—78.)

Sir,

Treasury Chambers, 27 March 1878.

IN reply to Mr. Burke's letter of the 25th instant, as to the amount of Queen's College Professors' Fees that may be charged to the Queen's College Vote, 1877-78, Sub-Head E., I am directed by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to acquaint you, for the information of the Lord Lieutenant, that only so much should be charged to that Sub-Head as can be met out of the balance of the grant of 6,682 l., plus the anticipated saving of 141 l. 1 s. 11 d. on Sub-Head D.

My Lords gather from Mr. Burke's letter that this amount is 1,723 l. 2 s. 11 d.

I am to add, that the same rule was laid down in the Treasury Letter of 3rd April 1877.

I am, &c.

CIVIL SERVICE ESTIMATES—CLASS V.—*continued.*VOTE 1.—DIPLOMATIC SERVICES—continued.

EXPLANATION of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

A.—Acting allowances were paid at Constantinople, Darmstadt, and Washington, which, as the respective holders of those posts were absent on the public service, became chargeable to the Vote.

B.—Attributable partly to a depreciation in the currency at Tehran and St. Petersburg, and partly to the circumstance that some of the vouchers were dated April 1878, and have, consequently, caused the charge to fall on 1878–79.

C.—This expenditure varies with the exigencies of the service, and was rather under-estimated for.

D.—This is below the average.

E.—The cost of telegrams from Constantinople proved greater than was anticipated.

F.—Caused chiefly by charges for binding archives at Berlin and Madrid.

G., H.—Observation not considered necessary.

I.—An expenditure which was provided for at Madrid was not incurred.

K.—It was found necessary to incur some legal expenses at Rome and Rio de Janeiro which were not foreseen.

L.—Same as G.

M.—Caused by exceptional expenditure at Berlin. The expenditure at Constantinople was also above the average.

N.—The cost of the “Danube Navigation” and “Turco-Persian Boundary” Commissions, and of the Duke of Abercorn’s Mission to Rome, proved less than the amount provided for them.

O.—Same as G.

P.—Part of the salary attached to the Legation at Pekin lapsed during the absence of the minister on leave.

EXTRA RECEIPTS.—With the exception of that on account of Her Majesty’s Mission in Persia, the Extra Receipts specified in the Estimate have not yet been received. On the other hand, however, three years’ arrears on account of the Mission in China up to the 31st of March 1876, together with the balance of their share of the expenses of the Special Mission to Zanzibar, have been recovered from the India Office.

Note.—An allowance of 75 l. 5 s. 7 d. was paid from this Vote during the year to an Attaché for a knowledge of the Russian language, and a gratuity of 40 l. to a second Secretary from the Foreign Office Vote for extra work in that Department.

The Surplus of 3,739 l. 15 s. 11 d., shown on the Account of the Vote “Diplomatic Services,” for the year ended 31st March 1877, has been surrendered.

VOTE 1.

DIPLOMATIC SERVICES.

REPORT OF THE COMPTROLLER AND AUDITOR GENERAL.

Excess.

1. THERE has been Excess of Expenditure over the sums granted for the following Sub-Heads:

- A.—Salaries.
- C.—Journeys on Public Service.
- E.—Telegrams.
- F.—Printing and Stationery.
- H.—Fuel and Light.
- K.—Law Charges.
- M.—Incidental Expenses.
- O.—Outfits.

Sub-Head A.

2. Sub-Head A.—Salaries.—In the Estimate for the year 1877–78, a sum of 1,200 l. is provided as an allowance for the Ambassador's house-rent, but in consequence of an Embassy House having been secured and placed under the administration of the Office of Works, only one quarter's house allowance was charged against the Diplomatic Vote, the remainder being defrayed from Class I., Vote 23.

Subsequent, however, to the transfer of this charge to Class I., the cost of the hire of Chancery premises, viz., 150 l., being at the rate of 200 l. per annum, has been defrayed out of this Vote under the authority of the Treasury contained in their letter of 7th August 1877, a copy of which is annexed.

A.

Opinion on the above subject.

3. Without concurring in the grounds given for this decision, which I hold to be at variance with the principles of strict appropriation, I am of opinion that in any case a note should have been appended to the Appropriation Account explanatory of the course pursued, and showing that the allowance for the Chancery premises is supplemental to the provision made under Class I., Vote 23, for the Embassy Buildings at Rome.

Sub-Head M., want of uniformity.

4. On various occasions during the past two years I have called attention to the want of uniformity displayed in the present system of defraying the expenses and maintenance of Embassy and Consular buildings and gardens. The principle aimed at by the Treasury appears to be, that all small charges of the nature of tenant's repairs should not be defrayed out of the public funds, but by the occupant for the time being.

There may, however, be reasonable grounds for not applying this principle too rigidly to missions like Constantinople and Tehran, where the maintenance of the gardens involves a very considerable expense, and where they appear to be kept up in some measure for public objects as well as for the private convenience of the tenants.

Some difficulty has arisen in the examination of these accounts from the absence of sufficient information as to what part of the expenditure for repairs, maintenance of buildings, and gardens, &c., may be fairly considered chargeable to the public, and what portion should fall upon the occupiers.

It is necessary to observe that the expenditure for the maintenance of gardens has been defrayed out of the Vote for Diplomatic Services, whilst the charge for the maintenance of buildings has fallen upon the Vote administered by the Office of Works, the result being, that neither Vote shows the entire cost, and neither the Office of Works nor the Foreign Office is solely responsible for the maintenance of the property.

B. to I.

The correspondence which has taken place on this subject will be found attached.

Sub-Head N.

5. Sub-Head N.—Special Missions.—Under this Sub-Head, the amount charged against the Vote on account of the expenses of the Danube Navigation Commission, appears to me to be 1 l. 16 s. in excess of the sum payable on account of an apparent over-payment to the British Commissioner.

6. I have

6. I have also to call attention to the charge of 1,365 l. for the expenses of the Turco-Persian Frontier Commission. This sum was paid as an allowance to the British Commissioner under a Treasury sanction of 2nd March 1875. It appears, however, from the correspondence annexed, that Sir Arnold Kemball's civil duties were interrupted by the outbreak of the hostilities in the East, and that although his services have been retained, they have been rather of a military than of a diplomatic character; and inasmuch as the expenses of all other military commissioners at the head quarters of the belligerents have been charged against the Army Votes, I am unable to see any reason why Sir Arnold Kemball's expenses should not be similarly borne by the War Office. There is moreover this additional reason for this arrangement, that Sir A. Kemball has, during the past financial year, received certain sums from the War Office on account of the duties performed by him in Turkey, and it is an obvious advantage that all payments made on account of services of a similar nature should be defrayed out of the Vote for the same department.

Charge for expenses of Turco-Persian Frontier Commission.

J.

7. In addition to the pecuniary gratuities and allowances included in the list appended to the Appropriation Account, the following allowances for fuel and light, extra rent, &c., appear as charges against the Diplomatic Vote, the maintenance and repairs of the buildings being defrayed by the Office of Works out of Class I., Vote 23 :—

CORRESPONDENCE referred to in the foregoing REPORT.

(A.)

My Lord,

Treasury Chambers, 7 August 1877

I HAVE laid before the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury your letter of the 1st instant, stating that Lord Derby proposes to accept the offer made by Sir A. Paget to repay to the credit of the Diplomatic Vote the amount of the allowance for the rent of the British Embassy House at Rome, and for the premises occupied by the Chancery at the rent of 1,200 l. a year, which has been already issued to him for the June quarter last, and submitting that authority should be given to the First Commissioner of Works to pay to Sir A. Paget out of the Vote for "British Embassy Houses," &c., administered by him from 1st of April last, an allowance at the rate of 200 l. per annum on account of the hire of the Chancery premises.

In reply, their Lordships have directed me to state that, as the amount is only a temporary charge, which will terminate as soon as the Chancery is removed into the new Embassy House, they are of opinion that the preferable course will be to defray the amount of the rent out of the Diplomatic Vote.

Lord Tenterden, c.b.

ANSWER of the ACCOUNTING OFFICER.

6. It will be seen from the annexed copy of a Despatch that these petty repairs were sanctioned to prevent the Legation House from falling into a state of dilapidation.

Sir,
In reply to your Despatch, No. 4, Consular, of the 26th of January last, addressed to Earl Granville, I hereby sanction your having inserted as an item of charge in your Contingent Account for the year 1851, the sum of 170 Moorish ounces, or about 2 l. 0 s. 3 d., for repairs to the Government House at Tangiers.

I also authorise you to charge annually in your Contingent Accounts such small sums as may be expended by you in the minor repairs necessary to prevent that house falling into a state of dilapidation.

Sir,
WITH reference to Queries, No. 6, on the Diplomatic Vote, and No. 9, on the Vote for Consular Services for the year 1877-78, I am directed by the Earl of Derby to transmit to you a copy of a letter which was addressed to the Office of Works on the 10th ultimo in conformity with your desire, expressed in Mr. Soady's letter of the 30th of August 1877, that the Secretary of State should communicate with that Department as to the liability of Her Majesty's Minister in Persia for certain charges connected with the maintenance of the gardens, &c., at Tehran.

The Comptroller and Auditor General.

I am, &c.
(signed) F. B. Alston.

C. 1.

(C. 1.)

Foreign Office, 10 January 1878.

Sir,
I AM directed by the Earl of Derby to inform you that he has received from the Comptroller and Auditor General copies of a letter addressed by that officer to your Department on the 27th of July last, and of the answer returned thereto by direction of the First Commissioner of Works on the 22nd of August following, relative to the expense of maintaining the gardens and other work in connection with the Legation at Tehran.

In compliance with the request of the Comptroller and Auditor General that Lord Derby should communicate with the Office of Works as to the liability of Her Majesty's Minister in Persia for charges of the nature referred to in Mr. Callander's letter, I am to request that you will observe to the First Commissioner that the extensive grounds attached to the Mission at Tehran were chosen, not with a view to what would suffice for the accommodation of an English gentleman, but with reference to what would be suitable to the position of the representative of a great power in a country where so much depends, as in Persia, upon prestige and appearance, and that Lord Derby is accordingly of opinion that Her Majesty's Minister could not be expected to keep those grounds in order at his own charge.

As regards the transport of furniture and effects to Gulahek, it should be stated that the Mission, in transferring itself to that locality during the hot season, does so not only on sanitary grounds, but also in order to be close to the Persian Court, which quits town for that period. The Mission, therefore, may be said to proceed to Gulahek on the public service. Lord Derby understands that all business is transacted, and visits of ceremony exchanged in the respective country residences, and for these reasons it appears to his Lordship to be deserving of consideration whether, in place of removing the Mission furniture annually to and from Gulahek, new furniture should not be specially provided for that residence.

With respect to the cost of repairing the watercourse, to which reference is made in Mr. Callander's letter, I am to explain that the item of Tomans, 15 l. 9 s. 8 d., is an annual charge for clearing the watercourse of the old Mission premises at Tehran, which are still unsold. This watercourse passes through the town, and Lord Derby is informed that, unless it is periodically cleaned, the mud that accumulates therein would stop the passage of the water, and thus ruin the fine old trees, which form a very valuable portion of the property.

The Secretary to the Office of Works.

(D.)

Exchequer and Audit Department,
22 February 1878.

Sir,

I AM directed by the Comptroller and Auditor General to transmit to you, for the information of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, copies of a query addressed to the Accounting Officer of the Foreign Office, of his reply thereto, and of a Despatch dated 18th March 1852, addressed by the Earl of Malmesbury to the Minister resident at Tangier. It is, however, rather on the general question as to the liability of Her Majesty's representatives Abroad, Diplomatic as well as Consular, to keep in repair, at their own expense, their official residences, that I have to request you will move their Lordships to express their views for the guidance of the Comptroller and Auditor General in the examination of the accounts of the Diplomatic and Consular Service.

Their Lordships are doubtless aware that (except in the cases of the Ministers resident in South America) either official residences are provided for Her Majesty's Envoys Abroad, the cost of which is discharged out of Vote 23, Class I., administered by Her Majesty's Office of Works, or that an allowance for house rent is made and charged to the Diplomatic Vote.

In the case of Consular Officers, in most instances a money allowance in lieu of a house or office is provided. Certain pacific Consulates, however, are estimated for upon the Vote above mentioned, administered by the Office of Works; and moreover, Sub-Head M. is inserted for the "maintenance and repairs of various Consulates abroad."

In reply to a letter addressed to the Office of Works as the liability of the Votes administered by the Foreign Office to bear certain charges which appeared to the Comptroller and Auditor General to fall within the general scope of the duties and liabilities assignable to the Office of Works under the terms of a Sub-Head M., the Chief Commissioner replied in a letter, dated 21st August 1877, that in his opinion "the occupant of any Government residence should defray out of his own private resources the cost of what are recognised as tenant's repairs."

There would then appear in the case of the Government House at Tangiers a direct conflict between the views of Lord Malmesbury and of the Chief Commissioner of Works, and I am to request that you will move their Lordships for an expression of their views on this point.

I am at the same time to point out that the duties of the Comptroller and Auditor General, in the examination of these accounts, would be greatly facilitated were their Lordships to define under what circumstances the principle enunciated by the Chief Commissioner of Works is to be held applicable, to occupants of official residences, to officers in receipt of specific allowances for house and office rent, and to such as are in receipt of salaries which may be assumed to cover the cost of house rent without any reference being made thereto.

To the Secretary of the Treasury.

Sir,

Exchequer and Audit Office, 27 March 1878.

VARIOUS charges for petty repairs to offices and official residences of members of the Diplomatic and Consular Services appearing in the accounts, rendered by the Foreign Office to this Department, the sanction of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury for such a course was requested by the Comptroller and Auditor General. In Mr. Lingen's reply of 13th instant, a copy of which is herewith inclosed, reference is made to a list of the Consulates where petty repairs have been sanctioned, and transmitted to the First Commissioner of Works, I am directed to request that you will be good enough to furnish the Comptroller and Auditor General with a copy of the list referred to, accompanied with any observations which the Chief Commissioner may have to make upon the modification of the views expressed in Mr. Callender's letter of 22nd August last, from which it appeared that in the opinion of the Chief Commissioner such charges were, as a rule, incident on the tenants of all official residences.

To the Secretary of the Office of Works.

I have, &c.
(signed) H. Treherne.

(E. 1.)

Sir,

Treasury Chambers, 13 March 1878.

I HAVE laid before the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury Mr. Treherne's letter of the 22nd ultimo, in which he requests an expression of their Lordships' views for your "guidance in the examination of the accounts of the Diplomatic and Consular Services."

I am to state that, with every desire to do so, my Lords have found it impracticable to lay down a definite rule with regard to the expenditure to be defrayed by officers of the Diplomatic Corps and the Consular Services, in respect of residences provided for them at the public expense.

As a general rule the opinion given by the First Commissioner of Works, that "the occupant of any Government residence should defray, out of his own private resources, the cost of what are recognised as "tenants' repairs" is correct; and you are aware that when a house allowance is granted all expenditure is expected to be defrayed by the officer who receives it. The circumstances of the case, however, differ so frequently, that my Lords have been forced to consent to allow, in some instances, the cost of works which should otherwise fall upon the occupiers, to be defrayed out of public funds; and the First Commissioner of Works will be able to furnish you with a list of the Consulates where petty repairs have been sanctioned, which was received from the Foreign Office in 1876 and forwarded to him.

The Comptroller and Auditor General.

Sir,
Her Majesty's Office of Works, 11 April 1878.
In reply to Mr. Treherne's letter of the 27th ultimo, No. 375, I am directed by the First Commissioner of Her Majesty's Works, &c., to transmit to you the list of Consulates which accompanied the Treasury letter to this office of 10th August 1876.
In the current year's Estimates (as in last year's) a sum is included for repairs at those Consulates. In regard to reimbursing the occupants for expenses incurred in repairs, the Board would only consider themselves liable if the work was of the nature of landlord's repairs. It is a matter of no little difficulty sometimes to define exactly the point at which the liability of the Government as landlord would cease; but, speaking broadly, the rule prescribed in Mr. Callender's letter of the 22nd August last would be followed.
In the absence of any details as to the petty expenses alluded to you in your letter, the Board have no further remarks to offer.

(H. 1.)

Her Majesty's Office of Works,
18 May 1878.

Sir,

I AM directed by the First Commissioner of Her Majesty's Works, &c., to return to you, herewith, the vouchers which accompanied Mr. Treherne's letter of the 18th ultimo, No. 536, and I am to state, with reference thereto, that, with the exception of one item, the whole of the charges in connection with the Mission premises at Teheran should, in the Board's opinion, be borne by the occupants, or by those who enjoy the benefits of the garden, for the maintenance of which the expenditure was incurred.

The exception referred to is a charge of 9 tomans for the services of a gardener employed to superintend the laying out of the garden of the new Mission House. If, as the Board presume, this service refers to the original laying out of the garden after the erection of the house, the expenditure might, in their opinion, be fairly charged to the Vote administered by this Department.

The voucher for 50 l. 1 s. 3 d., in connection with the Embassy House at Constantinople, relates to expenditure for gardening operations of a similar character to that above mentioned at Teheran, and should, the Board consider, for the same reason, be paid by the occupant.

As regards the payments in respect of the Consular Buildings at Alexandria, amounting to the sums of 17 l. 13 s. 11 d. and 17 l. 6 s. 1 d. respectively, I am to observe that the Board are of opinion,—

1st. That the items of 12 l. 3 s. 3 d. and 13 l. 13 s. 11 d. included therein, are for services purely connected with the discharge of official duties, and as such are properly chargeable to the Foreign Office Vote.

2nd. That in the absence of any explanation as to the nature of the work for which the sums of 17 l. 13 s. and 17 l. 14 s. have been paid for garden expenses, the Board are unable to venture a decided opinion upon the question of the funds to which they should be charged; if, however, the gardens are not private, but belong to the offices, hospital, or prison, the expenditure should, no doubt, be defrayed by this Department.

3rd. That if the expenditure of 1 l. 6 s. 8 d. and 1 l. 8 s. 2 d. was for repairs to water-pipes connected with the offices, hospital, or prison, these sums should also be paid by this Department, together with a further sum of 10 s. for the repair of a bell and of a lock.

4th. That inasmuch as the expenditure for whitewashing and painting has heretofore been borne by this Board, they are at a loss to understand why the charge of 2 l. 11 s. for whitewashing the office corridors is included in this voucher.

5th. That no information is given in the voucher as to the building in respect of which the sum of 11 l. 17 s. 5 d. has been paid for water rates to enable the Board to determine the fund to which it should be charged; but that if it refers to the offices, hospital, or prison, the expenditure might reasonably be charged to the Vote administered by this Department.

I am at the same time to transmit to you, for your information, copies of a correspondence with the Treasury and with certain of Her Majesty's Embassies and Legations abroad, respecting the repairs of buildings, supply, and repair of furniture, and maintenance of gardens of a date subsequent to the letter to the Office of Works, of which a copy was enclosed in my letter of 12th of last February.

Sir,
THE Comptroller and Auditor General has forwarded to this office a copy of your letter to him of 13th May, stating that the First Commissioner of Works, &c., is prepared to defray out of the Votes administered by this Department certain items appearing in the accounts of this office furnished to the Audit Office, and I am accordingly directed by the Secretary of State to enclose a statement of the several items, amounting to 21 l. 4 s. 1 d., which he is prepared at once to claim repayment of, and in respect to which he requests that Mr. Noel will give directions for the proper transfers to be made as indicated in the Receivable Orders sent herewith.

It will be observed that no claim for garden expenses is included in this statement; and I am to request that you will suggest to Mr. Noel that if he was not satisfied with the opinion expressed in my letter of 10th January last, it would have been better if he had applied to the Secretary of State for further information before expressing so confident an opinion as to the propriety of the garden expenses at Constantinople and Teheran being borne by the "occupants," as he would, in that case, have learned that those expenses have always been charged to Foreign Office Votes, and, in the Secretary of State's opinion, are properly chargeable to public funds, and that the practice was distinctly recognised by the Treasury Minute of November 1871.

Sir,

Foreign Office, 29 June 1878.

I AM directed by the Secretary of State to request that you will state to the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury that your letter of the 10th of January, with its enclosure from the First Commissioner of Works, on the subject of the repairs to Embassy houses, and the supply and maintenance of furniture, having been transmitted in a Circular Despatch to certain of Her Majesty's Ambassadors and Ministers abroad, it has been thought advisable to collect the answers returned thereto, with a view to their being laid before the Board of Treasury for consideration.

In now transmitting printed copies of this correspondence, which it will be observed comprises a letter from this Department to the Office of Works of the 10th of January, I am to express the Secretary of State's conviction that a perusal of it will satisfy the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury that considerable and important modifications in the arrangements contemplated in Mr. Noel's report of the 28th November 1877 are demanded alike in the interests of the public service, and in justice to Her Majesty's Ambassadors and Ministers.

The Secretary of State would especially direct attention to the representations of Sir H. Layard and Mr. Taylour Thomson, in support of the opinion expressed in the letter from this Department of the 13th instant, and in my other letter of this date, as to the inexpediency of the instructions under which Mr. Boyce appears to be acting; and the Secretary of State cannot but regret that, seeing that the cost of the gardens at Constantinople and Teheran has hitherto been charged to this Department, and that he had before him my letter of the 10th of January, the First Commissioner should, without previous communication with him, have written to the Comptroller and Auditor General on the 13th of May to say that the expense should be borne by the occupants; neither can he reconcile this proceeding with the assurances given by the First Commissioner in his report of the 28th of November, "that there was no wish to press for any alteration as regards the advantages enjoyed by the present occupants of the various residences."

The Secretary to the Treasury.

I am, &c.

QUERY No. 20.

Description of the Voucher.	Query or Observation.
Special Missions, 1877-78. Turco-Persian Boundary Commission.	The allowance of 5 l. per diem to Sir A. Kemball, sanctioned by the Treasury Letter of 2nd March 1875, was in view of his service in connection with the settlement of the Turco-Persian Frontier. The services, however, rendered by Sir A. Kemball during the past year would seem, if the Comptroller and Auditor General's impression be correct, to be rather those incumbent on a British Military Commissioner at the head quarters of a belligerent power, and as such his expenses would, it is supposed, rather fall upon the Army Vote.

My Lord,

Treasury Chambers, 19 December 1876.

I AM directed by the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 30th November, inclosing for the approval of this Board the Estimate for the Diplomatic Service for the financial year 1877-78, amounting to the sum of 200,625*l.*

Before giving their sanction thereto, my Lords would be glad if Lord Derby would cause them to be informed why it is considered necessary to make any provision for the Turco-Persian Boundary Commission (Sub-Head N. of the Vote), as my Lords have reason to believe that Sir Arnold Kemball is at present employed elsewhere.

Lord Tenterden, c.b.

I am, &c.

(J. 2.)

Sir,
 IN reply to your letter of the 19th instant, I am directed by the Earl of Derby to request that you will state to the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury that the Turco-Persian Boundary Commission is not broken up. Advantage was taken of a temporary interruption in the work of that Commission to send Sir A. Kemball as Acting Commissioner to the head quarters of the Turkish Army in Servia, but as you were informed in my letter of the 27th of October his employment there is only temporary, and for that reason, and because of the importance of maintaining the Turco-Persian Commission in unimpaired vitality, it would not be desirable to abstain from making provision for that service in the Estimate. Sir A. Kemball will accordingly continue to draw his commuted allowance as Commissioner on the Turco-Persian Commission, and it will be seen from the accompanying copies of a letter to and from the War Office, that on that ground the War Office has been requested to provide for certain extra expenses only incurred by Sir A. Kemball in connection with his presence at the Turkish head-quarters. * * *

Foreign Office, 28 December 1876.

The Secretary to the Treasury.

I have, &c.
(signed) Tenterden.

(J. 3.)

Sir,
 I AM directed by the Earl of Derby to transmit to you the accompanying copy of a telegram from Her Majesty's Ambassador at Constantinople, asking how repayment should be made of certain expenses which Sir A. Kemball has incurred.

Foreign Office, 17 November 1876.

Sir A. Kemball, as the Secretary of State for War may probably be aware, is in receipt of an allowance from the Foreign Office for acting as British Commissioner for the Turco-Persian Boundary, but the expenses referred to in the telegram are those incurred in connection with his presence at the head quarters of the Turkish Army in Servia, and consequently chargeable to the War Office. I am to request that in laying Sir H. Elliot's telegram before Mr. Secretary Hardy, you will move him to cause Lord Derby to be informed whether Sir A. Kemball may be authorised to draw on Her Majesty's Paymaster General on account of the War Office, or whether Mr. Hardy will be prepared under the circumstances to make an imprest to Messrs. Coutts & Co., who are Sir A. Kemball's bankers.

The Under Secretary of State for War.

I am, &c.
(signed) Tenterden.

(J. 4.)

Sir,
 I AM directed by the Secretary of State for War to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 17th instant, and to acquaint you, in reply, that Sir A. Kemball should at the termination of his service as temporary Military Attaché at the head-quarters of the Turkish Army in Servia, forward to this office, for consideration, a claim showing the actual and necessary expenses incurred by him while acting in the above capacity.

War Office, 29 November 1876.

In the meantime a sum of 100*l.* will be advanced to his bankers, Messrs. Coutts & Co., on account of this service.

The Under Secretary, Foreign Office.

I have, &c.

EXPLANATION of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

- A.—Caused by lapses of salary on occasions of vacancies and leaves of absence.
 B.—Some of the additional allowances granted in consequence of the state of affairs in Turkey were charged to this Sub-Head.
 C. } These Excesses were also caused by the state of things in Turkey, which, as regards the latter Sub-Head, led to
 D. } a great increase in the expenditure for telegrams.
 E.—Observation not considered necessary.
 F.—The contributions for Marseilles and Leghorn did not come in course of payment within the period of this account.
 G.—The contribution to the Deaconess's Hospital at Alexandria for 1876, as well as that for 1877, fell on this account.
 This Sub-Head showed a Saving in 1876–77.
 H.—Caused chiefly by the state of things in Turkey.
 I.—This Sub-Head has been set up to meet the expenses down to the 31st of March last, of the new Establishment of Student Dragomans at Constantinople.
 J.—The partial reorganisation of the Service in China caused the Saving arising from lapses of salary on occasions of vacancies to be greater than usual.
 K.—This expenditure has been below the average. Rather less is taken for 1878–79.
 L. } Same as E.
 M. }
 N.—In the absence of Her Majesty's Minister there was less frequent necessity for sending telegrams.
 O.—Accounted for by the discontinuance of charges for freight on remittances of specie to Her Majesty's Consuls.
 P.—This expenditure is decreasing. Rather less is taken for 1878–79.
 Q.—Caused by a charge which was suspended in 1876–77.
 R.—Cannot be estimated for with precision.
 S.—The expenditure for salaries under this heading has been affected similarly to that in China, and particularly in the case of the Judgeship of the Supreme Court, the vacancy to which was not filled up till late in the financial year.
 T.—Same as K.
 U.—Caused by the payment of the outfit and passage of the new Judge to the Supreme Court.
 V.—This is above the average, some special expenditure having been necessary at the Legation at Yedo.
 W.—Same as E.
 X.—This expenditure is below the average. It is, perhaps, rather over-estimated.
 Y. } A diminution in the number of prisoners has caused the expenditure under these headings also to be below the
 Z. } average, the medicines and medical comforts necessary for prisoners being charged to the latter Sub-Head.
 A. A.—Same as R.

EXTRA RECEIPTS.—The sum due from Indian Revenues for one-third the net cost of Consular Expenditure in China in 1876–77 has not yet been received from the India Office. On the other hand, the arrears on this account for the three years up to the 31st of March 1876 have been recovered.

The Surplus of 5,794 l. 1 s., shown on the Account of the Vote "Consular Services," for the year ended 31st March 1877, has been surrendered.

VOTE 2.

CONSULAR SERVICES.

REPORT OF THE COMPTROLLER AND AUDITOR GENERAL.

Excess. 1. THERE has been Excess of Expenditure beyond the sums voted under the following Sub-Heads:—

GENERAL SERVICE :

- Sub-Head B.—Office Expenses and Rent.
- Sub-Head C.—Special Services, Outfits, &c.
- Sub-Head D.—Postage and Telegrams.
- Sub-Head G.—Hospitals.
- Sub-Head H.—Relief to Distressed British Subjects.
- Sub-Head I.—Student Dragomans.

SERVICES IN CHINA, &c. :

- Sub-Head M.—Printing and Stationery.
- Sub-Head Q.—Medical Attendance.

SERVICES IN JAPAN AND SIAM, &c.

- Sub-Head U.—Outfits and Travelling.
- Sub-Head V.—Printing and Stationery.

Sub-Head A. 2. Sub-Head A.—Under this Sub-Head is included a payment of 55*l.* 8*s.* 8*d.* to a second Secretary in the Diplomatic Service as Superintendent of the Student Dragomans at Constantinople, and a note to this effect should have been added to the Account.

Sub-Head E. 3. Sub-Head E.—With reference to my remarks on the payments for the repairs and maintenance of houses and gardens charged against the Diplomatic Vote, all similar charges against the Consular Vote have, at my instance, been recovered from the Vote taken by the Office of Works with the exception of the cost of maintaining a garden at Alexandria, referred to in the letter of 13th May 1878, annexed to my report on the Diplomatic Vote.

A. In connection with the same point I called the attention of the Accounting Officer in my letter dated 5th November 1878, annexed, to the want of uniformity in defraying expenditure incurred on account of the maintenance of British cemeteries abroad; but I have up to this time received no intimation that any change in the present system will be adopted.

Under this Sub-Head are also included certain payments at Alexandria, Constantinople, and Smyrna, for the supply of fuel and light, which, if chargeable against the public, should, in my opinion, be defrayed by the Office of Works.

Sub-Head H. 4. Sub-Head H.—The Accounting Officer has included in his charges under this Sub-Head the payment of certain hotel bills incurred by British subjects previous to their applying for relief.

Under the Act 6 Geo. 4, c. 87, s. 18, relief to distressed British subjects may be expended in pursuance of any rules laid down by the Secretary of State, or of any Orders in Council; but in the instructions, which are the only means of guidance afforded to Consuls, it is directed that payments to distressed British subjects are to be limited to cases of real and urgent distress, and are not available for persons who leave Great Britain either in speculative search of employment, or under engagements for work abroad. The annexed correspondence will show that it does not appear to be thought desirable to comply with the strict terms of the Act by issuing an Order in Council.

5. Sub-Head I.—This is a new Sub-Head inserted by the Accounting Officer under the authority conveyed in the Treasury letter of 13th June 1877, an extract from which is annexed. I think it right, however, to point out that in addition to the sum here charged, the salary of one Student Dragoman is paid out of Sub-Head A. of the Diplomatic Vote, as provided in the Estimates for that service, whilst the salary of the Superintendent is as referred to in paragraph 2 of this Report charged to both the Diplomatic and Consular Votes, but not to this Sub-Head in the Consular Vote.

of the Sub-Head, I am not prepared to concur in, although I have not felt it necessary

Exchequer and Audit Department,
5 November 1878.

Sir,

THE attention of the Comptroller and Auditor General having been called to a small charge for Telegrams included by the Consul at Odessa, in his Account (Sub-Head D., Voucher 31, September 1877), as having been incurred in connection with repairs to be done to the cottage of the guardian of the Crimean Cemeteries, I am directed to take this opportunity of bringing before the Marquess of Salisbury the whole question of these payments, and to request you to move his Lordship to take such steps as will establish a uniform system of charging payments of this nature.

Upon reference to the accounts rendered to this Department, it would seem that great diversity of practice obtains; for example, in the Ionian Islands and at Bayonne, the Sub-Head "Incidents," of the Consular Vote is charged with the maintenance and custody of the British Cemeteries, whilst at Tunis, Tripoli, and Barcelona, similar charges are defrayed out of the Sub-Head Chapels and Chaplains. It moreover appears that in the cases of cemeteries in the Bosphorus and at the Piræus the charges for the salaries of the custodians are paid from the Civil Contingencies, and the maintenance of the grounds from the Vote taken by the Office of Works, whilst the cost of maintenance of the cemeteries in the Crimea, heretofore divided between the Army Vote and the Office of Works, is in future to be borne wholly by the latter Department.

The charge incurred by Mr. Consul Stanley, above referred to, is of so trifling an amount (13 roubles), that the Comptroller and Auditor General would not have thought it necessary to raise any question as to its incidence on the Consular Vote (though it seems to him to fall more properly upon that taken by the Office of Works); but he is strongly of opinion that the time has now arrived when, after consultation with the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs should adopt, if possible, a uniform system.

Description of the Voucher.	Query or Observation.
Sub-Head H. Relief to D. B. S. Voucher 8, December, Bordeaux, 14 l. 3 s. 2 d. , includes Hotel bills, November, 98 francs 80 cents., December, 75 francs.	It is requested that a reference may be given to the Clause of the regulations under which relief is to be given to distressed British subjects, by which charges of this nature are to be defrayed by the public. (Vouchers enclosed.)

ANSWER of the ACCOUNTING OFFICER.

The Act 6 Geo. 4, c. 87, s. xviii, authorises the reimbursement to Consuls of sums expended by them in the succour and relief of distressed British subjects. In this particular case there was no alternative but to pay the hotel bills. The Consul seems, however, to have effected a reduction in the charges, from an estimated amount of 18*l.* to 14*l.* 3*s.* 2*d.*

Exchequer and Audit Department,
6 August 1878.

Sir,

THE Comptroller and Auditor General has under consideration your reply to Query, No. 58, on the account of the Grant for Consular Services, 1877-78, relative to the payment of certain hotel bills incurred by Mr. Ferguson Gilbert, and charged against the Vote as Relief to Distressed British Subjects. In reply, I am directed to inform you that the Comptroller and Auditor General is unable to perceive how charges of this nature fall within the scope of the clause of the Act referred to, and he is of opinion that expenditure of this character should be referred to and sanctioned by the Treasury before being charged against the Parliamentary Vote. As, however, it may happen that the Consul at Bordeaux has in this case acted in conformity with instructions contained in an Order of Council, issued subsequent to the First Report of the Committee of Public Accounts in Session 1871, apparently contemplated in para. xviii, page vi. of that Report, I am to request that you will be good enough to furnish the Comptroller and Auditor General with a copy of any such Order in Council, in order that he may apply a more satisfactory test to the charges included from time to time under this Sub-Head of the Vote.

F. B. Alston, Esq., Foreign Office.

I have, &c.
(signed) C. A. de Valmer.

(D.)

Sir,

Foreign Office, 6 December 1878.

IN reply to Mr. de Valmer's letter of the 6th of August, I am directed by the Marquess of Salisbury to state to you that no Order in Council has been issued laying down rules for the relief of distressed British subjects.

I am further to state that it has been the practice of this office from time to time to consult the Treasury in special cases, as, for instance, with regard to the relief to be afforded to British subjects thrown into distress through the war in Turkey, and that there would be no objection on the part of the Secretary of State to referring all cases in future to the Treasury should you be of opinion that such a course would be desirable; but with regard to an Order in Council, I am to refer you to the evidence of the Treasury Officer of Accounts before the Select Committee on Public Accounts in 1871, in which it was pointed out that it was better to leave these regulations to the direction of the Treasury than to attempt to embody them in an Order in Council, and I am to say that in that opinion Lord Salisbury concurs.

The applications for relief are made under circumstances of an ever-varying character, and refuse to admit of strict classification; and his Lordship considers that it would be very undesirable to fetter the discretion of the responsible authorities in dealing with them by stringent and not always applicable rules laid down in an Order in Council.

The Comptroller and Auditor General.

I AM directed by the Marquess of Salisbury to transmit to you, for your information, a copy of the answer which has been returned by the Treasury to the letter from this office, enclosing copies of the late correspondence between your Department and myself with regard to the necessity of an Order in Council for authorising the expenditure incurred in the relief of distressed British Subjects.

My Lord,

Treasury Chambers, 8 January 1879.

IN reply to your letter of the 6th ultimo, enclosing copies of correspondence with the Comptroller and Auditor General respecting the necessity for an Order in Council for authorising the expenditure incurred in the relief of distressed British Subjects abroad, I am directed by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to acquaint you that my Lords entirely agree with the Secretary of State in the views which he has expressed in his letter of the 6th December 1878 to the Comptroller and Auditor General.

The Votes taken in the current Estimates for this relief are of very modest amount, 800*l.* in all, including both the General Diplomatic and Consular Services, as well as the special branches in China and Japan.

My Lords have no reason to complain of anything connected with the administration of these Votes; and they are convinced that any attempt to regulate them beyond the point at which they are now regulated by usage and official precedent would not promote economy, and would raise without any practical necessity to do so, many most difficult questions.

The Lord Tenterden, K.C.B., Foreign Office.

My Lord,

Treasury Chambers, 13 June 1877.

I HAVE laid before the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury Lord Derby's letter of the 21st ultimo, in which he proposes that the Diplomatic Establishment of Dragomans at Constantinople should be amalgamated with the Consular, and that the admission to this service should be by open competition only; that with this view a certain number of student Dragomans should be appointed at once, with salaries of 200*l.* per annum each, with lodgings and instruction, and to be under the superintendence of one of the members of Her Majesty's Embassy, who should receive an annual allowance, and that in order to meet a portion of the increased expenditure which will be incurred, the salary of the Archivist should be reduced to 250*l.*, and the offices of the second and of the student Dragomans, with salaries of 650*l.* and 250*l.* per annum respectively, should be abolished.

They also approve of the appointment of six student Dragomans, with salaries of 200*l.* each, lodging and instruction, to be found them at the public expense, and also of an allowance at the rate of 300*l.* to Mr. Baring for superintending the instruction of the students, on the understanding that steps will be taken at once for reducing the salary of the Archivist, and abolishing the present offices of the second and student Dragoman.

The Under Secretary of State, Foreign Affairs.

I am, &c.

(G.)

Sir,

Foreign Office, 20 November 1877.

I AM directed by the Earl of Derby to transmit to you the accompanying correspondence as marked in the margin, from which it will be observed that there is some difference of opinion between this office and the Office of Works as to the Vote which should in certain cases bear the lodging expenses of Consular Officers in China and Japan after their arrival at the port to which they have been appointed, until the quarters assigned to them are ready for occupation.

The correspondence fully sets forth the circumstances under which the expenses were incurred, and as there is no question as to the expenditure having been properly disbursed on the public service, Lord Derby would feel obliged if you would favour him with your views on the point at issue.

The Comptroller and Auditor General.

I am, &c.
(signed) F. B. Alston.

(G. 1.)

With the exception of the following Extract, the Correspondence referred to in Mr. Alston's Letter is not printed, as its nature is sufficiently indicated by the subsequent Correspondence resulting from it.

EXTRACT of Despatch from Sir H. Parkes to the Earl of Derby, dated 11th April 1877.

It appears to me that all lodging expenses properly incurred by an officer after his arrival at his post, and when he has, therefore, ceased to travel, are clearly chargeable to the Vote for Rent, and that his account for travelling expenses should be closed as soon as he arrives at his post.

(H.)

Sir,

Exchequer and Audit Department,
27 November 1877.

I AM directed by the Comptroller and Auditor General to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 20th instant, and its enclosures, relative to the charge for lodging expenses incurred by Consular Officers in China and Japan after their arrival at the port to which they have been appointed until the quarters assigned to them are ready for occupation; and I am to acquaint you, for the information of the Earl of Derby, that the Comptroller and Auditor General concurs in the views taken by his Lordship that all such charges should be defrayed out of the Vote taken by the Office of Works, Class I., Vote 25.

It appears to the Comptroller and Auditor General that, in addition to the irregularities which might arise from an officer including in his travelling expenses lodging charges incurred after the conclusion of his journey, there would be no advantage to the public, but decided inconvenience to the Accounting Officer and to the Examiners in this Department, if distinctions such as those raised by the Office of Works were once admitted as forming a sufficient ground for inserting charges so similar in character in the accounts of two Departments of the State, both drawing their funds from the same ultimate source.

The Comptroller and Auditor General therefore altogether endorses the views expressed by Sir Harry Parkes, and trusts that in future all expenditure of this nature in China and Japan may be classified in accordance with the definite principle laid down in his Despatch of 11th April 1877.

I AM directed by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to transmit to you the accompanying copies of a correspondence which has taken place between the Foreign Office, the Office of Works, and this Department, relative to the repayment to Consular Officers in China and Japan of hotel expenses incurred whilst removing from one station to another, and to state, with reference thereto, that my Lords are disposed to concur in opinion with the First Commissioner of Works "that where there exists at the port to which an officer is sent a residence, whether permanent or hired (the rent of the latter "latter being paid by the Works Department), the claim for hotel expenses incurred whilst waiting to enter upon the occupation of such residence, is fairly chargeable to the Vote administered by the Office of Works, provided that the delay in taking possession be in any way attributable to the action of the Works officers;" and to consider that any other expenditure which may be authorised by the Secretary of State as having been incurred by a Consular Officer on this account, should be charged to the Vote administered by the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs. With regard to the objection entertained by you to such expenditure being charged to Sub-Head I. "Travelling," of the China Consular Vote, my Lords would suggest whether this might not be obviated by adding to the Sub-Head words to this effect: "Expenses contingent on Removal, or taking up Appointments."

The Comptroller and Auditor General.

(I. 1.)

Her Majesty's Office of Works,
12, Whitehall-place, S.W., 13 March 1878.

My Lords,
I beg leave to acquaint your Lordships that a question presenting some difficulties has arisen between the Foreign Office and this Department, as to the liability of this Board to repay to certain Consular Officers in China and Japan the amount of hotel expenses incurred by them whilst removing from one station to another.

In dealing with such claims, this Board have laid down the principle that, where there exists at the port to which an officer is sent a residence, whether permanent or hired (the rent of the latter being paid by this Department), the claim for hotel expenses incurred whilst waiting to enter upon the occupation of such residence is fairly chargeable to the Vote administered by this office, provided that the delay in taking possession be in any way attributable to the action of the Board's officers, where, however, there being no official residence, an officer on landing at the port of his destination becomes entitled to a fixed allowance in lieu of lodging, the Board hold that no claim for hotel expenses should be made against them, it being immaterial to them whether the officer in question provides himself with a house or lives at an hotel. It should be noted that the hotel charges include board, and in some cases wine.

In accordance with these principles the Board consented, in December 1875, to certain hotel expenses incurred in 1873 by Mr. Annesley and by Mr. and Mrs. Troup being charged to Sub-Head A., Rents, of the Vote for Legation and Consular Buildings administered by this Department, inasmuch as the expenses in question had been incurred after the officers had arrived at their respective stations, and because the Board's officer was not yet in a position to find them the accommodation to which they were entitled.

In February 1876, however, a claim of 35 dollars was made upon this Department by the Foreign Office, on behalf of Mr. Hodges, for reimbursement of expenses incurred at the Occidental Hotel, at Nagasaki, in June 1874, whilst waiting for quarters; this claim stands on a totally different footing.

The Board did not consider that they were liable to defray this charge, inasmuch as Mr. Hodges, upon reaching Nagasaki, became entitled to a lodging allowance of 40 dollars a month, and they were, therefore, of opinion that either that portion of his hotel expenses, which is for lodging only, should be covered by this allowance, or that the whole should be included in his claim for travelling expenses, against the Foreign Office.

In October 1876 a further claim of 52 dollars 40 cents. was made upon this Department by the Foreign Office, for hotel expenses incurred by Mr. Cooper, at Shanghai, where he was for some time detained pending the vacation of the Interpreter's quarters, at that time occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Jamieson.

The delay which Mr. Cooper experienced in obtaining possession was attributable to circumstances altogether beyond the control of the Board, and of which they had no cognisance; and they were of opinion that any claim for expenses incurred on that account should clearly come under the head of Travelling Expenses, payable by the Foreign Office, and should not be allowed to be a charge against the Vote accounted for by this Department, otherwise the Board would have been paying for the accommodation of an officer for whom a house was provided.

The Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs maintains that there is no real difference between the various cases above referred to, and that they all equally partake of the nature of rent or lodging allowance, and are payable by this Department. Sir Harry Parkes, moreover, to whom the case of Mr. Hodges has been referred, observes that it appears to him that all lodging expenses properly incurred by an officer after his arrival at his post, and when he has therefore ceased to travel, are clearly chargeable to the Vote for Rent, and that his account for travelling expenses should be closed as soon as he arrived at his post.

Having regard to the difference of opinion between the two Departments, the Earl of Derby thought it best to place the whole correspondence on the subject before the Comptroller and Auditor General, with the view of eliciting that officer's opinion as to the Vote on which the expenses should properly be borne.

The Comptroller and Auditor General states that he concurs in the view taken by the Earl of Derby, that all such charges should be defrayed out of the Vote taken by this Department.

He further states that it appears to him that, in addition to the irregularity which might arise from an officer including in his travelling expenses lodging charges incurred after the conclusion of his journey, there would be no advantage to the public, but decided inconvenience to the Accounting Officer, and to the Examiners in the Exchequer and Audit Department, if distinctions such as those raised by this Board were once admitted to be a sufficient ground for inserting charges, so similar in character, in the accounts of two Departments of the State, both drawing their funds from the same ultimate source.

I am still of opinion, however, that the claims in question, which, as I have pointed out above, include a charge for board, partake more of the nature of an allowance for subsistence than of an allowance for lodging, and are not fairly chargeable to the Vote administered by this Department, which is only concerned to provide accommodation, or an allowance in lieu thereof.

If the view of the Foreign Office and the Exchequer and Audit Office is correct, as the regulations stand at present, an officer might indefinitely prolong his stay at an hotel at the public expense, and unless some very strict rules were laid down great abuse might ensue.

In the circumstances I have no alternative but to submit the whole question for your Lordships' consideration, and to request your instructions thereon.

The Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners
of Her Majesty's Treasury.

I am, &c.
(signed) Gerard Noel.

(I. 2.)

Sir,
I AM directed by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to transmit herewith a copy of a letter, dated the 13th instant, from the First Commissioner of Works, relative to a question of the liability of the Board of Works to repay to certain Consular Officers in China and Japan the amount of hotel expenses incurred by them whilst removing from one station to another; and I am to request that you will lay the same before the Earl of Derby, and move his Lordship to favour my Lords with his observations thereupon.

The Under Secretary, Foreign Office.

Treasury Chambers, 20 March 1878.
I am, &c.
(signed) William Law.

(I. 3.)

Sir,
In compliance with your letter of the 20th ultimo, respecting the liability of the Office of Works to repay, in certain cases, the hotel expenses of Consular Officers moved from one station to another, I am directed by Her Majesty's Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs to request that you will state to the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury as follows:—

Members of the Consular Service, in China and Japan, are provided with quarters in two different ways: either they are assigned a house or apartment, the property of, or provided by, the Government, or they receive an allowance, out of which they provide quarters for themselves. In the latter case the choice, as the Board of Treasury can well imagine, is very limited, so much that the incoming officer in practice almost necessarily takes over the house, or apartments, occupied by his predecessor. It has happened, in the case of quarters provided by the Government, that the house was not ready when the officer reached his post; so also in the case of quarters provided out of the allowance, it has happened that those were not vacated at the actual moment of the officer's arrival. In either case it is necessary the officer should be housed during the interval, and the only practicable arrangement is to send him to an hotel; the Office of Works admits its liability in the one case, but objects to do so in the other. There is, however, no practical difference between the two cases, and whatever be the rule in the one should be the rule in the other also. It would be most inconvenient to charge the former to Class I., and the latter to Class V.; and the Comptroller and Auditor General has very properly objected to the latter being charged as expenses of travelling.

The First Commissioner points out that the claims in question include a charge for board, and he observes that, as the regulations stand, an officer might prolong his stay at an hotel indefinitely. It is not asserted that such an abuse has actually occurred, or is likely to occur, and the contingency is so improbable in view of the supervision exercised, as hardly to merit consideration; but so far as the Office of Works may think it necessary that such a contingency should be provided against by regulation, Her Majesty's Secretary of State will be quite ready to consider with the First Commissioner what further regulation should be adopted; but it must be borne in mind that in a service so peculiar, and carried on under such trying conditions as that of the Consular Establishments in China and Japan, the application of an absolutely fixed rule may become at times impracticable. In such cases something must and ought to be left to the judgment of the officers in charge. The claims objected to by the Office of Works are believed not to be excessive, and as they occur at unfrequent intervals, Her Majesty's Secretary of State considers that they may be safely left to be settled by the officer of the Department of Works, in communication, as the case may be, with Her Majesty's Minister at Peking or Yedo. An officer should not be allowed to put up at an hotel if he finds quarters ready for him on arrival, but if these are under repair, or are temporarily occupied by some other officer retained at his post on public grounds, there is no alternative but to send the newly-arrived officer to an hotel till some other arrangement can be made.

The Secretary to the Treasury.

I am, &c.
(signed) Julian Pauncefote.

(I. 4.)

My Lords,
In returning to your Lordships herewith Sir Julian Pauncefote's letter of the 2nd instant, referred to me by Mr. Cole's Minute of the 5th instant, I beg leave to state that I see no reason for making any addition to my report to your Lordships on the 13th ultimo, which clearly sets forth the points at issue between this Department and the Foreign Office.

The question, therefore, which I must leave to your Lordships' decision is, whether this Department can be fairly called upon to defray the hotel expenses of Consular Officers, (1) when their stay at an hotel is dependent upon circumstances altogether beyond the possible control of this Board, or (2) when such officers are in receipt of a lodging allowance, which dates, as this Department presumes, from the day on which the officers report themselves at their respective stations.

In the first case your Lordships must bear in mind that this Board have no control over the movements of the officers, nor can they take any steps towards causing the occupant of a residence to vacate the same in sufficient time to admit of its being available for his successor.

In the latter case it seems to me that the lodging allowance is intended to cover all expenses, and that, as I have already pointed out to your Lordships, if it is issued to an officer on reporting himself at a station, his subsequent residence, whether at an hotel or otherwise, is solely a matter for his own consideration, and that this Department should certainly not be called upon to defray any expenses for lodging or board which he may incur.

The Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners
of Her Majesty's Treasury.

I am, &c.
(signed) Gerard Noel.

(J.)

Sir,

Exchequer and Audit Department, 10 May 1878.

I AM directed by the Comptroller and Auditor General to acknowledge the receipt of Mr. Law's letter of the 30th ultimo, enclosing copies of a correspondence with the Office of Works and Foreign Office, relative to the incidence of the charge for the repayment of hotel expenses incurred by Consular Officers removed from one port to another.

The Comptroller and Auditor General, having fully expressed his view upon the point under discussion between the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs and the Chief Commissioner of Works, does not consider it necessary to repeat the reasons which led him to the conclusion expressed in his previous letter to the Foreign Office; but as Mr. Noel, in his letter of the 13th March last, seems to ground his objection to the payment out of the Vote administered by his Department, of the lodging allowance to Consular Officers after their arrival at their ports of destination, on the fact that hotel expenses (it is presumed in the sense of charges for board and wine) are mixed up in such charges, the Comptroller and Auditor General directed the re-examination of this Sub-Head of the Consular Vote, for the past two years, with the view of discovering whether any such charges had been passed, either by the Foreign Office or by this Department, without challenge or special authority.

The enclosed statement will show that, with the single exception of Mr. Mongan, who was temporarily in charge of the Chefoo Consulate for 24 days only, no such mixed charge has ever been allowed against the Consular Vote, nor would the examiners in this office feel themselves authorised to pass any such expenditure without specific sanction. Under these circumstances the Comptroller and Auditor General cannot but think that the contention of the Chief Commissioner, that the hotel and lodging expenses are mixed up together, is not borne out by facts, as is shown in the enclosed statement, and that the Consular Vote bears all maintenance charges when properly authorised. The Comptroller and Auditor General, therefore, while regretting that their Lordships should not concur with him, cannot but retain the opinion that the plan proposed by the Foreign Office is that most in consonance with the principles of correct appropriation of the Votes.

To the Secretary of the Treasury.

I have, &c.

Sir,

Treasury Chambers, 8 June 1878.

I AM directed by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to transmit to you, for your information, the accompanying copy of a Minute of this Board, dated the 6th instant, on the subject of the charges for hotel expenses incurred by Consular Officers in China and Japan, on their removal from one station to another.

The Comptroller and Auditor General.

I am, &c.
(signed) William Law.

K. 1.

(K. 1.)

COPY OF TREASURY MINUTE, dated 6th June 1878.

MY Lords have before them communications from the First Commissioner of Works, the Assistant Secretary at the Foreign Office, and the Auditor General, on the subject of the charges for hotel expenses, incurred by Consular Officers in China and Japan, on their removal from one station to another.

The First Commissioner, while willing to admit that when the rent of an official residence, whether permanently or temporarily hired, is paid by his Department, such expenses should be defrayed from the Vote under his control, provided that the delay in taking possession is due to the action of the officers of his Department, maintains that, where there is no official residence, but that the officer receives a fixed allowance in lieu thereof, no claims should be preferred against his Department, especially as hotel charges include board, and in some cases wine.

The Foreign Office and the Auditor General contend that there is no practical difference between the two cases which are referred to by the First Commissioner of Works, that it would be very inconvenient to divide the expenditure on this account between the Votes under the control of the Secretary of State (Class V.), and of the First Commissioner of Works (Class I.); and that the contention of the latter that hotel expenses frequently include a charge for board and wine, is scarcely borne out by facts, and would be easily detected by the examiners in the Audit Office.

It appears to my Lords that the chief difficulty has arisen by including under Sub-Head B., China Rents, Vote 21, Class I., not only all rents actually paid by the officers of the Department of Works, but also the allowances given in lieu of residences to Consular Officers; and they are of opinion that a distinction should be made between these charges, the former, i.e., the rents actually paid by the Department of Works being alone provided for in Class I., but any allowance given in lieu of residence being provided in Class V., Vote 2, China and Japan, either under a separate Sub-Head, or by an addition to the wording of one of the present Sub-Heads.

EXPLANATION of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

- A.—This Saving occurred under the head of Coast Guard Establishment, part of the expenditure under that head being of a variable character.
G.—Owing to a change in the Administration of the Government, half-salary was saved for a short period.
I.—Same as G.
K.—The saving arises from payment of salary for a short period at a reduced rate.
M.—A saving occurred from payment of half-salary only, for Grenada, for a short period, and three-quarters only of the salaries of the Private Secretary and Clerks of the Governor in Chief of the Windward Islands came in course of payment in the year. Some trifling amounts of salary also were not drawn, at St. Vincent and Tobago, at the usual periods.
O.—In consequence of the uncertainty which exists as to the changes which may occur in any year in the appointment of Colonial Governors, &c., it is impossible to estimate with confidence the requirements under this head of service. (There was a Supplementary Estimate in this case.)
P.—The stipend of the Presbyterian Minister at Argenteuil was not claimed; and only nine months of a Widow's Pension came in course of payment in the year. On the other hand, a small balance of a Pension was paid earlier than had been anticipated.
Q.—Rounding of Estimate.

NOTES of EXTRA REMUNERATION in addition to those which appeared in the Estimate.

- G.—Bermudas.—Colonel W. L. Morrison, who administered the Government from 10 May to 9 August 1877, receiving half salary, drew from Army Funds per diem, Pay at 26 s.; Extra Pay at 25 s. 10 d.; Command Pay, 10 s., and Servant's Allowance 3 s. Major General Sir R. M. Laffan, Governor, who received half salary from 26 June to 9 August 1877, and full salary after that date, drew from Army Funds, Unattached, Pay at 26 s. per diem.
I.—Western Australia.—Colonel Harvest, who administered the Government on half salary from 7 September to 11 November 1877, drew from Army Funds as Commandant, Rations Allowance, 2 s. 4½ d., and Forage Allowance, 2 s. 7 d. per diem; and as Staff Officer of Pensioners, Consolidated Pay, 12 s. 11 d. per diem; Command allowance, 2 s. 6 d. per diem; and allowance on account of high price of provisions 3 s. per diem.
M.—Windward Islands.—Major Palmer, who received 25 l. 2 s. 9 d. for acting as Aide de Camp to the Governor in Chief from 1 April to 31 May 1877, drew from Army Funds per diem, Pay, 15 s.; Extra Pay, 15 s.; Servant's Allowance, 3 s.; Forage Allowance, 2 s. 6 d.; and Charge Pay, 5 s. And Lieutenant B. Cary, who received 6 l. 2 s. 3 d. for acting in a similar capacity from 17 to 31 December 1877, drew from Army Funds, Pay, 11 s. 7 d. per diem, and Servant's Allowance, 1 s. 6 d. per diem.

EXTRA RECEIPTS, £. 30,516. 0. 5.—These Receipts could not be foreseen by this Department when the Estimate was prepared; 15,516 l. 0 s. 5 d. of the amount was received from the Government of South Australia, in repayment of an amount which had been advanced by the Imperial Government (1842 to 1846) to meet interest on Bonds, &c. The remaining 15,000 l. was repaid by the Gold Coast Government on account of the advance of 35,000 l. in aid of local revenue, which was made by Parliament in 1874-75, on the understanding that it should be repaid if Colonial Funds should become available for the purpose.

The Surplus of 565 l. 18 s. 2 d., shown on the Account of the Vote "Grants in Aid of Expenditure in certain Colonies," for the year ended 31st March 1877, has been surrendered.

6 The Grant in Aid for this Government was 1,500 l.

The Local Revenue has been 160 l. 7 s. 7 d., and the Local Expenditure 1,277 l. 3 s. 4 d.

The accounts, however, sent to my Department for examination refer only to 1,000 l. of the Parliamentary Grant, and certain rents, &c., and the expenditure met from these sources.

In my Report on the Grants for 1876–77, I stated that I had reason to hope that for the future the accounts would exhibit the whole of the receipts and expenditure of the Island.

The subject has been under the consideration of the Colonial Office and the Treasury, but no decision appears to have been yet made respecting the details of the account to be sent to my Department for examination.

An Abstract of the Account rendered for the year 1877–78 is appended.

GENERAL ANNUAL ABSTRACT of Account Current of Lieutenant Colonel Sir H. Fitzhardinge Maxse, Governor of Heligoland, from 1st April 1877 to 31st March 1878.

THE FALKLAND ISLANDS.

7. The Grant for this Government was 3,500 l.

Falkland Islands.

The Local Revenue was 1,932 l. 13 s. 8 d.

The Expenditure was 5,525 l. 4 s. 3 d.

In my Report upon the "Grants in Aid," for the year 1876–77, I referred to a Statement of Assets and Liabilities sent from the Colony, which exhibited an excess of Liabilities over Assets amounting to 4,290 l. 15 s. 4 d. on 31st March 1877.

Many of the loans raised by the late Governor to carry on the service of the Colony, and which were the chief cause of this excess of liabilities, have now been paid off, and the debts of the Colony may, it is stated in a letter addressed from the Colonial Office to the Treasury, on the 12th November last, be taken roughly at 2,662 l.

An Abstract of the Receipts and Expenditure for the year 1877 is appended, but it does not accurately represent the Revenue and Expenditure of the Colony, in consequence of a system which had been allowed to exist of "cross entries" in the accounts between the Colony and the local merchants, under which as few cash payments as possible took place on either side. This system was put a stop to in May last by the present Governor, and I have reason to expect that from that date the accounts will be rendered to my Department in a more satisfactory manner.

Stanley, 1 April 1878.

I hereby certify that the foregoing is correct to the best of my knowledge and belief.

G. Trarice, Colonial Treasurer.

R E M A R K S.

(a) The Revenue under the heads of Customs and Rents of Crown Lands, appears in the foregoing Abstract to be considerably under the amounts estimated for. However, there were arrears of Customs on 31st December 1877, amounting to 1,012 l. 7 s. 6 d., and Rents of Crown Lands amounting to 1,313 l. 14 s. 4 d. The Revenue from Customs and Rents of Crown Lands has hitherto been paid very slowly and irregularly. Certain items of expenditure do not appear in this Abstract, while other items appear to have been over-estimated; this arises from the fact that the Colonial Government, on the 31st December last, the following amounts, viz.:—For Conveyance of Mails, 1,000 l.; Royal Marine Rations, 607 l. 9 s. 2 d.; Purchase of Stores and Materials, 363 l. 12 s. 1 d.; and Police and Galls Expenses, exclusive of Establishments, 86 l. 15 s. 5 d.; altogether amounting to 2,057 l. 17 s. 8 d.

(b) Of the item 3,038 l. for Parliamentary Grant, 138 l. belonged to grant for 1876-7; the balance 3,000 l., being the amount voted for 1877-8, which had to be drawn for by 31st December 1877, as explained in Despatch to Secretary of State, No. 2, of 1st January 1878.

(c) The receipts 200 l., under the head of Sale of Crown Land, received by the Crown Agents, is the amount deposited by the Falkland Islands Company, in exchange for Land Orders issued by the Emigration Commissioners, for the purchase of land in the Falklands, the holders of which are entitled to nominate certain persons for free passages to this Colony.

(d) This interest was received by the Crown Agents, on the Exchequer Bills held by them on behalf of this Colony, for immigration purposes.

(e) Proceeds of the Sale of Exchequer Bills, held by the Crown Agents to defray cost of immigration expenses.

(f) This expenditure is defrayed by the Crown Agents out of the cash deposited for the purchase of land in the Falklands.

The balance in the hands of the Receiver General, as given in his account on 31st December 1877, was 2,671 l. 3 s. 6 d. The difference of 214 l. 6 s. 5 d. is due to various disallowances on the Accounts of 1876 and 1877.

The Assets and Liabilities of the Colony on the 31st December 1877 are shown in the annexed statement, from which it will be seen that on the 31st December 1877 the estimated excess of Liabilities over Assets was 156,700 l.

In the Liabilities is included a sum of 80,000 l., which, it is stated, represents the indebtedness of the Colony at the date of the cession of the Islands to the Crown.

The particulars of this debt are stated at length in the Parliamentary Papers noted in the margin. To meet these liabilities and extraordinary expenses connected with the first establishment of the Government, an Ordinance was passed on the 2nd February 1878, authorising the raising of a loan to the amount of 130,000 l., but the accounts received up to the present time do not show that any moneys have been raised under this Ordinance.

C. 1114, pp. 52, 53, 1875.
C. 1337, p. 5, 1876.

The original Estimate for Fiji was 25,000 l., but a further sum of 5,000 l. was added under Treasury authority to meet Expenditure, under the Pacific Islanders' Protection Act, likely to be incurred by the Governor, as High Commissioner for the Western Pacific, for the punishment and repression of kidnapping, and other atrocities, and which expenses, it is stated, could not be defrayed from the already deficient revenue of Fiji. Neither in the accounts of the year 1877, nor in those received for 1878, does there appear any charge for expenses such as those contemplated by the Colonial Office when applying for the additional 5,000 l.

I have been informed by a letter from the Colonial Office, dated 3rd January last, that at present it is impossible to furnish details of the expenditure of the 5,000 l., but that a reference has been made to the Colony on the subject.

The High Commissioner has stated in a letter addressed to the Colonial Office, dated 21st December 1878, that about 3,000 l. of the amount have been expended on the work of the Commission since the proclamation of the Order in Council, which has, as yet, but partially come into operation.

TRANSVAAL.

11. The transfer of the Province to the Crown took place on the 12th April 1877, and accounts have been sent to my Department for examination in respect of the period from 12th April to 31st December 1877; but, in consequence of their incompleteness, and the absence of many important documents and vouchers, I have informed the Secretary of State that it appears to be undesirable to endeavour to make up and pass the accounts for the period in question.

Transvaal.

A Report by the Acting Auditor at Pretoria, transmitted to the Colonial Office by the Administrator of the Government, is annexed, in which the condition of affairs as regards the accounts is fully described.

The accounts already received in respect of the year 1878 are rendered in a much more satisfactory condition, and I have every reason to expect that I shall be able to report upon them in that sense.

The Grant in Aid for the year 1877-78 was 100,000 l. "to meet the immediate necessities of the Provincial Government," to be repaid when local funds will permit.

Mr. Sargeant, one of the Crown Agents for the Colonies, who was sent out by the Secretary of State to inquire into the condition of the finances and other matters connected with the newly acquired Territory, has reported a total debt owing by the Government at the date of transfer, in April 1877, of 295,071 l. He gives the amount of the liabilities on 1st January 1878 as 262,930 l., and he considered that if nothing unforeseen happened, the Province should commence the year 1879 with a debt reduced to 195,370 l.

Sir T. Shepstone to the Secretary of State for the Colonies.

No. 114.

Government House, Pretoria, Transvaal,
22 October 1878.

Sir,
I HAVE the honour to enclose, for transmission to Her Majesty's Commissioners of Audit, the Acting Auditor's Report on the Treasurer's vouchers for payments made from 12th April to 31st December 1877.

2. The Acting Auditor reports that the vouchers have been properly packed and sent to the Post Office to be forwarded by this day's mail, addressed to Her Majesty's Commissioners of Audit, Whitehall, London; I trust, therefore, that they will reach at the same time as this does.

The Right Honourable
The Secretary of State for the Colonies.

I have, &c.
(signed) T. Shepstone, Administrator.

The Acting Auditor's REPORT on the Treasurer's Vouchers for Payments made from 12th April to 31st December 1877.

THE disbursements by the British Administration commenced on 12th April 1877, and up to the end of May the entries were made in the cash book of the late Republic.

In June a qualified accountant was appointed to the Treasury, who, from the very careless and incomplete manner in which the cash book had been formerly kept, finding it impossible to arrive at the actual balance overdrawn at the Cape Commercial Bank, commenced a new one from the date of his taking office, following the same system of classification as in force with the late Republic.

The enormous pressure of work forced upon the departments entrusted with the payment of claims against the late and the present Government, the unfortunate illness of the late treasurer (which unhappily terminated in his death), the difficulty of procuring skilled assistants, added to lack of business knowledge, and lethargy on the part of the Landdrosts, through whom the sums of money were sent for payment to the numerous claimants, all tended to delay the return of the vouchers properly receipted to the Treasury.

It must be borne in mind that with the advent of British rule an entirely new system, incomprehensible to many of the collectors, had been inaugurated, and a revolution had taken place in the internal economy of all the offices, more especially in those of the Landdrosts and magistrates, who had been in the habit of collecting the revenue, and paying their own and subordinates' salaries, their office, gaol, and other expenses out of the fund thus obtained; if any balance was in hand at the end of the month, it was brought forward in the next "Maand Staat," a species of Collectors' Accounts which did duty for the Republican officials.

The radical changes proposed and effected by the Administrator struck immediately at the root of the abuses which had hitherto obtained. Collectors were instructed to remit the whole of their receipts to the Treasurer weekly. No balances were to be kept in hand at the end of the month; all payments were to be made by the Treasurer by cheque only. Proper certificates were required on every voucher, and prior to payment every account, salaries included, underwent a severe scrutiny by the Finance Commission, a Board which has saved the Government the expenditure of many thousands of pounds by its rejection of false and fraudulent claims, which, immediately after the annexation, were forwarded from all parts of the country, accompanied by pathetic and clamorous demands for payment. And notwithstanding the utmost care it is to be feared that many fraudulent claims have been paid, owing mainly to the venal character and ignorance of some of the subordinate officials, whose certificates by custom were deemed sufficient to establish the validity of claims upon the Government.

The system of keeping accounts obtaining with the late Republican Government was faulty in the extreme, not only in the Treasury and Audit Offices, but on the Landdrosts also. In the first-named were kept a cash book, a journal, in which names of persons paying money into, or receiving money from, the Treasury were entered, and a single-entry personal ledger, kept without regard to classification, and utterly valueless as a means of obtaining information regarding the receipts and disbursements under particular heads of service.

In the Audit Office there was no system of registering accounts; those connected with offices in the outlying districts were paid by the heads of departments out of revenue collected and subsequently forwarded to the Auditor with the "Maand Staten."

A useful book was kept by the Auditor, in which he entered all salary accounts, giving a page to each individual who was in receipt of even the smallest salary from the Government.

All payments and receipts were entered from the "Maand Staten" into a journal on the double entry system, and from thence were posted into a ledger, but it is impossible to conceive how any degree of accuracy was maintained when the payments were made indiscriminately by every collector in the service, as well as by the Treasurer, who frequently paid accounts partly by cheque on the bank, and partly by cash, and the entries were made by the Auditor from the "Maand Staten," instead of from the actual vouchers.

The Auditor would seem to have had but little if any control over the receipts and disbursements of the country.

That it was difficult to eradicate the evils of such a system and introduce one which could not be subject to abuse can easily be conceived, when one considers that the Landdrosts exercised almost autocratic rule over their respective countries, and that they had become accustomed to a loose system which gave them unlimited control of the revenue derived from their districts. There was not the readiness to adopt the new regulations, not the energy displayed so necessary to effect speedy payment, and return of the vouchers to the Treasury, and not the intelligence exhibited in grasping the details of the simple regulations provided for their guidance, which one would have expected from men placed in such high and responsible positions. There are but few exceptions to this rule, and notwithstanding the greatest exertions on the part of the Treasurer and Auditor, the new system is still a vexatious puzzle to many.

That the vouchers for 1877 will bear comparison with those for 1878, or that they will bear the strict scrutiny demanded by the Colonial Office cannot be admitted, inasmuch as no particular rule as to form of account has been observed; it apparently made no difference to the Audit Office or Treasury whether an account was made out on a printed form or on a half-sheet of note paper, and there being usually no funds in the Treasury, accounts were passed with the public as liquid documents, in many cases for salary before certification by Auditor or the Treasurer's usual Minute of "seen for payment" being written thereon. The Field Cornets and the Farmers' Accounts for services during the 1876 Sekuteuni war, compose a mass of small dirty pieces of paper, covered with hieroglyphics only decipherable by officials who are conversant with the caligraphy of the country. On the other hand, that the vouchers really and truly represent acquittances for the various sums paid out by the Treasurer cannot for a moment be doubted, notwithstanding their great informality.

The Acting Auditor has considered it advisable to send to the Commissioners of Audit certified copies of original vouchers where duplicates had not been furnished, inasmuch as it may be needful to refer to the originals for production of evidence that claims made on the present Government have already been paid.

The vouchers from 12th April to 31st December not having been abstracted, the Acting Auditor cannot send a classified statement of revenue and expenditure of the province during that period. The statements furnished by the Treasurer to the Finance Commission and Mr. Sargeant will, however, suffice in conjunction with copy of the Treasurer's cash book, which accompanies each month's vouchers. A detailed report on each month's vouchers has also been put up, explaining apparent discrepancies, and directing attention to particular points which require elucidation.

It will be noted by the Commissioners of Audit that several of the vouchers are not receipted. The explanation is as follows:—

The population of the country is thinly scattered over a large area. Payment for a man resident in any one district is sent to his Landdrost for disbursement: this officer, having no means at his disposal for communicating with the claimant, or being, perhaps, too indolent to take any extraordinary measures for that purpose, places the cheque in his safe until such time as the man may visit his town and possibly demand payment of his account.

Many of the accounts referred to have been in hands of the Landdrost for more than six months, and seeing there was no chance of the vouchers being completed in time to allow of their being forwarded to England in their proper places if their return was longer delayed, the Landdrosts were instructed to return vouchers and cheques to the Treasurer, who has brought up the total amount as a deposit, as appears from an entry in his cash book on 27th May 1878, and 24th June 1878. Some of these accounts have since then been paid out by special warrant of his Excellency the Administrator.

Audit Office, Transvaal,
4 October 1878.

(signed) D. M. Kisch,
Acting Auditor.

12. In accordance with the directions of the Lords of the Treasury, Colonies which have received Grants in Aid send their accounts to my Department for the three years following the receipt of the Imperial Grant.

Under these circumstances, the Accounts of the Gold Coast, Gambia, Sierra Leone, and St. Helena for the year 1877 have been received for Audit.

J. Homages, Acting Auditor.

The loss of 2,167 l. 0 s. 8 d. to the Colony, which I noticed in my last Report, by the frauds of the Treasury Clerk, has been reduced by the sum of 130 l. 3 s. 5 d., recovered from the estate of the delinquent in 1878, and will be further reduced by an annual deduction of 15 l. from the salary of the late Auditor.

SIERRA LEONE.

16. The Grant in Aid for this Government in the year 1876-77 was 38,000 l. The local Revenue in 1877 was 60,608 l. 11 s. 5 d., and the Expenditure was 69,959 l. 8 s. 7 d. I have not yet been furnished with any sufficient statement of the Assets and Liabilities of the Government on the 31st December 1877.

The Estimates in respect of the year have not received the sanction of Her Majesty's Government. I have been informed by a letter from the Colonial Office, under date 27th September last, that "for various reasons which have been explained to and accepted by the Secretary of State, the Governor has been as yet unable to prepare and send home the revised Estimates for 1877."

B.—A whole quarter's pensions paid at the Cape (and in one instance two quarters' pension) could not be brought to account in 1877-78; and one pension was not required, and another was not claimed within the year. A small amount was also saved by the death of two pensioners; and the revenue of the Civil and Military Pension Fund proved somewhat larger than had been estimated.

EXTRA RECEIPTS.—More of the capital of the Civil and Military Pension Fund than had been estimated was realised within the year. The amount of the receipts under this head cannot be accurately foreseen.

SUPPRESSION OF THE SLAVE TRADE.

REPORT OF THE COMPTROLLER AND AUDITOR GENERAL.

1. It is necessary for me to revert to my Report of last Session on the Appropriation of the Grant, 1876-77, in which I stated that, in consequence of the non-production of vouchers, I was unable to certify to the correctness of the Account, and that it would appear that, instead of the sum of 42*l.* 1*s.* 3*d.* being voted to make good the deficiency shown by the Account, there was a Net Surplus of 33,257*l.* 18*s.* 9*d.* to be surrendered.

Respecting Surplus on Account,
1876-77.

On reference, however, to the First Report of the Committee of Public Accounts, it will be seen that the Committee (page x) recommended that the sum claimed by the Accounting Officer should be voted, apparently deferring until its final Report any further remarks.

Meanwhile a correspondence took place between the Foreign Office and my Department relative to these charges, and the Accounting Officer expressed some anxiety that so much of the sum charged in the Appropriation Account (1876-77) as was represented by the Accounts rendered should be provisionally allowed on the strength of the mere production of the vouchers, "with the understanding that the examination might be undertaken later;" and he was moved to make this suggestion "by the terms of the First Report of the Committee of Public Accounts, which seemed to him to render it an object of great importance that the Comptroller and Auditor General should be enabled to report that the vouchers had been received;" and thus I was virtually called upon to certify, without examination either by the Foreign Office or by my own Department, to the correctness of a charge which the vouchers on examination might have failed to substantiate.

I felt myself compelled, by the terms of the Exchequer and Audit Departments Act, to withhold my compliance with the Accountant's request, and I accordingly directed an examination of the vouchers furnished, the result of which enabled me to pass the amount claimed, with the exception of the sum charged for the Muscat Subsidy, which, on further explanations, I was ultimately enabled to admit.

There remained a sum of 973*l.* 17*s.* 11*d.* uncovered by vouchers, which, up to the date of the present Account, had not been recovered, but, as appears from the Foreign Office letter of 30th December, has now been received from the India Office, and will consequently form part of the Exchequer Extra Receipts of the present financial year.

CORRESPONDENCE referred to in the foregoing REPORT.

(A.)

Sir,

Foreign Office, 15 June 1878.

WITH reference to the payments made to the India Office in respect of the moiety of the expenses of the Zanzibar Agency and Muscat Subsidy payable from Imperial Revenues, which formed the subject of your Report to Parliament on the Appropriation Accounts for the year 1876-77, I am directed by the Secretary of State to transmit to you the accompanying copy of a letter which has now been received from the India Office, enclosing statements of the expenditure, together with the vouchers, where available, in support of the same.

Adverting to the observations on this subject contained in the First Report of the Committee of Public Accounts for the present year, the Secretary of State concludes that you will be prepared to certify to so much of the sum charged in the Appropriation Account as is represented by the Accounts now rendered, viz., the sum of thirty-two thousand three hundred and twenty six pounds two shillings and one penny, and will recommend that the final adjustment of the Account shall be deferred until the receipt of further particulars, as proposed by the India Office.

(A. 1.)

My Lord,

India Office, 7 June 1878.

WITH reference to previous correspondence, terminating with my letter of the 15th March last, I am directed by Viscount Cranbrook to forward herewith statements of expenditure incurred in India (together with vouchers where available) on account of the Zanzibar Agency and Muscat Subsidy, from the 1st July 1872 to the end of the financial year 1876-77.

From these papers it will be seen that the sum chargeable against the Imperial Exchequer is 32,326 l. 2 s., being a moiety of the amount disbursed by the Government of India. To meet this, however, an advance of 33,300 l., subject to adjustment, was made in March 1877 by Her Majesty's Treasury, to whom therefore a balance of 973 l. 18 s. is repayable.

It will be observed, however, that particulars are still wanting as to the original cost of the old Agency Buildings, and the amount of interest on a moiety thereof which is chargeable against Imperial Revenues is not included in the present calculation. Under these circumstances, I am directed to state that, with Lord Salisbury's concurrence, Lord Cranbrook proposes to defer the final adjustment of accounts until the receipt of the further particulars which have been promised by the Government of India with respect to the item in question.

The Under Secretary of State,
Foreign Office.

I have, &c.
(signed) Louis Mallet.

(B.)

Exchequer and Audit Department,
26 June 1878.

Sir,

I AM directed by the Comptroller and Auditor General to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 15th instant, accompanying certain schedules and vouchers in support of charges incurred on account of the Muscat Subsidy and Zanzibar Agency expenses, one moiety of which is payable out of the Parliamentary Grant for the Commission for the Suppression of Slave Trade, and as such was charged against the Vote for the year ended 31st March 1877.

In reply, I am in the first place to point out to you that the schedules and vouchers now furnished do not appear to have been subjected to any examination, either at the India Office or by the officers of the Foreign Office responsible for the proper application of the Parliamentary Grant, and I am to acquaint you, for the information of the Secretary of State, that the Comptroller and Auditor General cannot undertake, by any examination given to vouchers in his office, to relieve the Accounting Department of the responsibility properly attaching to it; nor can he admit that the course pursued in the present instance, of adopting the figures of the Indian Government in its claims against Imperial Funds, is either satisfactory or necessary.

In view, however, of the circumstances connected with this expenditure, the Comptroller and Auditor General has directed the officers of his Department to examine the papers transmitted with your letter. I am to communicate to you, for the information of the Marquess of Salisbury, the following results of this examination, and the reasons which prevent his acceding to the proposal contained in your letter, that the Comptroller and Auditor General should now certify to so much of the sum charged in the Appropriation Account as is represented by the accounts now rendered.

As regards the claim for the reimbursement of the sums stated to have been paid to his Highness the Sultan of Muscat, there is no evidence whatever that the whole or any part of the sum charged has been received by his Highness, nor is any authority produced to show that the payments should have commenced on 1st February 1871. The statement furnished and signed by Mr. Waterfield, who is apparently an official of the Bombay Government, only purports to be "a Statement of Payments on account of the Zanzibar Subsidy, and of the Moiety due by the Imperial Government." The Comptroller and Auditor General is unable to admit that this is evidence on which the disbursement of 24,319 l. 3 s. 2 d. can probably be passed.

In view, therefore, of the numerous difficulties which seem to the Comptroller and Auditor General to stand in the way of an immediate settlement of the claim of the Indian Government, and with regard to the incompleteness of the vouchers furnished in support of the sum it is now proposed to charge, the Comptroller and Auditor General can see no advantage to the public service in passing the charges now raised, or in certifying as to their correctness, subject to subsequent adjustment in the following year's account, as proposed in your letter. The schedules and vouchers are herewith returned.

Foreign Office.

Sir,

Foreign Office, 15 July 1878.

I AM directed by the Secretary of State to acknowledge the receipt of Mr. Treherne's letter of the 26th ultimo, and its enclosures, relative to the Account of the Muscat Subsidy and Zanzibar Agency expenses, and I am to state to you that, before dealing with the questions on that Account raised in Mr. Treherne's letter, he desires to remove from your mind the impression that, by sending on at once the schedules and vouchers as received from the India Office, it was desired either to relieve this Department of the obligation of examining them or to impose that duty upon the Exchequer and Audit Office.

The Secretary of State had to choose between an immediate examination of these schedules and vouchers, which, with the limited staff at his command, might have involved considerable delay, and the sending them on to you at once, with the understanding that the examination might be undertaken later, and he was moved to the latter alternative by the terms of the First Report of the Committee of Public Accounts, which seemed to him to render it an object of great importance that you should be enabled to report that the vouchers had been received, and thus obviate the necessity for the return of the large sum of between thirty-three thousand and thirty-four thousand pounds to the Exchequer.

The Secretary of State trusts that this explanation will be satisfactory to you, and he desires me to convey to you the expression of his best thanks for having ordered the examination of the schedules and vouchers by your Department, which has, without doubt, materially facilitated the eventual passing of the Account.

I now proceed to reply upon the several points specified in Mr. Treherne's letter.

First, as to the payments made to the Sultan of Muscat, and the authority for their having commenced from the 1st of February 1871; the Secretary of State was under the impression that you had already been furnished with a copy of the Report of the Departmental Committee which formed the groundwork of the action subsequently taken; I am, however, now to transmit to you a copy of that Report, as well as the Treasury Letter adopting its recommendations; and as there seems to be no moral doubt that the money has been paid to his Highness, I am to suggest that perhaps you may be willing to pass the charge, on the understanding that the India Office shall be applied to for receipts.

Sir, Foreign Office, 16 August 1878.
I AM directed by the Marquess of Salisbury to transmit to you a copy of the answer returned by the India Office to the inquiries respecting the Account of the Zanzibar Agency and Muscat Subsidy, which were addressed to that Department in conformity with my letter of the 15th ultimo, and I am to request that you will have the goodness to state to me, for his Lordship's information, whether on the explanations given by that Department you will be prepared to pass the Account.

D. I.

The Comptroller and Auditor General.

I am, &c.
(signed) F. B. Alston.

(D. 1.)

My Lord, India Office, 12 August 1878.
I AM directed by Viscount Cranbrook to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 15th ultimo, which embodied the remarks of the Comptroller and Auditor General on the schedules and vouchers showing the amount due from the Imperial Exchequer in respect of a moiety of the expenditure on the Zanzibar Agency and Muscat Subsidy, from the 1st of July 1872 to the end of the financial year 1876-77.

With regard to the first point, as to which further evidence is called for, viz., the Muscat Subsidy payments, I am directed to state that, as far as Lord Cranbrook is aware, it has not been the usual practice to insist on formal receipts being given by an independent Ruler for subsidies paid to him, and that, in his Lordship's opinion, a statement signed by the British officer in charge of the Treasury, together with the evidence afforded by the Treaty stipulations with Muscat, may fairly be accepted as proof that the money has been properly expended. With regard to the omission from the schedules of any credits on account of "Fees, Fines, and Forfeitures" realised during the quarter ended the 30th of June 1872, I am directed to observe that it has been assumed that the liability of the Imperial Government to share in the expenses of the Zanzibar Agency should commence from the 1st July 1872, and in accordance with that principle the Accounts have been prepared. It would seem an obvious conclusion that receipts prior to that date (although included in the schedules for the whole year 1872-73) should not be taken in reduction of expenditure.

There remain, however, two points noticed by the Auditor General, viz., the absence of Nil receipts, and an unexplained item of Rs. 75. 3. 3. brought to credit. With regard to these, no information is available in this office, and further reference to India therefore becomes necessary. Taking in consideration, however, the fresh delay that this course would involve, and the nature of the evidence called for, which appears of minor importance, Lord Cranbrook would suggest, for the Marquess of Salisbury's consideration, that the Comptroller and Auditor General should be asked whether the Accounts as they now stand will not satisfy the requirements of his Department, or whether the omissions pointed out by him render a further reference to India necessary.

To the Under Secretary,
Foreign Office.

I have, &c.

(E.)

Exchequer and Audit Department,
4 September 1878.

Sir,
I AM directed by the Comptroller and Auditor General to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 16th ultimo, enclosing a copy of a letter received from the India Office respecting the Accounts of the Zanzibar Agency and Muscat Subsidy; and, in reply, I am to state, for the information of the Marquess of Salisbury, that under the circumstances the Comptroller and Auditor General is willing to waive the objections raised by this Department on the subject of certain unvouched items and the absence of Nil returns, and consequently to admit, as properly chargeable to the Vote, a total sum of 33,228 l. 6 s. 9 d.

The Comptroller and Auditor General, however, cannot, so far as he is concerned, consent to the question of the Appropriation of the Grant, 1876-77, remaining without adjustment at its present point. There is nothing in the evidence given before the Public Accounts Committee to show on what grounds the Committee arrived at the conclusion that the amount advanced to the India Office would prove to be the final sum chargeable to the Vote, in the absence of the requisite vouchers; but, as a matter of fact, it appears from their First Report that, while expecting that the matter would come under their consideration again before their final Report, they did consent to assume the correctness of the figures as shown by the Appropriation Account of the Grant for the Commission for the Suppression of the Slave Trade, and to recommend that the deficit of 42 l. 1 s. 3 d. therein shown should be voted. This sum was subsequently granted by Parliament, thus voting a sum to cover a deficit which the subsequent production of the detailed accounts showed not to have had any real existence.

In its Account of the Appropriation of the Grant, 1876-77, the Foreign Office claimed credit for having disbursed 34,202*l.* 4*s.* 8*d.* under Sub-Heads C. and D. of the Vote, and of this sum, as stated by the Comptroller and Auditor General in his Report, 902*l.* 4*s.* 8*d.* was duly accounted for, and properly vouched, the difference, 33,300*l.*, being the amounts paid on account of the Muscat Subsidy and Zanzibar Agency, for which no vouchers had been received. These documents were, however, subsequently transmitted to the Comptroller and Auditor General; but it was found that, even if the irregular form in which they were rendered was condoned, yet the claim by the Indian Government only amounted to 32,326*l.* 2*s.* 1*d.*, viz., on account of the Agency Expenses at Zanzibar, 8,006*l.* 18*s.* 11*d.*, and of the Muscat Subsidy, 24,319*l.* 3*s.* 2*d.* Thus, accepting the figures furnished to the Foreign Office by the India Office, a total charge of 33,228*l.* 6*s.* 9*d.* had been incurred under these Sub-Heads, instead of 34,202*l.* 4*s.* 8*d.*, as stated, and consequently there remains due to Her Majesty's Treasury, as stated in Sir Louis Mallet's letter of 7th June 1878, 973*l.* 17*s.* 11*d.*, which sum, remaining as an admitted imprest or advance, cannot, under the provisions of the 24th section of the Exchequer and Audit Act, be considered as a final charge in the Account for 1876-77.

The Comptroller and Auditor General will, of course, have no alternative but to explain, in his next Report to Parliament, the circumstances under which the excess Vote of last Session was taken, but in the meantime he is of opinion that the Treasury should be communicated with, with a view to the amount overpaid to the Indian Government being recovered and surrendered to Her Majesty's Exchequer.

In conclusion, I am to make one remark with reference to the Enclosure in your letter of the 16th ultimo. The Comptroller and Auditor General did not suppose, when asking for some evidence of the payment of the Muscat Subsidy, that the autograph signature of the Sultan should be required; but he presumed that the officers of his Highness's Treasury, into whose hands probably the subsidy is paid, should furnish some proof of its receipt, and he cannot suppose that the Indian Government is content with the annual disbursement of so large a sum without evidence of its having reached its proper destination.

It is this evidence which the Comptroller and Auditor General is of opinion should be produced to him in future, before he can be expected to certify to the House of Commons as to the proper appropriation of the Parliamentary Grant, and I am to request that you will move the Secretary of State for India to furnish the Foreign Office in future with some proof of the payment of the subsidy other than the statement of the Consular Agent.

To F. B. Alston, Esq.,
Foreign Office.

I have, &c.

EXPLANATION of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

- A.—The Expenditure under this Sub-Head depends upon the number and magnitude of the captures within the year. It cannot, therefore, be precisely estimated.
- B. and D.—These Deficits arose from the fact that, during the year, slaves were taken at Sierra Leone, where there is not now any permanent establishment for their reception. Remuneration for Overseers, was, therefore required as well as provisions and forage, &c.
- C.—The Expenditure under this Sub-Head cannot be foreseen.
- E.—Five quarters' allowance happened to be paid within the year.
- F. and G.—These Surpluses are owing to the death during the year, of certain of the Africans for whom provision was made.
- H.—The Expenditure for repairs proved less than had been expected.

The Surplus of 1,440 l. 14 s. 8 d., shown on the Account of the Vote "Tonnage Bounties, &c., and Liberated African Department," for the year ended 31st March 1877, has been surrendered.

SUPERANNUATION AND RETIRED ALLOWANCES.

REPORT OF THE COMPTROLLER AND AUDITOR GENERAL.

1. THERE is an Excess of Expenditure over the Estimate under Sub-Heads A., Excess.
 "Superannuation Allowances," and Sub-Head C., "Compassionate Allowances."

2. Under Sub-Head A., a payment of 6*l.* 4*s.* 7*d.*, and under Sub-Head B., a payment Unvouched pay-of 3*l.* 6*s.* 3*d.* are unvouched. In reply to a communication on the subject, the Deputy ments.
 Paymaster General has informed me that "the vouchers were mislaid in the Paymaster General's office after they had been examined and found correct in every respect."

Under these circumstances, and as the payments were made by Colonial postmasters, and repayment was claimed from the Paymaster General by the Postmaster General,
 I have not thought it incumbent upon me to report the sums as not properly chargeable to the Vote.

VOTE 2.

MERCHANT SEAMEN'S FUND, PENSIONS, &c.

REPORT OF THE COMPTROLLER AND AUDITOR GENERAL.

1. THE Report on the Appropriation Account of this Vote for the year 1874-75, and also that for the year 1875-76, called attention to the fact of the acceptance by the Board of Trade of contributions from seamen entitling the contributors to pensions in cases which appeared inadmissible under the terms of the Act 14 & 15 Vict. c. 102, ss. 43 and 50, in consequence of which, in January 1877, the Board of Trade obtained a legal opinion on the subject, which being adverse to the course which had been pursued by the Board of Trade, the contributions referred to were returned to the seamen. Contributions of Seamen towards Pensions.

It was intended to have obtained fresh statutory authority on the subject in the Merchant Shipping Bill of last Session, but, as the Bill was withdrawn, the Treasury gave an authority to the Board of Trade to act as heretofore upon the understanding that the necessary statutory powers will be sought and obtained next Session.

Under this Treasury direction the Board of Trade have received a contribution from a seaman, which, as the law at present stands, is inadmissible.

2. I have not been furnished with receipts for Pensions, amounting to 95*l.* 19*s.*, paid by consuls, colonial treasurers, and supervisors of Excise, through the agency of the War Office during the year 1876-77, and charged in the present Account. Certain Receipts not furnished.

It has been explained by the Board of Trade that the War Office, through which the Pensions are paid, are now unable to supply the vouchers and receipts required, but that in future care will be taken to have these Pension receipts abstracted from the various Accounts in which the charges appear. Under these circumstances, and as a certificate has been furnished by the Deputy Accountant General of the Army that the charges have been properly vouched and are correct, I have not considered it necessary to report these payments as not properly chargeable in the Vote.

VOTE 3.

RELIEF OF DISTRESSED BRITISH SEAMEN ABROAD.

REPORT OF THE COMPTROLLER AND AUDITOR GENERAL.

1. IN the Report on this Vote for the year 1869-70, paragraph 11, attention was drawn to the subject of the Wages of Seamen discharged in British Possessions; and it was then pointed out that the instructions to Board of Trade officers in the Colonies were apparently at variance with the Merchant Shipping Act of 1854, under which officers acting for the Board of Trade in the Colonies have no power to claim and dispose of wages of seamen.

Wages of Seamen
Discharged in British Possessions.

In reply to a Question (899) on this subject by the Committee of Public Accounts, the Permanent Secretary of the Board of Trade stated that the Act was imperfect in this respect, and that in the new Merchant Shipping Bill care would be taken to put the case of seamen discharged in colonial ports on the same footing as those discharged in foreign ports.

Since 1870 three or more Shipping Acts have been passed, but no steps have apparently been taken to amend Section 210 of the Act of 1854, which deals with the subject.

The attention of this Department has again been called to the subject, and a correspondence has taken place with the Board of Trade with reference to the ultimate disposal of wages paid to mercantile marine officers in India, as it had been observed that wages were sometimes brought into their accounts with the Board of Trade, the disposal of which was not accounted for, and that at other times wages stated to have been paid to such officers were altogether omitted from the accounts of the mercantile marine officers.

I have been informed by the Board of Trade that the instructions issued from the Department of the Comptroller General, Calcutta, to mercantile marine officers are to omit from their accounts all balances of wages, unless the seamen die in India, or are sent home or to another port.

In the case of seamen left behind in hospital or gaol, their wages are placed in deposit pending their discharge or release, when the balances, after deducting all expenses, are returned to the seamen, and neither the receipts nor the payments are shown in the agents' accounts with the Board of Trade.

It appears to be desirable to bring this subject of seamen's wages, discharged in British Possessions, again under consideration, as it would appear that, so long as Section 210 of the Act of 1854 remains unamended, the agents of the Board of Trade in British Possessions abroad labour under an admitted defect in the law in dealing with the wages of discharged British seamen, whilst at present the mode of accounting for such wages as do come into the hands of these officers is unsatisfactory, and not calculated to afford security that the balance of unclaimed wages of living seamen, which is paid over annually to the Exchequer contains all sums properly belonging to it.

It is further to be observed on this subject that it may and probably does happen that seamen are relieved at the public expense, after discharge in India or other British Possessions abroad, who had balances of wages due to them, which would be applied towards meeting their expenses did the same facility exist of claiming their wages as in foreign ports.

In illustration of the point, I may refer to the case of a seaman sent home at the public expense from Chittagong, to whom wages amounting nearly to the cost of his passage were due, and had apparently been handed over by the master of the vessel from which the seaman was discharged, but respecting the disposal of which no satisfactory explanation has been afforded to my inquiries.

The Board of Trade have informed me by letter, dated 4th January 1879, that a letter was written to the India Office on the 12th June 1878, pointing out the different modes adopted by mercantile marine officers in India in dealing with seamen's wages, and suggesting that one uniform system should be established and followed at all Indian ports, to which letter no reply has yet been received by the Board of Trade.

Charge for Subsistence and Conveyance Home of a Crew.

2. It appears desirable to draw attention to a charge, amounting to 522 l. 14 s. 6 d., including consul's commission, for subsistence, and conveyance home, of the crew and others of the S. S. "Hibernia," employed by the Telegraph Construction and Maintenance Company, wrecked at Maranham in November 1877. The ship was wrecked on her arrival in harbour, and the crew and cablemen, and others, were thrown upon the consul's hands. In order, as he considered, to save the greater expense of maintaining them until a vessel happened to visit the port, he chartered the "Braganza" to carry them to Liverpool, at a cost of 1,200 l. Towards this expense, the owner's agent contributed 400 l.

In addition to the sum of 800 l., the consul expended certain amounts for their subsistence for seven days at Maranham, and a further sum (44 l. 17 s.) has been paid by the Board of Trade for the conveyance home of 13 men of the "Hibernia" by the "Braganza" beyond the sum agreed upon for chartering that vessel.

Upon receiving the accounts from the consul, the Board of Trade, while admitting that the relief afforded fell within its instructions, considered that so large and wealthy a company ought to bear a larger part of the expense, and it was pointed out to the company that although the Vote was placed at the disposal of the Board of Trade, to assist seamen in distress, and relieve seamen shipwrecked, without inquiring into the circumstances of the owners, yet that the fact of these persons being the servants of a wealthy company could not be overlooked, and upon these representations the company agreed to contribute a further sum of 500 l., leaving the charge of 522 l. 14 s. 6 d. to fall upon the Vote.

Charge for rescue of crew of SS. "Kate" by the "Hewett."

3. There is another charge, amounting to 100 l., in this account to which I think it right to call attention.

The S. S. "Kate," of Whitby, which, according to the finding of the court of inquiry respecting her loss, left port much too heavily laden, foundered in the North Sea, her crew having been taken off by a small steamer, the "Hewett," employed to collect fish from fishing smacks and convey the same to market. In consequence of these services the market was lost, and compensation was claimed by the owners, and also by the master, for saving the lives of 18 men forming the crew of the "Kate."

After a full consideration of the matter, the Board of Trade awarded 100 l. to cover everything.

I notice in the report of the Court that the value of the "Kate" was put down at 12,000 l., and that she was insured for 14,000 l., and under these circumstances it seems doubtful to me whether the loss of the market of the "Hewett" should not have been left to be compensated by the owners of the "Kate."

Charge on account of the "Northumbria."

4. I have to bring under notice two payments of 52 l. and 125 l. charged in the account, which were made in respect of the same service, the circumstances of which are as follows:—

A British vessel, the "Northumbria," was wrecked on the Island of Anticosti, and a schooner was engaged to convey the master and crew to Gaspé, upon an agreement that on arrival the charge for this service should be left to the decision of two merchants, who fixed the remuneration at 600 dollars (125 l.)

In the meantime, a vessel of Gaspé undertook to go to Anticosti to fetch the crew of the "Northumbria" for a sum of 250 dollars (52 l.), the first arrangement being, it is stated, unknown, when the second was made. I have no further information which will explain the difference made in the two charges, beyond the fact stated by the shipping master at Quebec, that the vessel, for the services of which 600 dollars were paid, had to be taken out of winter quarters, rigged, and manned, at a period when insurance had run out. The payments have been allowed by the Board of Trade, as the circumstances were altogether unusual, and as there was no reason to suspect that the best arrangements which the circumstances admitted, were not made.

Although not prepared to dispute the strict legality of the payments referred to in the three preceding paragraphs, or the propriety of charging them against the Vote for Relief of Distressed British Seamen, it has appeared to me to be the duty of this Department to point out that, under the heading of Relief to Seamen, the Board of Trade has, and perhaps must, incur large expenditure for other objects.

Charge for Conveyance of Seamen from Huelva.

5. There is a payment of 4 l. 10 s. charged in this account for conveyance from Huelva of distressed seamen, for which no receipt is produced by the master of the "Iduna," the conveying ship.

The consul in his account has stated these seamen were shipped on board this vessel; but in a report of the Registrar General of Seamen he explains that, although the vessel which is stated to have conveyed home the seamen appears to have been at Huelva and Liverpool at the dates named in the Conveyance Order, he finds no mention made in the papers transmitted to him of the distressed seamen having been taken on board.

The Board of Trade, in reply to a communication from this Department, state that they "considered the present vouchers sufficient evidence of the correctness of the charge."

I am, however, unable to concur in this view, or, under the circumstances, to report the amount as properly chargeable on the Vote.

6. I have also to report a payment of 2 l. charged in the account of the consul at Santos for funeral expenses of a seaman, as not properly chargeable on the Vote for want of a receipt. Unvouched Charges.

7. Deducting the sums referred to in paragraphs 5 and 6 as not properly chargeable upon the Vote, the total expenditure will be 31,605 l. 12 s. 4 d. instead of 31,612 l. 2 s. 4 d., and the Surplus to be surrendered will be 1,394 l. 7 s. 8 d., and not 1,387 l. 17 s. 8 d. as shown in the account, which should accordingly stand as follows:— Amended Surplus.

VOTE 8.

REPORT OF THE COMPTROLLER AND AUDITOR GENERAL.

1. THIS is the first Account of a sum provided by Parliament for the Deficiency of the Savings Banks and Friendly Societies, in accordance with the provisions of the Act 40 Vict. c. 13, ss. 15 and 16.

First Account.
2. The Act also provides that when the Gross Amount of Interest accrued from the Securities standing to the credit of the Post Office Savings Banks Accounts exceeds the Interest credited to Depositors, and the expenses relating to Post Office Savings Banks, the Surplus shall be paid over to the Exchequer. In the Year 1877-78, the sum so paid over has been 126,279 l. 14 s. 11 d.

Nature of Account.
3. The Surplus is, as shown by the Account, 12 s. 10 d.

EXPLANATION of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

A., C., and D.—These Surpluses are owing to the fact that certain claims, for which provision had been made, did not come in course of payment during the financial year.

B.—Under-estimated.

E.—This deficiency is due to the payment within the year of the arrears of salary payable to the estate of the deceased Commissioner, whose death actually occurred within the previous financial year.

F. and G.—Over-estimated.

H. to L.—This Commission, which at the time the Estimate was in course of preparation, was expected to complete its labours within three months, actually lasted throughout the financial year. Moreover, a claim for Shorthand-writing, for which provision was made in the Vote for 1876–77, did not come in course of payment till the present year.

M.—This Surplus results from the non-employment of a Messenger, for whose salary provision had been made.

N.—The claim for Shorthand-writing did not come in course of payment during the year.

O.—Over-estimated.

P.—Under-estimated.

Q. to T.—This Commission, for which six months' provision only was made, actually lasted the whole year. Hence the deficiency.

U.—In the Estimate provision was made for salaries for nine months only. Owing, however, to the prolongation of the Commission beyond that period, four quarters' salaries came in course of payment during the year.

V. and X.—Over-estimated.

W.—The cost of Shorthand-writing fell considerably short of what had been anticipated.

A 1. to A 4.—Casual differences between Grant and Expenditure.

B 1.—Casual difference between Grant and Expenditure.

B 2., B 3., and B 4.—Over-estimated.

GENERAL OBSERVATION.—No trustworthy Estimate can be formed of the number and cost of the Commissions that may be appointed in the year for which the Estimate is framed.

C.—Casual difference between Estimate and Expenditure.

D.—The charge for Warders fell short of what had been anticipated.

F.—These fees are not claimed with regularity.

H.—This Sub-head, which was not contemplated when the Estimate was framed, was opened for the purpose of recording the Expenditure necessary to carry out Her Majesty's Warrant of the 30th April 1877, under which Medals may be awarded for gallantry in saving life on land.

EXTRA RECEIPTS.—The sum of 2,498 l. 0 s. 6 d. consists entirely of Fees received from the Tower of London Jewel House.

A Grant has been taken for 421 l. 4 s. 3 d., the Deficit shown on the Account of the Vote "Miscellaneous Expenses," for the year ended 31st March 1877.

Amount of Extra Receipts realised in the Year 1877-78, and paid over to Exchequer -	336 16 -

EXPLANATION of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

A., E., and F.—Over-estimated.

B., C., and D.—The amount realised by sale of plans, &c., to the 31st March 1877, to which date the Estimate included the total of the net advances from the Civil Contingencies Fund, proved less than had been stated, thereby causing a deficit on the aggregate of these Sub-Heads. On the other hand, it will be seen that a sum of 336 l. 16 s. was realised subsequently to 31st March 1877, when the expenditure was made directly chargeable to the Vote.

EXTRA RECEIPTS.—This sum is thus composed:—

Prints of Minutes of Evidence - - - - -	£. s. d. 257 9 -
Prints of Draft Scheme - - - - -	79 7 -
	£. 336 16 -

The amount represents the Extra Receipts realised during the year 1877-8. Previously to the 1st of April 1877, the Expenditure of the Commission, less the Extra Receipts, was advanced from the Civil Contingencies Fund. It will be observed that the Total of such Receipts was shown as a set-off against the Expenditure on the face of the Estimate, but was slightly overstated. The amount actually realised was not 3,426 l., but 3,248 l. 5 s. 7 d., making with the above sum, 3,586 l. 1 s. 7 d.

DEPARTMENT, in the Year ended 31st March 1878, showing the each Sub-Head of the Vote.

Explanation of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

- A. 1.—As the Expenditure so nearly agrees with the Estimate, no observation seems necessary.
- 2.—The Travelling Expenses of the Superintending Department have, for this year, been less than anticipated.
- B. 1.—The Saving has been effected, chiefly, by delay in filling up vacancies on the Establishment.
- 2.—The Excess being small no observation appears to be necessary.
- 3.—Less than anticipated in meeting cost of the supply of Clothing for the year.
- 4.—The Expense under this head varies a good deal, and it is not always possible to anticipate the probable repairs to a Steam Vessel.
- 5.—Less Supply of Boats and Stores than was anticipated.
- 6.—Short estimated.
- 7.—A large item of Expenditure for repairs to Buildings, Furniture, &c., formerly borne by this Sub-head, is now transferred to Board of Works,—hence the Saving.
- C. 1.—There are several vacancies on Establishment not filled up; and there have been fewer Extra and Glut Officers employed than was anticipated.
- 2.—Travelling less than anticipated.
- 3.—The maintenance of Steam Launches has cost more than estimated.
- 4.—Same observation as B. 7.

REVENUE.

The Receipt side of this Account has been subjected to a test examination, and the Payment side to a detailed examination; and I have to report that in both cases the result has proved satisfactory, and that the Lords of the Treasury and the Board of Customs have been informed accordingly. Examination of the Revenue Account.

I have to observe that the test examination, which has hitherto been confined to the accounts exhibited by the Accountant and Comptroller General in London, has this year been extended to the books of the Collector at the Port of Leith; and I propose to extend this test to other ports in the United Kingdom.

- * (1.) An amount of 11,794*l.* 13*s.* has been received from the Board of Trade during the period of this account for distribution among Officers of the Excise Surveying Department, as remuneration for collecting Agricultural Statistics.
- (2.) Surveyors of Taxes in Scotland receive extra remuneration from local sources at the discretion of the Commissioners of Supply for acting as Registrars of Voters for Burghs and Counties, under the Act 31 & 32 Vict. c. 48, and prior Acts. The net sum of 2,518*l.* 13*s.* 6*d.* has been received on this account during the past year.
- (3.) Collectors of Inland Revenue in Ireland receive an allowance from the Office of Woods of 2*l.* per centum on the amount of Quit Rents collected by them; one-third part of such allowance being paid to their clerks. The sum of 826*l.* was so received in the year ended 31st March 1878.
- (4.) A sum of 40*l.* was received by the Principal of the Inland Revenue Laboratory in July 1877, from the Science and Art Department, for his services in re-arranging the Collection of Samples at the Bethnal Green Museum, illustrating adulterations.
- (5.) An allowance at the rate of 2*l.* per annum has been paid under sanction of the Treasury, to the person employed to clean and oil the crane and chains used for lowering and raising casks in the bonded warehouses under the Collector's offices in Liverpool.

REVENUE DEPARTMENTS, AND POST OFFICE PACKET AND TELEGRAPH SERVICES.

- - - - - VOTE 2.

- - - - - INLAND REVENUE.

SERVICES, in the Year ended 31st March 1878, showing the Surplus or Sub-Head of the Vote.

Explanation of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

- A.—The slight Excess under this Sub-Head has been caused by a sum of 500 l. having been specially awarded by Treasury Letter of 7th March 1878, to an Officer of the In-door Department for the invention of a Hand-Stamping Recording Machine. A considerable Surplus would have been shown under this Sub-Head, had it not been absorbed by the introduction of the system of monthly payment of Salaries at the Chief Office, as sanctioned by Treasury Letter of 2nd March 1878.
- B.—This Surplus has resulted from the expenses incurred in the removal of Officers of the Out-door Service, consequent upon the re-organisation of the Excise and Taxes Surveying Branches, having proved to be less than anticipated; and from the ordinary Travelling Charges incurred during the year by Inspecting and other Officers having slightly declined.
- C.—This Surplus has principally arisen, as in the prior year, from the continued transfer of the duties of certain Distributors of Stamps, who were paid by poundage, to Collectors of Inland Revenue, whose salaries and expenses are provided for under other Sub-Heads.
- D.—The payment of Poundage to Clerks to Commissioners of Taxes is dependent upon the period at which the Accounts for their respective Divisions are closed; and notwithstanding that the Collection of the House Duty and Income Tax was more prompt in 1877–78 than in the prior year, many claims for Poundage in respect of the Assessments for the year 1877–78 could not be settled until 1st April 1878.
- E.—The delay in the Collection of the House Duty and Income Tax for the year 1876–77 (year of New Assessment), led to the settlement of many claims for Poundage to Collectors and Assessors being deferred to the Year 1877–78; whilst, on the other hand, the prompt Collection of the Assessments for the Year 1877–78 has augmented the Charges for Poundage under this Sub-Head, to a greater extent than was contemplated when the Estimate was framed.
- F.—This Surplus is due to the Distributorship of Stamps at Stornoway, and the Sub-Distributorships at Kirkcaldy, Leven, Forres, and Callandar, having been vacated during the Year, when new appointments were made at reduced salaries.
- G.—The charge for Commission is upon the partial remittance of Revenue through various channels, and it is not practicable to estimate the cost with very great exactness.
- H.—No variation.
- I.—The Vote for 1877–78 was increased by 25 l., as compared with that of the prior year, for Dresses for the Police Force when engaged in Fire-hose practice at Somerset House, but the whole of that expense was not incurred by the Police authorities within the Financial Year.
- K.—The Expenditure under this Sub-Head, although larger than that of prior year, has proved to be rather under the Estimate. Is it to be observed that a reduced provision has been made for these charges for the Year 1878–79.
- L.—Slightly under-estimated. Caused by the fluctuations in the prices of coals, gas, wood, &c.
- M.—The re-organisation of the several In-door and Out-door Departments of the Inland Revenue having been completed, the expenditure under this Sub-Head has declined. A smaller provision has been made for these charges for the year 1878–79.
- N.—The expenditure for dies and plates for impressing and printing stamps has proved to be less than was anticipated.

(6.) This amount includes a gratuity of 500 l. paid to a clerk in the Accountant and Comptroller General's Department, under sanction of the Treasury Letter of 7th March 1878, for his invention of a hand-stamping recording machine, whereby much time has been saved in the stamping of deeds, and considerable economy effected, with increased security to the revenue.

(7.) An allowance of 25 l. per annum has been paid under sanction of the Treasury to the Head Messenger at Chief Office, for acting as Housekeeper at the Inland Revenue Offices, Tower Hill.

(8.) The Porter (coal) at Bristol at 16 s. per week, is also in receipt of a Compensation Allowance of 51 l. 13 s. 4 d. per annum as a late Permit Writer in London East Collection.

† In this amount is included the sum of 1,022 l. 2 s. 4½ d. allowed to Surveyors of Taxes and Officers of Inland Revenue acting as Distributors of Stamps.

‡ In this amount is included the sum of 294 l. 17 s. 3 d., allowed to Officers of Inland Revenue acting as Collectors of Taxes.

- - - - - VOTE 2.—INLAND REVENUE—continued.

Revenue Services, in the Year ended 31st March 1878, &c.—continued.

Explanation of the Causes of Variation between Expenditure and Grant.

- O.—This Surplus is mainly due to the fact that a large claim in respect of alterations, &c., to the Machinery in the Stamping Department was not rendered by the Contractor until some time after the close of the financial year.
- P.—The expenditure under this Sub-Head has slightly exceeded the provision made. The excess has been mainly caused by an unexpected claim for staunching the central avenue of the Bonded Warehouse at Limerick having come in course of payment during the year. The excess has been sanctioned by Treasury Letter of 26th March 1878.
- Q.—This Surplus is due to the charges for postage of letters and parcels, other than to and from the Chief Office, having proved to be under that of the prior year, upon which the Estimate was based.
- R.—Although a larger sum has been voted under this Sub-Head for the year 1877-78 than was granted for the service of the year 1876-77, it has proved to be inadequate to meet the charges incurred in the local publication of lists of persons to whom Licenses have been issued to keep Dogs, or kill Game, &c. It may be noted that the Vote for the year 1878-79 has been increased to 8,000 l.
- S.—This Surplus has arisen from the charges for Paper for Adhesive Stamps, and for Printing and Gumming having proved to be less than was anticipated when the Estimate was framed.
- T.—Over-provision.—By the repeal of the Stamp Duty of 30*s.* on Officers' Commissions (38 Vict. c. 23, s. 14) the expenditure under this Sub-Head has much declined. A diminished Vote has been taken for the year 1878-79.
- V.—This slight Excess has been caused by certain claims for Copies of Poor Rates supplied in 1876-77 (which for that year were very numerous, it being a year of New Assessment) not having been preferred until too late to admit of payment being made prior to the 1st April 1877.
- W.—Slightly over-estimated. The expenditure under this Sub-Head is necessarily of a fluctuating character.
- X.—This Surplus is larger than it would have been had not certain Rewards to Officers for Detections, &c. been granted too late to admit of their payment before the close of the financial year; the payments under this Sub-Head are, however, necessarily uncertain, being contingent upon the result of proceedings for infringement of the Revenue Laws, and the degree of merit attaching to the detecting officers.
- Y.—It is not possible to make any fairly accurate Estimate of the probable charges which may fall under this Sub-Head in the course of the year. The whole of the payments which have been charged have been specially sanctioned by the Treasury.
- Z.—Over-estimated. A reduced Vote has been taken for the Year 1878-79.
- A 1.—No variation.
- B 1.—A variety of Incidental Charges are grouped together under this Sub-Head, some of which being of an exceptional character cannot be foreseen; a slightly larger provision has, however, been made for these expenses for the year 1878-79.
- C 1.—As the complete cost of the retirement of Officers of the Excise and Taxes Surveying Departments was not apparent at the time the Estimate was framed, a lump sum was provided to meet the increased cost thereof; this amount has proved to be insufficient.

REVENUE.

Examination of Revenue Account.

The Receipt side of this Account has been subjected to a test examination, and the payment side to a detailed examination; and I have to report that in both cases the result has been found satisfactory, and that the Lords of the Treasury, and the Board of Inland Revenue, have been informed accordingly.

The test examination of the Receipt of Revenue, which has hitherto been confined to the books of the chief Department of Inland Revenue at Somerset House, has this year been extended to the offices in Edinburgh and Dublin.

REPORT OF THE COMPTROLLER AND AUDITOR GENERAL.

1. A REFERENCE to the Second Report of the Committee of Public Accounts of last Session will show that on the 10th July 1878, the following subjects, to which attention had been called in my Reports on the Post Office Accounts, had not been finally dealt with:—

Subjects mentioned in last Report, not finally dealt with.

- (1.) The examination of the London District and Provincial Post Office Accounts as to Treasury authority.
- (2.) The mode of remunerating Sub-Postmasters and Receivers.
- (3.) The apportionment of rent of premises jointly occupied by Postal and Telegraph Services.
- (4.) The excess of the cost of management of Government Annuities and Insurances over the amount received by the Postmaster General.
- (5.) The employment of persons in Provincial Post Offices before they had received Civil Service Certificates.

2. With regard to three of these outstanding subjects, viz.:—

- (1.) The examination of the London District and Provincial Post Office Accounts as to Treasury authority;
- (2.) The mode of remunerating Sub-Postmasters and Receivers;
- (3.) The apportionment of rents of premises jointly occupied by Postal and Telegraph Services;

Examination of Provincial Post Office Accounts, remuneration of Sub-Postmasters, and apportionment of Postal and Telegraph Rents will shortly engage attention of the Treasury.

I have only to report that it has been communicated to me, by direction of the Postmaster General, that on the 25th of September last, the Lords of the Treasury informed him that these questions would shortly engage their attention.

3. With regard to the excess of the cost of management of Government Annuities and Insurances over the amount received by the Postmaster General, I have been informed by the Post Office (7 December 1878) that "the Treasury have not yet communicated their decision on this question."

Decision as to excess of cost of management of Government Annuities and Insurances not communicated by Treasury.

The Postmaster General has furnished me with a statement which shows that the deficiency in respect of fees on account of annuities amounts to 3,874 l. 5 s. 7½ d.

Deficiency in respect of Fees on Annuities.

4. With regard to the fifth outstanding question, viz., the employment of persons in Provincial Post Offices before they have received Civil Service Certificates, I have to state with reference to the seventh paragraph of the Public Accounts Committee's Second Report for 1878, that some further correspondence (hereto appended) has taken place with the Treasury on the subject which has rendered it necessary for me to communicate with the Postmaster General in reference to the question.

A.
Employment of uncertificated persons in Provincial Post Offices.

Meanwhile, I have to observe that cases of the employment of uncertificated persons in Provincial Post Offices are of very frequent occurrence, and that considerable inconvenience is experienced by my Department from the uncertainty which now prevails as to the proper manner of dealing with such cases.

Inconvenience arising from uncertainty. Opinion of Committee of Public Accounts asked for.

The correspondence that has passed upon this subject since the presentation of my last Report, is annexed.

6. THE Account in respect of the Postal and Telegraph Revenue of England, Ireland, and Scotland has been subjected to a test examination, with satisfactory results.

Examination of Revenue Account.

7. In accordance with a request conveyed to me in a letter from the Treasury, dated 6th October 1875, my department, in 1876, undertook an investigation of the relations existing between the Post Office and Submarine Telegraph Companies. The result of this investigation was duly communicated to the Treasury in a letter, dated 22nd July 1876. In compliance with a further intimation of their Lordships' wishes on the subject, I propose shortly to resume the inquiry.

Sir,
In reply to Mr. Treherne's letter of the 19th ultimo, upon the subject of the employment of certain persons in Provincial Post Offices from periods prior to the date of their Certificates, I am directed by my Lords to point out, as Mr. Blackwood already appears to have done in his letter addressed to you by direction of the Postmaster General on 29th January last, that the proviso in the notice given in the Gazette of 16th January 1872, runs as follows: "Provided that such employment have the previous approval of the Treasury."
In Mr. Treherne's letter now under reply, and in his letter of 21st January 1878, to Mr. Blackwood, he quotes the notice as if it ran, "the employment of such persons."
The underlined words do not occur in the notice, nor do they express anything intended by it.
This part of the proviso was inserted to guard against the possibility that the plea of urgency might be extended from persons to employments. The notice applies exclusively to the vacancies in employments (which word must be understood to include all that is meant by offices, places, situations, and the like) which have had the previous approval of the Treasury.

The

The notice has nothing to do with the mode in which the particular situation should be filled up, whether by nomination and a test examination, or by open or limited competition; it is directed wholly or solely to the immediate necessity for a locum tenens, and it leaves every condition necessary to the validity of a permanent appointment exactly as it stood before.

It is important not to look at this notice as if it bore upon any choice between nomination and competition as a mode of appointment.

It would not have occurred to my Lords that the Treasury letter (19,216) of 8th December last to the Postmaster General had any direct bearing on the case.

The Comptroller and Auditor General.

I have, &c.

(C.)

(E. & A. D. 343—78.)

Sir,

Exchequer and Audit Department,
6 November 1878.

WITH reference to a letter addressed to the Comptroller and Auditor General on 6th March last, relative to the employment of certain persons in Provincial Post Offices for periods prior to the date of their Civil Service Certificates:

With reference also to the 6th and 7th paragraphs of the Second Report of the Committee of Public Accounts for 1878, in which it is stated, relative to the employment of uncertificated persons, that in the opinion of the Committee "it is desirable that the question should be considered by the Treasury, so that the requirements of the Service may be met without any infringement of the Orders in Council":

And with further reference to the Treasury Minute on the First and Second Reports of the Public Accounts Committee, 1878, wherein their Lordships direct that a letter be written to the Postmaster General informing him, inter alia, that "the position of uncertificated temporary employes in Provincial Post Offices will shortly engage their attention":

I am to request, with a view to the preparation of his Reports on the Post Office Accounts 1877-78, that the Comptroller and Auditor General may be informed whether the employment of persons in the General Post Office, prior to their receipt of Civil Service Certificates, has been brought under the notice of the Lords of the Treasury since the passing of the above quoted Minute, dated 25th September 1878, and, if so, I am to request that the Comptroller and Auditor General may be favoured with a communication of their Lordships' decision on the subject.

To the Secretary of the Treasury.

I am, &c.
(signed) H. Treherne.

(D.)

(17,924.)

Treasury Chambers, 9 December 1878.

I AM directed by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in reply to Mr. Treherne's letter of the 6th ultimo, respecting the employment of uncertificated persons, under urgent circumstances, to perform the duties of situations vacant in the Post Office until such time as the vacancies can be filled up by the appointment of persons duly qualified according to the Orders in Council, to inform you that my Lords have referred again to their letter (3,182), dated 6th March last, and that the course pointed out in that letter, and in the previous correspondence which it explains, appears to them, "to meet the requirements of the service without any infringement of the Orders in Council," which is what the Public Accounts Committee asks for in its last Report.

The Committee of Public Accounts does not appear to have had this particular letter under their review.

My Lords do not feel the force of the Postmaster General's objection stated in the evidence before the Public Accounts Committee, No. 455, neither in that answer nor in the greater part of the objections which have been taken to the applicability of the notice in the Gazette of 16th January 1872, to the present class of cases, are the words of the notice correctly quoted.

The notice is said in the answer 455 "to provide that the vacancy shall be supplied by the Civil Service Commissioners." But the words of the notice really are, "as soon as such Commissioners are able to supply the service," which my Lords hold to mean "are able to do whatever they are required to do in order to complete a valid and regular appointment." Their duty, as is pointed out in the said letter (3182), differs in respect of situations reserved for public competition, limited competition, or nomination, but in no case, except in regard to situations (which in the evidence before the Public Accounts Committee are more than once confused with persons)—included in Schedule B. of the Order in Council of 4th June 1870, can "the service be supplied" without the intervention of the Civil Service Commissioners.

The notice in the Gazette is an act done in pursuance of Clause VIII. of that same Order in Council, and by it all situations, during vacancy, are added to Schedule B. under the circumstances and conditions stated in the notice. These Post Office situations are therefore only part of a class, although, for obvious reasons, they form the largest part; nor, unless a number of persons are to be certificated in advance, and kept in reserve for situations of which the duties do not admit of a moment's interruption (a proposal which my Lords think open to much graver objection than anything now in question), do my Lords see how such necessities can be met more consistently than they are at present with the letter and spirit of the Orders in Council.

However, if you will specifically point out wherein the notice of 16th January 1872 (as it is really worded)—fails, in your opinion, to meet the cases to which in the Postal Service my Lords hold that some such notice must be applied, nothing is easier than to alter it, if my Lords and the Postmaster General concur in doing so, under the powers reserved in Clause VIII. of the Order in Council of the 4th June 1870. The answers to Questions 454-460 of the evidence before the Public Accounts Committee, do not appear to take account of this clause, acts done under which become part of the Order in Council itself.

With these explanations you will judge whether any further action on the part of the Treasury is needed to satisfy you that the Order in Council is being observed, in regard to vacancies in the situations in question.

The Comptroller and Auditor General.

I am, &c.
(signed) R. R. W. Ling.

4. The proposed arbitration between the Post Office and the Royal Mail Steam Packet Company with reference to the Postmaster General's share of profits under the West India Mail Contract, to which I drew attention in my Reports on the Accounts for 1875-76, and 1876-77, has not yet been effected.

I am informed by the Post Office, in a letter dated 12th December 1878, as follows :
" The delay has arisen owing to the Post Office conveyancing counsel having been engaged in heavy and important telegraph arbitrations." The Post Office letter of 12th December 1878, will be found in the Appendix.

CORRESPONDENCE referred to in the foregoing REPORT.

(A.)

(Registered No. 178,313.)

General Post Office, London,
18 December 1878.

Sir,
IN reply to the inquiry made in your letter of the 10th instant, No. 1800, relative to the Postal Accounts between this country and India, for the years ended respectively the 31st March 1877, and the 31st March 1878, I beg leave to refer you to my letter of the 10th January last, in which I explained that the Director General of the Post Office of India had caused the accounts for 1877 to be constructed on a wrong principle, thus rendering necessary a correspondence with him on the subject.

After considerable discussion between this Department and the Indian Post Office, without arriving at a mutual understanding, the Postmaster General has found it necessary to ask the intervention of the Secretary of State for India, with the view of settling the points at issue; and Lord John Manners is informed that the whole question was referred by Viscount Cranbrook to the Government of India, in September last, for an early expression of their views on the subject.

Until these questions are settled, no further progress can be made with the preparation of the Indian Postal Accounts.

The Comptroller and Auditor General.

I am, &c.
(signed) S. A. Blackwood.

(B.)

(No. 83,801—77.)

General Post Office, London,
12 December 1878.

Sir,
IN reply to your letter of the 30th ultimo, I beg leave to inform you that the proposed arbitration between the Post Office and the Royal Mail Steam Packet Company, with reference to the Postmaster General's share of profits under the West India Mail Contract of 1868, has not yet taken place.

The delay has arisen owing to the Post Office conveyancing counsel having been engaged in heavy and important telegraph arbitrations, and being thus unable to give his attention to the Royal Mail Company's case, which, in itself, is an extremely difficult one, and would occupy much time and consideration.

Mr. Simpson (the counsel) having been consulted on the subject, hopes to be able to take the Royal Mail papers in hand before the close of this year, unless, in the meantime, some other more pressing Post Office business should require his immediate attention.

The Comptroller and Auditor General,
Somerset House.

I am, &c.
(signed) S. A. Blackwood.

REPORT OF THE COMPTROLLER AND AUDITOR GENERAL.

1. REFERENCE to my Report on Post Office Telegraph Service for the year 1876-77, and to paragraphs 9, 10, and 11 of the Second Report of the Committee of Public Accounts dated 10th July 1878, will show that the only question brought under notice by my Reports on Post Office Telegraph Accounts for 1876-77 and previous years, which remained unsettled at the date of the Public Accounts Committee's Report is that of apportionment, between Post Office and Telegraph Votes, of Expenditure for Sites of Post Office Buildings. The adjustment does not appear to have been made at the close of the present Account.

Apportionment of Expenditure of Sites for Post Office Buildings.

The subjects which seem to me to call for notice in the present Account are :

2. Payments to the Vale of Towy Railway Company amounting to 175*l.* 15*s.* are charged in the present year's Account for Maintenance and Way-leave from 1st February 1870 to 31st December 1877. In reply to a question raised by my Department as to the authority for these payments, I have been informed by the Post Office that "The arrangements made with the Vale of Towy Railway Company have not yet received Treasury sanction, the Draft Agreement being still under consideration. It is hoped, however, that the Draft will be submitted for Treasury approval very shortly. The payment to the Company for Maintenance and Way-leave has stood over pending the completion of the agreement; but it was thought better not to defer payment any longer, no provision having been made for arrears in the current year's Estimate."

Payments to Vale of Towy Railway Company.

3. Paragraph 10 of the Second Report on Public Accounts correctly states that "The proposal of the Postmaster General with respect to the employment of Boy Messengers in Dublin and Edinburgh has received the sanction of the Treasury." This sanction does not, however, strictly speaking, come into operation until 1878-79. I have not, nevertheless, considered it necessary to raise objections to payments for the services of the Messengers in question during the year 1877-78.

Payments to Boy Messengers, Dublin and Edinburgh.

4. A sum of 25*l.* 5*s.* 2*d.* is brought to account as received from the Buckfastleigh, Totnes, and South Devon Railway Company on account of "Interest at 5*l.* per cent. for 2½ years on a debt of 202*l.* 1*s.* 3*d.* from 1st January 1875 to 30th June 1877. This receipt has given rise to an inquiry by my Department whether Treasury approval of the arrangement, under which the interest in question was paid, had been obtained by the Post Office.

Buckfastleigh, Totnes, and South Devon Railway Companies' Interest on Debt.

In reply to this inquiry I have been furnished by the Post Office with copies of Treasury Letters dated respectively 20th June 1877 and 11th January 1878 (which are annexed), by which it appears that their Lordships were aware of the course adopted by the Postmaster General with respect to the debt of 202*l.* 1*s.* 3*d.*

A. B.

I am informed by the Post Office that in compliance with the request contained in their Lordships' Letter, 11th January 1878, the subject was again brought under their notice on 22nd July 1878.

5. The Net Surplus to be surrendered to the Exchequer is, as shown by the Account, 68,700*l.* 0*s.* 1½*d.*

CORRESPONDENCE referred to in the foregoing REPORT.

9820—77. My Lord, Treasury Chambers, 20 June 1877.
 WITH reference to your Lordship's further letter of the 11th instant, relative to the debt of 202*l.* 1*s.* 3*d.* due to the Post Office by the Buckfastleigh, Totnes, and South Devon Railway Company, on account of a line of Telegraph, &c., erected for the Company, I am commanded by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to acquaint you that my Lords approve of your having caused Mr. Batten to be informed on behalf of the Company "that without prejudice to the proceedings which have been commenced, interest at the rate of 5*l.* per cent. per annum will accrue on the debt until it is "paid." My Lords presume that it will be in your Lordship's power to retain as against principal and interest, the amount payable by the Post Office on account of the Mail Service.

I am, in conclusion, to state that my Lords authorise your Lordship to suspend for the present any further proceedings against the Company, but they request that you will again bring the matter under their notice at the expiration of six months.

The Postmaster General.

I have, &c.
 (signed) William Law.

487—78. My Lord, Treasury Chambers, 11 January 1878.
 I AM commanded by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to inform your Lordship with reference to your letter of the 8th instant, again bringing under their Lordships' notice the matter of the debt of 202*l.* 1*s.* 3*d.* due to the Post Office from the Buckfastleigh, Totnes, and South Devon Railway Company for the erection of a line of Telegraph, that under the circumstances represented in your letter, they agree with you that the best course for the present will be for your Department to be content with the payment of interest on the debt in question at the rate of 5*l.* per cent. My Lords, however, request that at the end of six months their attention may be again called to this matter.

The Postmaster General.

I am, &c.
 (signed) William Law.
